

Hesperian Press

REAL AUSTRALIAN BOOKS

Book List January 2024

This list supersedes all previous printed lists.

Bookshop: Rear, 65 Oats Street, Carlisle, Western Australia, 6101.

Open 1.00 p.m.—5.00 p.m. Tuesday and Friday only.

Telephone (08) 9362 5955

All Correspondence: P.O. Box 317, Victoria Park, Western Australia, 6979.

DO NOT POST OR COURIER PARCELS TO THE SHOP - CALL OR MAIL FOR ADVICE

e: books@hesperianpress.com

web: www.hesperianpress.com

also on Facebook

Please note that all prices are in Australian currency and include GST. E&OE.

* = limited trade discount

All books are plus freight. Please add 20% to book weights for packing and calculate the postage.

Excess refunded in stamps. Prices subject to change without notice.

For latest postage charges see the POSTAGE page on the website

PLEASE TRY TO ENSURE THAT THE CORRECT POSTAGE HAS BEEN INCLUDED WHEN ORDERING

Some items are not listed. Please see the ISBN list on the website for all publications, including those out of print.

PLEASE NOTE: Any book title starting with "The" - the second word of the title is used to list by.

Small essays and reports as A5 booklets that have been produced at the end of the booklist

A

A Bushwalking Brew by John Foulsham.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-681-6, (2017, New), A4, illustrated with maps and photos, 251pp, 670 grams $50.00

John Foulsham overlanded to Perth from England in 1969 and became a bushwalker. Long walks in Tasmania, the Stirling Ranges, Kokoda, and his epic journey with Murray Rankin on the Canning Stock Route in 1973 are described and illustrated. Great reading on the trials and joys of Australian bushwalking.

A Camelman on the Canning. The diary of Claude Heppingstone - edited by Phil Bianchi, Peter Bridge, Sheryl Milentis, Gail Dreezens, Tony Vincent

*ISBN 978-0-85905-537-6, (2012), A4, 54pp, 185 grams, $22.00

Claude was a cameleer on the 1908-1910 well construction party of the Canning Stock Route. This is his daily diary. Bush diaries are rare and the detail of this shows the long daily grind of hard bush work and what was done in this great enterprise.

A Century of Service. A history of the Returned & Services League of WA. by Chris Holyday.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-829-2, (New, 2020), A4, heavily illustrated, 140 pages, 600 grams, $40.00

The author worked directly within the RSLWA for eighteen months to record their over 100 years of service, support and hospitality to returned soldiers, sailors, nurses and other service personnel in Western Australia from 1915 to 2020 in all wars. It documents, using the RSLWA's own archives, how the returned soldiers began to organise themselves into soldiers' associations from late 1915. This was attributed to returning 11th and 16th Battalion ex-soldiers. The book, with a Foreword by Governor Beazley, AC, documents the dramatic changes that overtook the WA government, and WA society, following that first 25th April 1915 action at Gallipoli. It identifies those individuals that first came together in support of the returning maimed and injured soldiers. It covers the wide extent of civilian and RSLWA support activities for returning soldiers – and for those still serving at the front. Later chapters explore the RSLWA's increasing relevance in an ever-turbulent and troubled world. The RSLWA has a vital role to play in reminding the nation of its everlasting responsibility, to those who are serving and have served; to its fallen and to the partners and children of the fallen. Its duty will never end for as long as our men and women continue to serve the cause of freedom – and pay its price of eternal vigilance. A copy of the book will be included in a time capsule to be placed in the floor of the new 2020 ANZAC House (completed in September 2020) – the time capsule to be opened in another 100 years' time.

A Clouded Vision by Hugh Clift

*ISBN 0 85905 320 2, (2003 New), Soft Cover, Wire spiral A4, 128pp, illustrated, 375grams $ 30.00

The life of Andrew Barr, pioneer inventor and Doodlakine farmer.

A Dead Mans Dream – Lasseter's Reef Found by Angie Testa and Bill Decarli

ISBN 0 85905 356 3, (New 2005), Soft Cover, 104pp, illustrated, 145grams, $22.00

Ever since Harold Lasseter died in 1931 in his pursuit of his infamous gold-bearing quartz reef, the location of this reef has remained a tantalising mystery

A Gold Seeker's Odyssey by L R Menzies

ISBN 0 85905 290 7, (2004 reprint of 1937 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 171pp, 235grams $28.00

Leslie Menzies was one of the hopeful band of prospectors who arrived in Western Australia during the 1890s goldrush.

A Good Prospect – the life and works of F.W. Ophel "Prospect Good". Compiled and edited by Chris Holyday.

ISBN 978-0-85905-513-0, (2012, New), Soft Cover, A4, 72 pp, illust., 230grams, $25.00*

Ophel was considered by AG Stephens of the Bulletin to be the best of the goldrush poets of the 1890s. Unfortunately Stephens twice misplaced the ms and money to publish was not available. Now, a century later, Ophel's work shines out.

A History of Dressage in Western Australia by Marion Hercock with Zoe Harrison.

ISBN 978-0-85905-750-9, (New, 2019), 160x240mm, French flap soft cover, 398 pages, well illustrated, indexed, 940 grams, $55.00* Country and Interstate $14.55 Perth metro $10.90 or free pickup at office.

The progress of horse and rider training underlies the story of the development of the specialist sport of dressage in Western Australia. This history covers the years from 1829 to 2000. It includes the mounted police and the first riding schools; the hunt club, the pony clubs and the original Dressage Club of Western Australia. It looks at the horses and the riders, from the hackies and eventers to the FEI masters of dressage. Historical detail is blended with personal memories to create an informative and lively ride into the past; and for some readers, a trip down memory lane.

A Farewell to Len Hill, Canning Stock Route Drover and Kimberley Cattleman. by Felicity Hamlyn-Hill & Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-791-2, (New, 2019), 11 pages, 40 grams, $10.00*.

An outline of the life and an appreciation of Len Hill, author of Droving with Ben Taylor.

A History of the 2nd Independent Company and 2/2 Commando Squadron compiled by Col Doig

ISBN 0-85905 149-8, (1986, reprinted 2009), illustrated, A4, Soft Cover, 294 pages, 785 grams, $50.00*

This is the story of the Double Red Diamonds who fought the Japanese in Timor, inflicting casualties far in excess of their number, and showing the usefulness of guerrilla forces against a numerically superior enemy. While all other forces in Asia had been destroyed by the Japanese, the Double Reds were the sole Allied unit to remain undefeated.

A New Zealand Gold Seeker's Adventure in Australia, 1886-1901 by J.W. Swift.

ISBN 978-0-85905-429-4, (N, 2015), A5, 53 pages, 90 grams, $15.00.

Off to the Kimberley rush and its vicissitudes, Swift details his adventures in making a living in the bush, disasters of going blind and blown up in a mining accident, and generally a hard life. We normally only hear of successful men but most just struggle through.

A Pearlery Life. - The Letters of Hedley Vicars Howe, on Broome and Pearlery Days. (With Mary Durack, Hugh Richardson, Sr. Albertus Bain.) Edited by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-971-8, (2023, New), A4, Illustrated, 126 pages, 370 grams, $40.00*

These letters include marvellous descriptions of the Broome characters of old and of the vicissitudes of pearling. Much was intended for a book on these characters but it appears that either the work was never completed or did not find the right publisher and the manuscript is not now extant. The exchanges between Mary Durack and Howe are revealing of the old Broome and especially of the local population. This is very different from the upmarket tourist oriented publications that infest the market.

A Prospector's Life by John Meiklejohn

ISBN 978-0-85905-642-7, (New, 2016), A4, indexed, 52 pages, 165 grams, $22.00*

The newly discovered memoirs of this well-known prospector fill out his articles that were published as Gold Getting Days in 2005. A serendipitous internet search by his grand-daughter discovered Hesperian and so the book came about. A lively read of an adventurous life before WWI. New Zealand, Australia, Africa, Boer War, Madagascar, Klondyke, and London.

A Short Walk in Paradise by Peter W. Board

ISBN 978-0-85905-748-6, (R, 2019), A5, 165 pages, illustrated, soft cover, 225 grams, $30.00*

Peter Board was a British sailor, born in Devonshire, who joined the Royal Navy at 16 and served on HMS Newcastle and HMS Consort. With his mate Ron Palmer they jumped ship after the Montebello nuclear tests. Peter headed for country WA and after some adventures ended up at Dwellingup. He describes bush town life and its people and working on the bush railways of the forest area. Eventually the RN found the pair and it was back to swabbing decks. He returned to Australia in 1972 and worked in the Pilbara.

A Story of Swan Location 16 by Bill de Burgh.

ISBN 0 85905 459 4, (2008), Soft Cover, A4, 50 pp, illustrated, 170 grams, $22.00*

The history of the colonial land locations of Swan 16 (Woodbridge and Bushmead), Swan M1 (Caversham), 16A, and Helena 7 (Waterhall), and Cowalla; and the involvement of the deBurgh, Brockman, Harper, Morrison, Welliton, Phillips, and Whitfield families.

A Story of the Cowalla Coast Run 1873 - 1964 by W. J. deBurgh

ISBN 0 85905 380 6, (2007 New), soft cover, 46pp, illustrated, 80 grams, $12.00

Born in 1912, WJ (Bill) de Burgh spent all his working life on his family's two Moore River properties, Cowalla and Baramba

A Thousand Miles and More – a tramp through the Coolgardie Goldfields by Duke Stewart

ISBN 0 85905 427 6, (2008 Reprint 1896), Soft Cover, 54pp, 95 grams, $15.00*.

In 1896 Duke Stewart set out to report on the conditions of the new Coolgardie goldfields. By walking he absorbed the reality of the bush, meeting the prospectors and sharing their camps.

A Varied And Versatile Life by F. Wittenoom edited by R.L. Lefroy
*ISBN 0 85905 317 2, (2003 upgraded reprint), Soft Cover, Wire spiral A4, 109pp, illustrated, 325grams, $30.00
The first pastoral settlement of the Murchison.

A Voyage Of No Importance by R. Dickson
ISBN 0 85905 298 2, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 126pp illustrated, 180grams, $22.00
An epic dinghy voyage on the wild Kimberley coast in 1920 interwoven with shipwrecks and murder, which cost the lives of 5 white men.

Aboriginal Australian and Tasmanian Rock Carvings and Paintings & Aboriginal Australian Decorative Art by Daniel Sutherland Davidson. With a Foreword by Kim Akerman.
*Two volumes in one. ISBN 978-0-85905-374-7 and ISBN 978-0-85905-375-4, Case bound with laminated cover, 330pp, plus 6 colour plates, 16.5 x 25cm, 950 grams, $95.00
First published in 1936 and 1937 these rare books are unknown to most anthropologists, art dealers and collectors. Davidson was the most important ethnographer of his time and his reputation for the quality and quantity of work produced is unmatched.

Aboriginal Ethnographica: Australian Aboriginal Axes, Spears, Clubs, Canoes, Baskets and Boomerangs. Petroglyphs, Rock art , Interlocking Key Designs, Waningas, Churingas, Fire, Footwear & Death by Daniel Sutherland Davidson.

With an Appreciation of D.S. Davidson by Kim Akerman.
*ISBN 978-0-85905-491-1, (2011R), A4, 489pp, illustrated, Now available in a "soft cover" edition, folded flaps 300gsm cover. 1300 grams, $85.00
This magnificent volume of 489 x A4 pages contains the majority of Davidson's Australian ethnographic papers from 1933 to 1953.

Aboriginal Australian String Figures by D.S. Davidson
ISBN 0 85905 369 5 (1941, 2006) Soft Cover, 141 pp, 200grams, $26.00.
Davidson collected these figures, mainly in WA, in the 1930s. Some 112 are illustrated and their creation described. This is a native art form now lost due to the inroads of TV- videos etc. a microcosm of our own cultural losses

Aboriginal Perth by Daisy Bates
ISBN 0 85905 135 8, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 208pp, illustrated, 260grams, $30.00
A collection of her writings on the now-extinct Aborigines of the Perth and South West areas of Western Australia. Customs, beliefs, biographies and more.

Aboriginal Sign Language by Walter E. Roth
*ISBN 978-0-85905-862-9, (1897 R 2020), A4, 35 pages, illustrated, 140 grams, $22.00
Forgotten by most but still used in many areas. Perhaps a useful study for teachers and police.

Aboriginals and Criminality. Peter J. Bridge, with a Foreword by the late Kevin Moran.
*ISBN 978-0-85905-667-0, (New, 2017), A4, 2 parts, 92 pp, 280 grams, $40.00
Records of crime that have generally been suppressed by the establishment propagandists. Gives a fresh light on both colonial and modern incidents

Aborigines of the King George Sound Region 1836 - 1838. The collected works of James Browne. (1821-1887)
Compiled and annotated by Ken Macintyre and Barbara Dobson
*ISBN 978-0-85905-498-0, 2011 New, A4, 37pp, 140 grams, $22.00
The collected known works of James Browne have been annotated with explanatory notes by Ken Macintyre and Dr Barbara Dobson in order to provide a biographical and ethnohistorical context.

Above the 26th by Les Newman.
*ISBN 978-0-85905-834-6, (new, 2020), A4, 36 pages, 140 grams, $30.00
Les went North in 1960. Darwin, Carnarvon, Gascoyne Junction, Denham, Exmouth, Onslow, Kununurra, Wyndham, Karratha, with characters in between and around. The idiosyncrasies of the inhabitants of the outer lands are described in detail. One wonders just how the system survived.

Across the Great Thirst Land by R.T. Maurice
ISBN 978-0-85905-934-3, (R190, 2022), A4, 28 pages, illustrated, 105 grams, $22.00
Maurice's expedition from Fowlers Bay to Wyndham in 1902. A great story which is not well known.

Adventures of a Trepang Fisher by George H. Sunter
ISBN 0 85905 234 6, (1997 reprint of 1937 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 292pp, illustrated, 380grams, $30.00
A Northern Territory classic. Sunter's life and adventures fishing for trepang in Arnhem Land on the coast of northern Australia.

Adventures of Louis De Rougemont, The by himself
*ISBN 978-0-85905-648-9, (1898 R 2016), A4, heavily illustrated, Facsimile, 180 pages, 502 grams, $40.00
Unleashed onto the unsuspecting world in London, 1898, the tale is of an adventurer wrecked in the Australian north and surviving the wilds with its cannibals and creatures. It confused the establishment for many decades with its faction. For the last century those fortunate enough to have read the book have laughed at how the dons of science fought with the equally preposterous tales of cynical Australian bushmen. He removed Ananias from his position of leading liar forever. His stories however still live on among the knowing and continue to strike strange chords among those attuned to old ways.

'Afghan Problem' and their camels. 'The. by I Murray, P Bianchi, M. Bloomfield & P J Bridge.
*ISBN 978 0 85905 462 1, (2008), A4, 160 pp, illustrated, soft cover, 450 grams, $30.00
Afghans are now looked upon somewhat romantically but in the 1890s rush they were a constant problem for almost everyone. This collection of articles shows the antagonism of the bush against their dirty habits and truculent demeanor. Their camels were little different.

After Uneasy Atoms – Uranium camps on the Northern Australian Rivers, 1950-1960 by Hervey J. Newton
*ISBN 978-0-85905-571-0, (2014, new), A4, 86 pp, illustrated, 250 g, $22.00

Rum Jungle, El Sherana, Ranger, Nabarlek and Sleisbeck were names that resounded in the mining world when atomic power was viewed as the future. This book is the story of NAUC's Sleisbeck deposit and the men who developed it in the then wild tropics.

Agnew by Alex Palmer

ISBN 0 85905 267 2, (2000 New), Soft Cover, 142pp, illustrated, 190grams, $22.00

The history of the goldfield's town, its rise and fall and the life of its people.

AIRFLASH by Bob Sheppard

ISBN 978-0-85905-890-2, (2021, New) A5, illustrated and including maps, 47 pages, $15.00 + $3.00 Postage Australia wide.

In early 1942 Japanese forces were advancing through Southeast Asia and there was a real concern Australia would be invaded. In a small tin shed at Island Point on the southern end of Jurien Bay in Australia's remote Mid-West, a guard and two Royal Australian Air Force wireless operators watched for enemy activity and monitored their radio. Through the static they heard a call. The three men were terrified by the radio conversation that resulted. An English speaking Japanese wireless operator aboard a submarine somewhere near Jurien Bay spoke directly to the men telling them he knew who they were, how many were at the camp and their location.

This is one of the stories collected by Bob Sheppard and is included in AIRFLASH: A Guide to Coast Watch Posts in the Mid-West of Western Australia 1942-1944, Royal Australian Air Force. Bob provides details, including the locations, of the RAAF Coast Watch Posts established between Port Gregory and Burns Beach in No. 3 of his MID-WEST AT WAR series of publications. The book is available from the author. 44 pages, colour cover, illustrated and including maps. $15 plus $3 postage anywhere in Australia.

Email bob@heritagedetection.com.au or call or SMS 0407770139.

Albany Resident Magistrates. 1850-1855 by Dianne and Ashton Cavanagh.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-892-6. (New, 2021), A4, 71 pages, indexed, 270 grams, $45.00

The letterbook of John Randall Phillips and associates was lost to WA when taken back to Ireland. Now the full text is transcribed, edited, and indexed.

This is a valuable source of information on the early colonists and the local aborigines.

Aliens, The by Dryblower E.G. Murphy

*ISBN 978-0-85905-876-6, (1904 R 2021) $10.00

A famous warning poem by the great Dryblower.

All Australians Now by Willem van Ravenstein

ISBN 978-0-85905-295-5, (New 2010), illust., 221pp, 510grams, $35.00

A clear-eyed observer with an outsider's perspective, the child grew up and was educated in postwar Perth, where he was gradually transformed into an Australian. The experience was a complex, testing and sometimes confusing process.

All Gold. The Death of Stephen Grace by Peter J Bridge with Ian Murray, Gail Dreezens and Moya Sharp

*ISBN 0 85905 398 9, (2007 New), Soft Cover, A4, 30pp, saddle, illust, 135 grams, $16

Grace was the head of APLA, the prospectors association, and was murdered by blacks in 1907, while on a prospecting expedition along the RPF.

All in My Stride by Richard Harris

ISBN 0 85905 260 5, (1999 New), Soft Cover, 216pp, illustrated, 230grams, $22.00

The biography of John Gilmour, 2/4th Machine Gunner, P.O.W. and champion athlete.

All Men Back by Bill Bee

ISBN 0 85905 254 0, (1998 New), Soft Cover, 156pp, illustrated, 230grams, $22.00

The experiences of Bill Bee, as a sailor on HMAS Perth, sunk by the Japanese, and then as a POW on the Burma Railway and in Japanese coal mines. The appendix lists the crew of the HMAS Perth and their fate. An insert map shows all Japanese POW campsites.

Along the Ashburton by Rhonda McDonald

ISBN 0 85905 288 5, (2001 New), Soft Cover, illustrated, 385grams, $35.00

The history of the people and stations of the Onslow and the Ashburton River districts.

Along the Coast – By ship Northwards edited by Peter J Bridge, with a foreword by maritime historian and artist Ross Shardlow

*ISBN 978-0-85905-604-5, (R, N2015), A4, illustrated, 212 pages, 580 grams, $50.00

The forgotten role of coastal shipping in both supplying the North and keeping Westralia in contact with the outside world. A collection of 25 descriptions of voyages along the coast from Eucla to Wyndham, interstate and to south and east Asia, in the period 18 80s to the 1960s.

Along the Road to Cue and Other Verses by Andree Hayward

ISBN 978-0-85905-136-1, (2010), illust., 106pp, 156g, $22.00

Andree Hayward was a lawyer, poet and newspaper editor and one of the greatest influences on the developing high culture of the Western Australian Goldfields.

Alphabetical Index to the 1954 "List of Cancelled Gold Mining Leases Which Have Produced Gold" by P. J. Bridge

*ISBN 0 85905 005 X, (1972 New), Soft Cover, 68pp, A3, 400grams, $50.00

This is an essential companion to the List of Cancelled GMLs produced by the Mines Dept which is in district order. With the alpha index and the name of a GML its locality can be found.

Always Your Own, Allan edited and written by Julie Easton

*ISBN 978-0-85905-559-8, (2013, New), A4, 60pp, illustrated, 210 grams, $22.00

The letters of Allan Evans to his fiancé Joyce Bardi from 1938 to 1940.

From the farm to the forces, Allan's letters show a different country and evoke the sense of loss of innocence, even of those turbulent times, compared to our knowing, and unfortunate age.

For those whose roots are in the farmlands and country towns of that time, these letters will bring in a rush of memories of what once was.

Among the Mangrove Swamps. Broome, Derby and elsewhere, beyond the Pale by Thomas Henry "Crosscut" Wilson. Collated and edited by Peter J. Bridge and Chris Holyday.

ISBN 978-0-85905-953-4, (New, 2022), A4, 48 pages, 170 grams, $30.00*

Crosscut's description of the Deep North, its customs, and the plight of the discarded White worker in the face of cheap imported labour.

Amongst Stone Age People in the Queensland Wilderness by Eric Mjoberg. Translated by FM Fryer, edited by Asa Ferrier and Rod Ritchie.

ISBN 978-0-85905-593-2, (New 2014), 421pp, 160 x 250, heavily 258 illustrated + 4 colour plates, casebound, dj, 1.3kg, $110.00*

Published in Swedish in 1915 and now available for the first time in English. A magnificent book on Mjoberg's North Queensland anthropological and natural history collecting expedition. Rarely seen photos of NQ Aboriginals, pygmies, cannibals, ethnographic items and animals. A small run with only a few casebound so bananabenders please do not delay.

Among Wild Animals and People in Australia by Eric Mjoberg, translated by Margareta Luotsinen and Kim Akerman.

ISBN 978-0-85905-507-9, (New 2012), Casebound, dj, illustrated, 362pp, 1.1 kg, $95.00*

From October 1910 to August 1911 biologist Erik Mjoberg and his seven man Swedish team travelled by bullock wagon through the West Kimberley collecting invertebrates, birds, mammals, and ethnographic research material.

Eric Mjoberg's idiosyncratic text remained in the Swedish language until this long-awaited English translation.

Now, for the first time, this unique perspective on biota and people is brought to a new generation of readers with an interest in Kimberley history and geography.

Amphibious Digger, Major George Mitchell, The by Anon

ISBN 978-0-86905-929-9, (1952 R 2022), A4, 15 pages, 80 grams, $22.00*

Biographical interview With Major Mitchell of the Kimberley Guerilla Warfare Group.

An Australian Centaur. Harry Farber, 1880-1959 Horseman by Edna Baulch

ISBN 978-0-85905-531-4, (2012), 32pp, A4, illustrated, 120 grams, $16.00*

The biography of one of Australia's greatest horsemen. Edna's biog plus other notes, verse, and many photos.

An Island Unto Itself by Professor L.R. Marchant

ISBN 0 85905 120 X, (1988 New), Soft Cover, 224pp, illustrated, 460grams, $30.00

The biography and history of William Dampier; his times and exploration in Western Australia— in 1688 and 1699. This book covers everything Dampier wrote of his Western Australia explorations.

And if her droughts are bitter by Gladys Linke

ISBN 0-85905-228-1, (1996 & 2003), illust, 133pp, 180grams, $22.00

The Linke family and their life on the far outback Prenti Downs and Carnegie Stations. The book also details aspects of the canning Stock Route. Tommy Injebong. Len Beadell.

An important book on the problems of bush station life.

Linke family direct sales: Northam 089 621 2555, Prenti Downs 089 981 2988, Paroo Station 089 981 2882.

And Some Found Graves by A.J. Thompson

ISBN 0 85905 186 2, (2002 Reprint of 1993Edition), Soft Cover, 95pp, illustrated, 150grams, $16.50

The 1895-96 goldfields' diary of New Zealand prospector John Aspinall who was tragically killed by lightning. His lonely grave is at Hawks Nest, near Laverton, Western Australia.

Anzac Squadron, The by Norman Ashworth

ISBN 0 85905 198 6, (1994 New), Soft Cover, 285pp, illustrated, 350grams, $33.00

The history of the RAAF 461 Squadron - Sunderland Flying Boats formed in 1942 to attack U-Boats. Details of the planes and men.

Apotheosis of the Kero Tin, The

ISBN 978-0-85905-140-8, (2011), 16pp, illust., 40g, $10.00*

An essay on the role of the old kero tin.

Archimedean Lever – Alexander Livingstone, a freewheeling journalist on the Westralian Goldfields, The Collated and edited by Peter J Bridge with Angela Teague.

ISBN 978-0-85905-485-0, (2010 New), A4, 44pp, 150g, $22.00*

Alexander Livingstone was one of those characters thrown up in the convulsions of the Australian gold rushes. They burned brightly and quickly, like the volcano that suddenly erupts and then returns to dormancy.

Archipelago of the Recherche Expedition, The. The history, geography, biology, and botany of the islands by

John Bechervaise, Vincent Serventy, James H. Willis

ISBN 978-0-85905-946-6, (1951 R 2022), A4, 49 pages, illustrated, 180 grams, $30.00*

Around the Goldfields - A study of possibilities and dreams. An overview of the goldfields during the great depression. by Anon.

ISBN 978-0-85905-450-8, (2019, new), A4, indexed, 48 pages, 150 grams, $22.00*

Australia Betrayed. Graeme Campbell & Mark Uhlmann.

This new edition is unchanged but has a new Foreword and Index by Dr Marion Hercocok.

ISBN 978-0-85905-913-8, 145 x 215, 220 pages, indexed, 300+ grams, $36.00*

Postage Australia wide is $9.70. Trade details on application.

When first published in 1995 the message cut a swathe through Canberra and other centres of degeneracy. It was a call to arms for real Australians.

Now a generation or so has passed and the situation for Australians has become dire. The media, industry, and politicians; the antipodean witches, have toiled and troubled and the old frogs have become cooked slowly in their own juices.

The political and economic situation is such that Australia as we knew it cannot survive, the limbs are already mortified, and the brain has dementia. And the worst is yet to come.

This small edition is essential reading for those who have forgotten and those who know no better.

Australia in the 1940s - Life on the Home Front by Gary Mentiplay

ISBN 978-0-85905-818-6, (2020 New), Soft Cover, French flaps, 248pp, illustrated, 1kg, $45.00

This book is not a military history of Australia's involvement in World War II. The focus of this work is on the "Home-front" with people living day to day with shortages and rationing.

As the war ebbed and flowed, life went on for most people. The joys and hazards of life did not stop, of course, and there were births and weddings, bushfire disasters, floods, droughts, road deaths and injuries, hot summers and cold winters, and for many families, bad news on the fate of loved ones serving in the theatres of war.

Australia Twice Traversed by Ernest. Giles

ISBN 0 85905 206 0, (1995 reprint of 1889 edition), 382pp, illustrated, 670grams, $50.00

A classic of Australian exploration in one volume, including maps.

Australia's Fighting Sons of the Empire – portraits and biographies of Australians in the Great War.

ISBN 978-0-85905-568-0, (1922, 2014), illustrated, indexed, 240 x 300, (A4 plus) Section sewn with stiffened soft cover and French flaps, glossed paper, 298pp, 1.4 kg, $95.00*

This difficult to obtain book was first published in 1922 after a troubled gestation. Many of the original copies have disintegrated due to binding problems. It is now available again in an attractive facsimile edition. Contains over 1450 biographies and illustrations of the soldiers. This is a book that will become a family heirloom.

Australian Aboriginal Tracking, Water Finding and Smoke Signaling by Alexander Thomas Magarey

ISBN 978-0-85905-616-8, (R 1890s, 2015), A4, 34pp, Illustrated, 130 grams, $22.00*

Magarey was a South Australian explorer with a keen interest in Aboriginal customs. These papers are the result of his investigations among South Australian Aboriginals and are some of the best on the subjects covered, and in the case of smoke signalling, the only detailed description available.

Australind Letters of Marshall Waller Clifton, The. edited by JMR Cameron and PA Barnes.

ISBN 978-0-85905-675-5, (New, 2017), casebound, dj, illustrated, 828 pages, 2.1kg, $95.00*

This is a companion volume to the Clifton Journals published in 2010. It contains the correspondence from 1840 to 1847. With a biography of Clifton by Phyllis Barnes and an essay on 'The Rise and Fall of the Western Australian Company' by JMR Cameron. Published 2 Oct 2017.

Australian Medicine Man, The (Der Australische Medizinmann) by Helmut Petri.

ISBN 978-0-85905-583-3, (2014, New), 206pp, SC – French flap, 160 x 250, 515g, $55.00*

Available for the first time in English, Petri's landmark 1952 book on Aboriginal medicine men, shamans, witchdoctors. With a Foreword by Susan Bradley and Introduction by Kim Akerman.

The second volume of a trilogy of translations of Petri's important work in a culture now destroyed.

Australian Mineralogist, The - Vol 1, Nos 1-51, 1975-1986

ISBN 978-0-85905-639-7, (R,2016), A4, sc, 320pp, illustrated, 780 grams, $65.00*

Facsimile of the rare journal for researchers and collectors.

Australia's Worst Mass Murder – The Wreck of the Emma by Kevin Moran.

ISBN 978-085905-557-4, (New, 2013), A4, 47pp, illustrated, 160grams, $22.00*

In 1867 the Emma carrying forty two passengers and crew was lost. Her fate was not known until ten years later when an Aboriginal crew member on the Jessie informed Captain W Tuckey the following, which was reported in The Inquirer newspaper on 19 January 1876 :-

"A Long time ago (about 10 years he described) a ship was wrecked near North West Cape; the passengers landed at night, in the boats and as they had no means of defending themselves, the natives had no difficulty in making them prisoners. There were a large number of persons, among them were some females. The natives were not 'sulky' with them, but nevertheless they killed and ate all of them, the narrator partaking of some of the flesh."

Australind Journals of Marshall Waller Clifton 1840-1861, The edited by Phyllis Barnes, JMR Cameron and HA Willis with Ian Berryman and Andrew Gill.

ISBN 978-0-85905-483-6, (2010), Casebound, 869pp, 2.2kg, $95.00*

Marshall Waller Clifton, Fellow of the Royal Society and Royal Geographical Society, and former Secretary of the Royal Navy's Victualling Board, was Chief Commissioner for the small agricultural colony of Australind.

B

Bang-em-all. Bush life, and death, on the Gascoyne - Bangemall and the Thomas River Police Station by Peter J Bridge, with Gail Dreezens

ISBN 978-0-85905-512-3, (2013, New), A4, Illustd., 260 pp, 710 grams, $50.00*

Bangemall, a Gascoyne mining village, 290 km ENE of Carnarvon, near Mt Augustus, cut a swathe through WA history in the 1890s.

Lonely graves, lost gold mines, death by thirst, suicide and native attack. Cattle and gold, natives, cops and crooks, prospectors and gold, in an eye opening collection of details of a forgotten mining town and region.

Bardie. The life and writings of E E Shillington by Peter J Bridge with Gail Dreezens

ISBN 0 85905 397 0, (2007 New), Soft Cover, A4, 52pp, saddle, 175 grams, $22*

Shillington and his mates discovered Sandstone. An interesting writer who could have become an antipodean Bret Harte, but instead had the trams running on time.

Barrowmen of the Westralian Goldfields. Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-730-1, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, 52pp, 160 grams, $25.00*

In the goldrushes from the 1880s to the 1930s prospectors travelled far and wide with bush made barrows. Their fortitude and fame are one of the finest examples of the tenacity of our pioneer prospectors.

Bat On! Chaps -The Bob Parker Story by Graham J. Brammer

ISBN 978-0-85905-617-5, (New, 2015), A4, 92 pages, illustrated, 270 grams, $30.00*

Bob Parker of Bundarra and Sydney, NSW, enlisted in the AIF in 1944 and served in BCOF, Japan. After discharge and the start of the Korean War he re-enlisted in the RAR. In the fortunes of war he became a Don-R rider.

Battler – John Crawford Morrison, The . edited by P J Bridge, C Holyday & A Teague.

ISBN 978-0-85905-456-0, (2008), A4, 49 pp, Soft Cover, 170 grams, $22.00*.

Morrison was one of the best goldfields short story writers. This is the collection of his verse and prose.

Battling for Gold by John Marshall

ISBN 978-0-85905-613-7, (1903,2015), A4, 67pp, 240 grams, $22.00*

John Marshall, adventurer, journalist, public figure and Digger's leader on the Coolgardie-Kalgoorlie goldfield wrote of early days on the fields in what is the best collection of goldfields' stories.

Beckoning West, The by Eleanor Smith

ISBN 0 85905 251 6, (1998 reprint of 1966 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 256pp, illustrated, 325grams, $30.00

The story of the Canning Stock Route's construction. This edition includes 23 pages of illustrations.

Before Coolgardie I. Colonial mineral discoveries and mining, a listing to 17 September 1892 by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-579-6, (2014, new), Softcover, A4, illustrated, 120pp, 350 g, $30.00*

A detailed listing and text of the discoveries from 1829 to Bayley and Ford. Essential reference for historians and prospectors. The culmination of decades of collecting data.

Before Coolgardie II. The Prospectors of the Yilgarn by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-580-2, (2014, new), softcover, A4, illustrated, 158pp, 450g, 40.00*

The definitive history of the rushes to Golden Valley and Southern Cross up to the discovery of Coolgardie.

Biographies and photos of the main prospectors involved. This book gives far more detail than any other on the subject, and uncovers much previously unknown material.

Before Gold by Jim Cameron

ISBN 978-0-85905-982-4, (New, 2023), well illustrated, indexed, French flap soft cover, 321 pages, with a 1908 colour map, $60.00

Before Gold is the mining history of Northampton. The first mining field in WA, it was a flourishing copper and lead producer. Changes in markets led to an erratic life but rich veins remain. Jim Cameron is a retired lecturer on WA economic history, and Northampton born.

Ben Bowyang by the Herald.

ISBN 0 85905 430 6, (2008 Reprint 1936, 1938), A4, Soft Cover, 53pp, illustrated, 175 grams, $22.00*

A reprint of the rare and classic comic of the bush character, Ben Bowyang and his mates, Kanga, Wilson, Hogan, Lil, and the Parson.

Ben O'Dowd - Hero of Kapyong by Rory Steele

ISBN 978-0-85905-752-3, [New, 2019], 160 x 240, French flaps, section sewn, illustrated, 197 pages, 500 grams, $50.00

In their most important engagement in the Korean War, Australian troops were cut off from other battalions and surrounded by units of China's People's Liberation Army. Earlier, as members of a United Nations force responding to the invasion of South Korea by the North, they had fought their way up the peninsula.

Best of times, The by Michael Gugerl

ISBN 978-0-85905-689-2, (New 2018), A4, 193 pages, illustrated, indexed, 750 grams, $50.00*

Michael's first book, God Before Gugerl, is popular among all who know the Derby family. This new book continues the stories of Kimberley life and people with an emphasis on his family. His unconventional tales are a favourite among all who have lived in the Kimberley.

Between Beach and Bush. Remember old North Beach, Trigg and Watermans Bay. by Chris Holyday

ISBN 978-0-85905-838-4, (New, 2020), A4, colour sections, well-illustrated, 142 pages, 620 grams, $40.00*

The book is a virtual trip back in time to the coastal suburbs of North Beach, Trigg and Watermans Bay of old, and is lavishly illustrated. It provides the first comprehensive history of these coastal suburbs. Attractively presented and including numerous photos, many never before published, this limited print book will undoubtedly become a sought-after collectors' item. It describes, in great detail, the first homes built by non-Aboriginal people in the coastal districts, the pioneering Hamersley empire along the coast, the first shops opened, an early shipwreck, convict visitors, early developments by the Perth Road Board (predecessor of the City of Stirling), building of the first jetty, the first land subdivisions, derivation of the street names of the district, early transport, the first surf lifesaving club, the story behind Mettam's Pool and many tragic drownings at Trigg Island, as well as many other interesting events and people that helped build these suburbs over 100 years from 1869.

Beyond Boundary Fences by G.J.C McDonald

ISBN 0 85905 207 9, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 264pp, illustrated, 340grams, $30.00

The early Murchison goldfield's characters, Aborigines, bushmen and outlaws.

Beyond the Stirling Tree by Harold T. Loton

ISBN 978-0-85905-545-1, (New 2012), A4, 97pp, illust., 340grams, $30.00*

New updated third edition. A brief history of the Australian Loton Families from the early 1800s to 2012 and some hidden history of the Swan River settlement.

Only available from Harold Loton, Unit 72, St Louis Estate, 14 Albeert Street. Claremont, 6010.

Email: hloton@bigpond.net.au

Bibliography of books, articles, and pamphlets dealing with Western Australia, issued since its discovery in 1616 by Francis G Steere

ISBN 978-0-85905-500-0, (1923, reprint 2011), 186pp, A4, 515 grams, $45.00*

This important and interesting bibliography, compiled by the then Parliamentary Librarian, contains many references no longer easily accessible through the library catalogues due to the iniquitous policy of not indexing journal articles. An essential reference for bibliophiles, librarians and historians. The original is exceptionally rare.

Bicycle and the Bush, The by J. Fitzpatrick

ISBN 0 85905 250 8, (Reprint of 1980 edition), Soft Cover, 256pp, illustrated, 530grams, $50.00*

The best book on bicycle history ever. The effect of the bicycle on the Australian outback. .

Bigajie by Katy Vickers and John McMicking

ISBN 978-0-85905-532-1, new 2012, A4, 196pp, illust col & b&w, 540grams, $40.00*

John and Torrance McMicking were well known east Kimberley stockmen. Torrence started El Questro. The story of early life on Cashmere Downs and life in the Kimberley with his partner, Katy Vickers. An end of an era.

Bill and Mary Mac - From the Kimberleys to Cocklebidy and places in between by Jill Campbell

ISBN 978-0-85905-535-2, (2014 New), A4, 119pp, well illustrated and indexed, 340g, $35.00*

Bill McDonald drove from Queensland through the Territory and settled in the Kimberley. Mary Darcy moved from Darwin to the Kimberley and grew up around Wyndham. They married in 1923. Later they shifted to the Nullarbor, starting the Cocklebidy roadhouse in 1957.

Bill writes of the characters of early Kimberley and incidents of life and death. Mary, of the people and their lives, in an endearing personal way.

Covered are the deaths of Condren & Sullivan, life on Ruby Plains Station with the Darcy family, the Hyland girls, and many other items of interest of the near forgotten years between the wars.

Bill Cooper's Oil Rig Shift Story. by Bill Cooper

ISBN 978-0-85905-801-8, (New, 2020), A4, 16 pages, illustrated, $15.00*

Old trucker, Bill Cooper's description of the 1939 transport of an oil rig and associated boilers from Derby to Nerrima. Well illustrated with the trucks, rig, and gear that is still there as a historic relic of early oil exploration.

Black and white and in between by Dr Peter Gifford

ISBN 0 85905 301 6, (2001 New), Soft Cover, illustrated, 330grams, $30.00

The life of Arthur Dimer and a history of the southern Nullarbor.

Black Swans Over Java by Ian Duggan

ISBN 978-0-85905-898-8, (New, 2021), A4, 139 pages, heavily illustrated, French flaps, 430grams, $40.00*

The story of the Corunna WWII secret air base south of Marble Bar Western Australia, the men that worked there under unbearable conditions to provide fuel, and armaments to American and Australian B.24 Liberator bombers, and the heroic flight crews that flew missions bombing Japanese bases in Java and Bali.

BMC Leyland in Western Australia Mk.II The People, the Cars, the Dealerships by Gary Mentiplay

ISBN 978-0-85905-880-3, (2021, New), A4, French flaps, heavily illustrated, 367 pages, 1.4kg, $60.00* Post / Pack (within Australia): $15.00 AUD extra.

This second edition is now available, featuring new material and extensive updating. It features the most complete coverage of the car companies that were a part of BMC and Leyland Australia (and their dealers and agents) in Western Australia, and is well illustrated with photos and period adverts.

Included are the stories of 45 people (from 20 dealerships) who owned, sold, and serviced BMC Leyland vehicles during the post war years.

New material includes more information on country agents; the longest-serving dealers in WA; the number of dealers and agents in WA (in five year periods); the national BMC dealer rationalization 1959 to 1963; and Appendix A now contains information on over 675 dealers from 1908 to 1978.

Contact: Gary Mentiplay 0420 448 036 email: garymentiplay@bigpond.com

Body and Soul - an Aboriginal View by A.R. Piele

ISBN 0 85905 233 8, (1997 New), Hard Cover, 334pp, 700grams, $65.00*

Aboriginal concepts of medicine. Piele spent many years at Balgo Community in the Great Sandy Desert and this is destined to become a classic work.

Born in the Desert by Marion Hercock with Georgina (Dadina) Brown

ISBN 978-0-85905-481-2, (2009 New), Soft Cover, 141 pp, illustrated inc 32pp colour, 350grams, $30.00.

Martu woman Dadina Brown was born and reared in WA's Little Sandy Desert during the 1970s. Like her famous kinsfolk, Warri and Yatunkga ('The Last of the Nomads'), her family met Stan Gratte's party of field historians, and came to live in Wiluna.

Born to Command – not to take orders – The Brooks Family of Balbinia station – Pioneers of Israelite Bay, Western Australia by John Simpson

ISBN 978-0-85905-647-2, (New, 2017), A4, illustrated, indexed, 146 pp, 420grams, $40.00*

The saga of the Brooks family on their isolated station on the edge of the Nullarbor shows the great spirit of settlers in opening hard new land. John Paul Brooks, his sister Sarah, and mother Emily, spent most of their life in physical isolation but kept up international correspondence and cooperation with botanists and geographers. This is an important biography of a family that shows success is not always the reward for hard work. Only a few of those who ventured created long lasting establishments. Not giving up in the face of great adversity is an achievement which must be honoured, recorded and disseminated as an example for others who may feel overwhelmed by their situations.

Born to be a Drover - the life story of Jim Freeth 1913-1990 by Jim Freeth

ISBN 0 85905 346 6, (2004 reprint from 1991), Soft Cover, 72pages, A4, illustrated, 210grams, $22.00*

This is probably the best documented biography of a W.A drover

Borneo Surgeon - A Reluctant Hero. The life of Dr James D. Taylor by Peter Firkins

ISBN 0 85905 211 7, (1995 New), 161pp, illustrated, SC 250grams, HC 300grams, SC $22.00, HC $28.00

Dr Taylor, a civilian tortured and imprisoned by the Japanese in Borneo, ran an underground organisation to help the POWs who later died in the Sandakan death march.

Boundary Rider's Daughter,The by Evalene Wallbank.

ISBN 978-0-85905-687-8, (New, 2017), A4, 100pp, illustrated, 290 grams, $30.00*

Beyondie Station at Kumarina, north of Meekatharra, was taken up in the 1920s by Bob George, a Rabbit Proof Fence boundary rider. He protected a young part-Aboriginal girl, later marrying her. Yibbie had ten children with Bob George and later attachments, and most were sent by Bob to Sister Kate's home in Perth for their education. Of the children today, two of the girls survive. One is a Perth lawyer, and the other, Evalene, was involved in a pastoral life. This is the interesting story of growing up in the wildest bush and in the equally feral children's home. The George family were well-known in the upper Murchison/Gascoyne region and this autobiography is an interesting and important reflection of life in that country. It was written by 2003 but ignored by publishers, perhaps because its content was not considered abrasive enough in the 'culture wars' of that time. Published 19 December 2017.

Bowyangs and Boomerangs by M.J. O'Reilly

ISBN 0 85905 063 7, (1984 reprint of 1944 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 167pp, 200grams, $22.00

Mulga Mick's account of life in Western Australia, Northern Territory, South Australia and Tasmania and his mining of gold, wolfram, opals and osmiridium. Swagging, Afghans, camels, mica mines and life from the 1890s in the Australian bush.

Brand on his Coat, The by Rica Erickson

ISBN 978-0-85905-249-8, (1983, 2009), Soft Cover, 367pp, illustrated, 460 grams $35.00

The Brand on his Coat relates the histories of a few of the nine and a half thousand convicts who were transported to Western Australia during 1850 to 1868.

Bride Ships, The by Rica Erickson

ISBN 0 85905 162 5, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 270pp, illustrated, 470grams, $40.00

United Kingdom immigrants in the 1800s who became settlers in Western Australia. An important social history and of great genealogical interest.

Brief chronicle of the principal events...Colony of WA ... 1826-1842. by George Fletcher Moore

ISBN 978-0-85905-831-5, (R2020), A4, 45 pages, 160 grams, $25.00*

A very useful record of events for historians of the early colony. This detail is rarely found in other texts.

Broome and its Tragic Yesterday by Henrietta Drake Brockman

ISBN 978-0-85905-800-1, (1946 R 2020), A4, 28 pages, illustrated, 110 grams, $22.00*

Broome just after the war and the new Kimberley with the Flying Doctor services. Also a biographical outline of the author.

Bruisers in the Bush ed by Peter Bridge, Moya Sharp, Susan Bennett.

ISBN 978-0-85905-029-6, (N, 2010), A4, 19pp, 110g, $12.00*

In 1894 at Coolgardie the interest in the rancour and fight between 'Bull' Bennit and Jimmy Reid was greater than that in prospecting. What was the cause of such bitterness? Bessie Stewart, the Belle of Coolgardie! What was the background to this grudge match that held the interest of spectators for decades and figures in so many goldfields reminiscences? The story has a surprising outcome.

'Brumby' Leake by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-591-8, (2015, New), A4, 86pp, illustrated, 255 g, $25.00*

Brumby Leake was one of the great characters of the early Murchison-Gascoyne. His dalliances with the spinifex fairies and concern for the orphaned calves of other people cattle, together with an appreciation of the qualities of a stray horse, led to a certain mystique. This was heightened by the power of his enemies who almost invariably lost in the court cases which followed some of his exploits. The dreaded A.O. Neville led a campaign to incarcerate him. But he was much loved by the aboriginals that worked for him. This biography is mainly from the DIA and police files that have survived against all odds, together with old newspaper accounts and reminiscences of old timers. Part of Brumby's reputation derives from the iniquitous K.S. Prichard who cast him as the lead character in Coonardoo and Brumby Innes. In both these agitprop outbursts attacking Brumby she carefully avoided her powerful family friends who were infamous for their predatory and abusive behaviour towards the local aboriginals. Guaranteed to raise a cackle and a gasp.

Building the Line. The construction of the Overland Telegraph Line by Andrew Crouch.

ISBN 978-0-85905-856-8, (New, 2020), A4, well illustrated, indexed, 48 pages, 180 grams, $26.00*

From the diaries of the men involved in the construction, this book gives a detailed look at the men and the line itself.

Bull Catchers & Wild Riding Ringers. Geoff Allen.

ISBN 978-0-85905-737-0, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, 147pp, 420grams, $40.00*

The last of the old time ringers of the Kimberley.

Bullfinch and the Yilgarn Goldfield by Gilbert Ralph

ISBN 0 85905 395 4, (2007 New), Soft cover, 288 pages, illustrated, under 500 gram packed, $35.00*

Bullfinch and the Yilgarn Goldfield had its beginnings with a suggestion from Sir Laurence Brodie-Hall that the unique nature of the community at Bullfinch during the Great Western Consolidated era from 1950 to 1963 deserved recording.

Bulloo Downs Drover by Peter Hall

ISBN 0 85905 293 1, (2001 New), Soft Cover, 82pp, 135grams, $22.00

Droving and station life on Ilgararie and Bulloo Downs Stations, north of Meekatharra.

Bullwinkel by Norm Manners

ISBN 0 85905 265 6, (2000 New), Soft Cover, 248pp, illustrated, 340grams, $35.00

The first full biography of Sister Bullwinkel, sole survivor of a group of Australian nurses murdered during World War II by the Japanese on Banka Island in 1941. Machine gunned and starved, she survived to return to high office in Australian nursing.

Bush Justice by Ron Brown & Pat Studdy-Clift

ISBN 0 85905 146 3, (1990 New), Soft Cover, 256pp, illustrated, 340grams, $30.00

The experiences of one of the last police officers in Central Australia to patrol by camel. 'Brownie' writes of life in the bush, its people and their foibles. One of the best books on Central Australia.

Bush Kids and Bartoo by Mildred Gordon

ISBN 0 85905 338 5, (2004 New), 54pp, A4, Soft Cover, 175grams $22.00*

Mildred Gordon describes life on a remote Centralian Station in the 1920s and 30s and includes her mother's writings of the local Aboriginal legends, published for the first time. No. 22 in the Aboriginal Series

Bushmans Directory, The by Mary Taylor

ISBN 0 85905 417 9, (2007 New), A4, Soft Cover, 136pp, 375 grams, $30.00*

A biographical index to WA drovers, stockmen, mailmen, doggers, teamsters, shepherds, boundary riders, fencers, etc, from the 1800s to the 1970s.

Butchery in the Bush: The savage murder of a settler's wife at Boyanup in June 1871 edited by Peter J. Bridge
ISBN 978-0-85905-842-1, (1871 R 2020), A4, 8 pages, 70 grams, $15.00*

An example of the tenuous relationships which existed between settlers and natives. The killer was hung in the old Perth Gaol. Margaret McGowan is buried at Picton. Includes a note on Corporal Edward Peirl.

C

Calvert's Golden West by Geoff Blackburn

ISBN 0 85905 241 9, (1997 New), Soft Cover, 88pp, illustrated, 130grams, $22.00

The story of the enigmatic Calverts and their role in Western Australian history. Includes a full bibliography.

Camels and the Outback by H.M. Barker

ISBN 0 85905 182 X, (1995 reprint of 1964 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 207pp, illustrated, 260grams, $30.00

The classic book on the camel in Australia.

Camels, Exploration and Development in the North by Herbert M. Barker

ISBN 978-0-85905-739-4, (New, 2019), A4, soft cover, illustrated, indexed, 24pp, 75g, $16.50*

A collection of reports, letters, etc. by Barker on the NW. Details of his exploration to the east of the Oakover River and proposals for development.

Camp Fire Sketches by A.G. Hales

ISBN 0 85905 339 3, (2004 reprint), Soft Cover, 108pp, 160grams, $22.00

As the wind gathers sparks from the camp-fire, so these stories have been collected, here, there and everywhere.

Cannibals, Constables, and Courts. Pilbara-Murchison 1887-1896. by Peter J. Bridge & Mark Chambers.

ISBN 978-0-85905-865-0, (New, 2021), A4, 70 pages, indexed, 220 grams, $30.00*

A chronological compilation of three very detailed cases, from the cannibal murders, the capture of those involved, to their trials. The 'whacked and woken' brigade continually manage to expose their ignorance ad infinitum to the practical world. That the aboriginal population was essentially cannibals is undeniable and the reactions to this fact must be taken into account in any discussions of black-white relations. No understanding is possible without the truth. Perhaps the destruction of the UniWA anthropology department is a considerable step towards creating a real Truth Commission now that the purveyors of sociological claptrap have been defunded. We look forward to the financial castration of similar sinecures elsewhere. NB. These comments are from the senior editor only, whose great aunt was a SW full blood.

Cannibals, Cooke and Customs by Peter Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-666-3, A4, 120 grams, $22.00*

An examination of some undigested customs of our indigines.

Canning Stock Route Royal Commission Royal Commission to inquire into the Treatment of Natives by the Canning Exploration Party - 15 January – 5 February 1908 edited by Phil Bianchi, Peter Bridge, Ethel Bianchi, Angela Teague, Maria Bloomfield.

ISBN 978-0-85905-059-3, (2010), A4, 374pp, illust., 1kg $55.00 *

Important desert and bush history. This was not published, except as reported in the newspapers of the day. Contains the opinions of many of the best bushmen of the day.

Captain Bully Hayes: Blackbirder and Bigamist by Frank Clune

ISBN 0 85905 239 7, (1997 reprint of 1970 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 190pp, illustrated, 260grams, $25.00

The buccaneer, blackbirder and rascal of the Pacific - one of the great "characters" of the age.

Captain John Thomas Esq. From Tragedy He Triumphed by Rod Dickson

ISBN 978-0-85905-509-3, (2013, New), A4, illustrated, 85pp, 270 grams, $30.00*

The colonial story of the Thomas family, from early disasters to great wealth and social prominence.

Thomas became a ship owner, with an importing business, owned a Fremantle hotel and the property at Pinjarra now known as Ravenswood.

Cardonia by B.W. Leake

ISBN 0 85905 329 6, (2004, reprint of 1960's books), 99pp, A4, illustrated, 280grams, $28.00*

This collection of the writings of the well known farmer, historian, naturalist, Bruce Leake on the Kellerberrin area

Carry On! edited by Captain C. Longmore

ISBN 978-0-85905-762-2, (1939, 2019), A4, 104 pages, illustrated, 300 grams, $30.00* Originally published by the RSL.

"This is the road the AIF trod from 1914 to 1918. It was a rough road, but the road along which the younger generation will tread from 1939 to ? may be even rougher. The Old Brigade are confident, however, that the traditions they established will be embraced by the Young Brigade by the time the query mark becomes a figure. Australians could always Carry On!"

Biographies, stories and photos illustrating the traditions of the AIF.

Castle Dangerous by Gil Hardwicke

ISBN 0 85905 322 9, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 100pp, illustrated, 150grams, $22.00

The settlement and pioneers of the Margaret River area and an examination of their origins and political and social backgrounds.

Catalpa Expedition, The by Z.W. Pease

ISBN 0 85905 308 3, (2002 reprint of 1897 edition), Soft Cover 140pp, illustrated, 200grams, $22.00

The escape of the Fenians from Western Australia in 1876 on the United States whaler Catalpa.

Caught off Guard, and Other Poems by Janet Wells

ISBN 0 85905 096 3, (1986 New), Soft Cover, 53pp, 90grams, $10.00

From the English countryside to a Kimberley cattle station, these poems evoke Janet's past and present life, and have won prizes in the North.

Caveman's Glory by Lex Bastian

ISBN 978-0-85905-814-8, (1958 R 2020), A4, 11 pages, illustrated, 70 grams, $15.00*

The discovery of the Augusta Jewel Cave and an outline of the author's life.

Challenge & the Chance, The by S.K. Forrest

ISBN 0 85905 217 6, (1996 New), Hard Cover, 364 largepp, illustrated, 780grams, $50.00

The colonisation and settlement of North West Australia 1861-1914. Forrest focuses on black-white relationships, and the changing attitudes and moralities of white Australians when they, too, became indigenous. Opens a new chapter of Australian history.

Chasing the Dragon's Tale - The Vergulde Draeck Story by Bob Sheppard

ISBN 978-0-85905-723-3, (New, 2019), 160 x 240, heavily illustrated, indexed, 730 grams, $50.00*

The most comprehensive book ever written on the heritage, history and archaeology of the Vergulde Draeck (1656). Illustrated (with some never seen before photos) and containing around 700 references. The book is in two parts. Part One, The Vergulde Draeck Story, is a formal history of the wreck and its discovery. Part Two, Chasing The Dragon's Tale, covers the author's experiences in his 10 year search to unravel one of Australia's greatest maritime mysteries.

Chasing the Weight, 1886-1912 by F.W.P. Cammilleri

ISBN 0 85905 085 8, (1986 New), Hard Cover, 84pp, illustrated, 220grams, $22.00

From the Kimberley in 1886 to the Pilbara, Ashburton, Murchison, Kalgoorlie, Greenbushes and Donnybrook. "FWP" was a pioneer prospector and the first man to dig and peg on the Golden Mile lodes.

Circled Continent, The by Randolph Bedford, edited by, and with a foreword by PJ Bridge, C. Holyday and Gail Dreezens.

ISBN 0 85905 410 1, (2007 Reprint 1905), A4, Soft Cover, 72pp, 230grams, $25.00*

Randolph the Reckless, one of Australia's greatest, but ignored writers, traveled along the Queensland coast to the Torres Strait and Papua in 1905. His brilliant descriptive writing of the places, people and their products is a joy to read and as fresh as it was a century ago. This 'lost' item does not appear in any bibliographies.

Claude Choules – The Last of the Last by Claude Choules

ISBN 978-0-85905-480-5, (2009, New), Soft Cover, 160 pp, 160 x 240, illustrated, 290 grams, $25.00

In July 2009 Claude became – as one of three surviving veterans – the only remaining combatant of WW I. He is also the last man in the world who saw active military service in both World Wars.

Climb When Ready edited by Dave James

ISBN 0 85905 221 4, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 188pp, illustrated, 240grams, $25.00

History and real life stories of rock climbing in Western Australia told by those involved.

Close Calls in the Kimberley by Mick Driscoll

ISBN 978-0-85905-614-4, (New, 2015), A4, 43 pages, illustrated, 145 grams, $22.00*

The Kimberley adventures of the bushman 'Mineral Mick' Driscoll and his long desert walks. Mick corresponded with HP and now, a decade after his passing the letters and stories are published.

Cobb & Co. in the Golden West edited by Gail Dreezens, P J Bridge, Phil Bianchi.

ISBN 0 85905 406 3, (2008 New), A4, Soft Cover, 166pp, 470grams, $45.00*.

The WA coaching companies covered immense distances in scarcely explored country. Among them was the WA Cobb and Co run by Nicholas and Kidman. This collection of reminiscences, reports, timetables, adverts, etc is heavily illustrated. An essential volume on bush history and transport.

Cobbers of Mine and the Mining Magnate by The Axeman, Alfred E. Wallace

ISBN 978-0-85905-735-6, (New, 2019), A4, 47 pages, 140 grams, $22.00*

Alfred Wallace died of silicosis in 1924. He was an axeman in the forests and an underground miner on the Murchison. His verse was in demand for local celebrations and the regional newspapers. Few modern poets have had the acclaim of the public that the Axeman had.

His collection was reprinted for many years by the Northam newspaper. Some of his satirical verse such as The Bush Geologist, and The Mining Magnate was still being circulated in mining circles in the 1980s.

Cocklebidy by Jill McDonald

ISBN 978-0-85905-904-6, (2021), A4, 32 pages, heavily illustrated, 130 grams, $22.00*

The story of the founding of Cocklebidy roadhouse on the Nullarbor Plain and the earlier Kimberley station and circus sideshow life

Cold-Footed Mob, The – A History of the 5th Australian Broad Gauge Railway Operating Company by Tom Goode.

ISBN 978-0-85905-653-3, (New, 2016), A4, 100 pages, illustrated, indexed, 280 grams, $30.00*

One hundred years ago over two hundred and fifty railwaymen from across the state left Australia for the Western Front. Many were over age and some of doubtful fitness but they went because they felt they were needed. For more than eighteen months sometimes under German artillery fire they operated railways carrying vital men and supplies for the British army. Largely ignored by the Australian Official Histories of World War One, this is their story.

The history traces the events and decisions that led to the raising of Australian Railway Units for service with the AIF and follows the path of this particular unit from its formation in Western Australia through its service on the Western Front to its eventual return home. While recounting the unit activities in the context of World War One events, equal emphasis has been placed on the stories of many of the individuals who comprised the unit.

Cologne to the Kimberley - Studies of Aboriginal Life in Northwest Australia by Five German Scholars in the First Half of the 20th Century - Translated by Margaret Pawsey, edited by Kim Akerman
*ISBN 978-0-85905-594-9, (2015, New), 384pp, SC, A4, illustrated, 1.1kg, $70.00
Eighteen translated papers by Bischofs, Worms, Petri, Schulz, & Odermann that are essential for an understanding of Kimberley Aboriginal culture. Contains brief biographies of the authors.

Combined Index to the Publications of the Geological Survey of W.A. 1910-1970 by P. J. Bridge
ISBN 0 85905 000 9, (1972 New), Soft Cover, 350pp, A3, $170.00 (Direct sale only)*
This is the Combined indices of the Geological Survey of WA Annual Reports and Bulletins from the end of previous index (Bulletin 60) to 1970 and an essential reference volume for geologists, prospectors and historians.

Commandant of Solitude. The Journals of Captain Collet Barker 1828-1831. Edited by John Mulvaney & Neville Green.
*ISBN 978-0-85905-893-3, (1992, R 2021), 240 x 170, illustrated- colour plates, Section sewn, French flap soft cover, 466 pages, 1.2kg, $80.00

After seeing service in the Peninsular War, Canada and Ireland, Captain Collet Barker (1784-1831) was posted to New South Wales, but he spent less than a month in the relative comfort of Sydney Town. He was sent to command the isolated settlement at Raffles Bay (near modern Darwin) for just over a year and was then transferred to King George Sound (Albany), both tiny military detachments on the furthest frontiers of empire.

Common Thread – Arnold Weinholt, The Aussies in the thick of it. Stories from East Africa WWI, WWII. Ada Woodhill, Australian First Lady of German East Africa. And SOE's Ethiopian Mission 101. Geoff Blackburn.
ISBN 978-0-85905-710-3, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, 40 pp, 185 grams, $25.00.

The first, and hopefully not the last, Australian politician shot for spying. Unreported byways and fascinating African adventures in the Great Game.

Connelly Story, The ed PJ Bridge, I Murray, V Connelly
*ISBN 978-0-85905-460-7, A4, 60 pp, illus, (200g) $22.00
Connelly snr found the Fifield Platinum in NSW. His son discovered the Murchison GF in WA in 1890

Contraband by WC Charnley
*[ISBN 978-0-85905-887-2], (1935, 2021), A4, 18 pages, illustrated, 105 grams. $22.00
Opium and Chinese were the two great problems for the Customs a century ago. Little has changed and complicit functionaries and politicians have compounded the problem a thousand fold. This report details some incidents in the earlier battles before we lost the war.

Conquest and Settlement by Geoff Blackburn
*ISBN 0 85905 242 7, (wrongly published 254 0), (1999 New), Hard Cover, 342pp, illustrated, 730grams, $70.00
The history of the 21st Regiment of Foot and its role in Western Australian history. Contains accounts of the suppression of the native uprisings of the 1830s and appendices on the men as soldiers and settlers, extensive biographical details and genealogical charts.

Convict Assignment in Western Australia 1842-1851 by Andrew Gill
*ISBN 978-0-85905-619-9, (2016, with a new introduction and corrections to the edition of 2004), A4, 246pp, 700 grams, $50.00
An essential reference for the study of early convictism in WA, the employment and distribution of the Parkhurst boys and their employers.

Coolgardie Gold by Albert Gaston
ISBN 0 85905 400 4, 2007 reprint of 1937 edition with new material, Soft Cover, 141pp, illustrated, 200grams, $22.00
The discovery of gold at Coolgardie filled thousands of young men with eagerness to try their luck on the new field. Gaston recalls the dust that was ever present, willy-willies, flies and ants in myriads, water bags, camel teams, summer heat, winter cold, typhoid, crowded hotel and bars.

Coolgardie Goldfields, The by William Nicholas
*ISBN 0 85905 402 0, (2007 Reprint 1895), A4, Soft Cover, 28pp, illustrated, 125 gram, $.22.00
Prof W Nicholas was manager of the Burbanks goldmine. Originally published in 1895, this idiosyncratic pamphlet was written to advise prospectors as to the geology and conditions of the new fields.

Coolgardie in 1892 by William Ford
*ISBN 0 85905 401 2, (1932 reprint 2007), Soft Cover, A5, 10pp, saddle stitched, 35 grams, $10.00
A rare pamphlet published by Ford in 1932 to record the discovery of Coolgardie.

Cossack Gold by W. Lambden Owen
ISBN 978-0-85905-440-9, 2008 new format of 1933 edition with new material, soft cover, 140mm x 215mm, 130pp, illustrated, 190grams, $22.00
Vivid reminiscences of the life in the North West of Australia from the 1880s to the 1930s. Gold, pearling, aboriginals, diamonds, murder and madness in the great but empty North.

Count, Giovanni Francisco De Bonanate, a Perth Character, The, edited by Peter J. Bridge
*ISBN 978-0-85905-743-1, (New, 2018), A4, 24pp, illustrated, 80 grams, $22.00
The jury is still out as to whether the Count was merely a demented Diego, a con artist, or a lost relic of Buonaparte's empire.
Bonanate was a travelling journalist who sold cheap cigars, played the ponies, and was a fixture in the Magistrate's courts for his love affairs with booze.
His line was, he claimed, that of Napoleon's retinue and his son's destiny to be King of France.
He left Australia in 1930 to 'help' Mussolini. He certainly helped us by leaving.
Two of his many children returned to Australia much later to live and die. They would have had a story.

Crawford Legacy, The by John Crawford

ISBN 978-0-85905-757-8, (New, 2019), A4, 101 pages, illustrated, 530 grams, $30.00*

The discovery of gold at Crawford's Patch, Laverton, in the 1890s was another expansion of the fortunes of the Crawford farming family in South and Western Australia. Their success and social commitment resulted in the foundation of the Crawford Lodge facilities for those suffering from cancer.

Creating Australia's Electronic Gold Rush by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-833-9, (198*, 2020), A4, heavily illustrated in colour, 32 pages, 150 grams, $30.00*

The author created the metal detector gold rush in the mid-1970s. It has changed the lives of hundreds of thousands of people in Australia and elsewhere. Details the story of some of the first prospectors and their finds, with photos.

Crocodiles and Cocktails by Simon King

ISBN 978-0-85905-660-1, (2017, New), A4, 157 pages, illustrated, 450 grams, $40.00*

Simon King is a geosciences career professional who was raised in the 1950s and 1960s in the semi-rural community of Langwarrin almost 45 kilometres south-east of Melbourne, Australia, where his family was one of the first to settle in the district. He subsequently undertook his tertiary education at the Ballarat School of Mines and Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology in Victoria to pursue a career in exploration and mining, perhaps to follow in his father's footsteps who was once a mineral prospector in the early 20th century.

Crooks, con men and spieles, magsmen, and other dysfunctionals from the bottom of the duck pond by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 415 2, (1930s, reprint 2007, e-published 2006, in the Dollypot, Greenhide and Spindrift column Vol. 2 No.1.), 16 pp, saddle, Soft Cover, A4, 90 grams, $11*

The police published the methods of con men and swindlers in their efforts to educate the public. However the old tricks still reel them in and new applications catch a sucker every minute.

Crosscut's War – The life and times of a Gallipoli soldier. Thomas Henry "Crosscut" Wilson by Chris Holyday

ISBN 978-0-85905-652-6, (New, 2016), A4, 79 pages, illustrated, indexed, 240 grams, $30.00*

Thomas Henry (Crosscut) Wilson was a mate of Henry Lawson. He came West in the 1890s in quest of gold but instead struck a very rich vein of literary success along the inky way. This book brings together some of the most lively and vivid word pictures that Wilson wrote over a very prolific period that ultimately shaped the very character of our whole nation, including his participation in the Gallipoli campaign with the 16th Battalion. And it tells the back-story of Crosscut, the man, mainly gleaned from his own writing. The reader should beware, however, for Wilson was a larrikin at heart, could mix fact with fiction and had a definite weakness for beer combined with a wanderlust that would see him drift all over Western Australia. He was also a very fine writer, amongst the top shelf of those colourful characters that had drifted West chasing the weight, and stayed to help build the State we know today.

This book includes some of his finest freelance reporting during the Gallipoli campaign.

Cue to the Klondyke. Herbert Annesley Ainsworth.

ISBN 978-0-85905-724-0, (New, 2018), A4, 28pp, 100 grams, $15.00*

A great story of adventure and perseverance in two great gold rushes.

Customs and Traditions of the Aboriginal Natives of North Western Australia, The by John G Withnell

ISBN 0 85905 423 3, (2007 Reprint 1901), Soft Cover, 35pp, 50 grams, $12.00*

Pastoral pioneer John Withnell studied the natives of the NW for many years. His booklet was first published in 1901 at Roebourne.

Cyclopedia of Western Australia by J. S. Battye

ISBN 0 85905 072 6, (1985 reprint of 1912-13 edition), Two Volumes, Hard Cover, 1824pp, quarto, 5.2kg, $250.00*

The classic reference on the history of early Western Australia. Concise descriptions on many facets of the State with biographical data on over 950 pioneers and their families.

D

Darkest Western Australia by H.G.B. Mason

ISBN 0 85905 014 9, (1980 reprint of 1909 edition), Soft Cover, 74pp, illustrated, 130grams, $22.00

The best bushman's advice book written, with his solution to the "native question"!

Darwin Dilemmas by Ron Brown & Pat Clift

ISBN 0 85905 164 1, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 188pp, illustrated, 260grams, $22.00

Darwin life just before and during World War II. An important eye witness account.

Daughters of Midas, The by Norma King

ISBN 0 85905 124 2, (1988 New), Soft Cover, 188pp, illustrated, 400grams, $22.00

The author combines her own rich personal knowledge and insight of goldfields' life with her thorough research to make an important contribution to the history of the goldfields.

Dawning among the Aborigines of Central Australia, The by W.H. Willshire

ISBN 978-0-85905-620-5, (R 1880s90s, 2015), A4, 261pp, illustrated, 690 grams, $45.00*

Police Constable Willshire published four books in the 1880s-1890s on Aboriginal customs and his experiences among them in South Australia and the Northern Territory. These represent much first contact descriptions in areas where no anthropologist ventured. They are a valuable record. Willshire was defamed and marginalised due to the inevitable clashes with wild natives in which the latter came off second best, and a century long vendetta has been carried out by those looking for a windmill to attack. Publication of these very rare volumes will enable all to examine his writings in conjunction with his biography, Willshire of the Alice, published by Hesperian Press in 1992.

Daybooks and Journals of Eric Mjoberg & Cyrus Viddell of the Swedish Scientific Expedition to Australia 1910-1911, The Translated & edited by Margarita Luotsinen, Gunnar Syren and Kim Akerman.

ISBN 978-0-85905-905-3, (New, 2022), A4, 290 pages, illustrated, 1.1 kg, $65.00*

This is a companion to our previously published Among Wild Animals and People in Australia by Eric Mjoberg. Hesperian Press, 2012.

An exceptionally informative volume covering aspects of the expedition not mentioned in the 2012 book. Finer details of the personalities, the specimens, and the localities visited as well as an important collection of previously unpublished aboriginal photographs. A unique record of the Frontier Kimberley through the eyes of non-Anglo European scientists. An important Kimberley reference.

Deaths in Western Australia A Genealogy Guide compiled by Swan Genealogy
*ISBN 978-0-85905-835-3, (New 2020) A4, 423pp, 1.2kg, $45.00

This publication contains deaths and burial resources and records within towns and regions of Western Australia, held within archives, libraries, genealogical societies and on the internet.

Desert, Drought, and Death. The Border Exploration Syndicate Expedition to the Rawlinson Ranges 1899-1900 by H. W. Hill. edited by Mark Chambers and Peter J Bridge.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-383-9, Hard Cover, 155pp, 470grams, $70.00

Charles Norton claimed he had found gold in the Rawlinson Range. An expedition was led by Henry Hill, accompanied by Hilton Verney Smith, Frank Merton, Joe Gillio, the ill fated prospector Norton and Shah nawas the Afghan. The expedition was trapped in the wilderness for nine months by a savage drought, the led to the loss of half their camels, and the brutal death of two of their number.

This is one of the most fascinating and troubled expeditions recorded from the Westralian desert. The full diaries of Hill which have remained unread for over a century and later reports on their travails are produced.

Desert Droving, Saddling and Shooting - The outback lives of Marie and Snowy Brosnan, as told to Marion Hercock

*ISBN 978-0-85905-542-0, (2012), A4, illustrated, 79pp, 240 grams, $30.00

At the age of twelve Warner 'Snowy' Brosnan had a longing to ride horses, and when he saw Chips Rafferty in The Overlanders he vowed that one day he would be a drover. Snowy's dream came true, with all the thrills and falls, the blood and boredom, and rough and tumble of droving cattle.

Desert of Tragedy, The by WC Charnley

*[ISBN 978-0-85905-882-7], (1935, 2021), A4, 21 pages, illustrated, 120 grams. $22.00

The NT desert claimed the lives of many travellers. With the introduction of aeroplanes the disasters continued. This is the story of a series of air crashes and lost life in the 1930s.

Digging, Squatting and Pioneering Life in the Northern Territory of South Australia by Mrs Dominic D. Daly

ISBN 0 85905 068 8, (1984 reprint of 1887edition), Hard Cover, 368pp plus map, 690grams, $40.00

A pioneering classic from first settlement to 1887. Vivid description of life and events that shaped the destiny of the Northern Territory.

Dingbat Flat. The Kalgoorlie-Boulder Riots of 1934 by Rod Moncrieff.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-711-9, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, 178pp, 500grams, $35.00

The race based riots and their causes have echoed over the past century. The first dispassionate study of a usually highly politicised incident. Essential reading for the multiculters.

Diogenes by George Pavlu

ISBN 0 85905 325 3, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 108pp, illustrated, 185grams, $22.00

The cynic wit of Diogenes bought together for the first time in 2500 years.

Disorderly Proceedings in the Park, Western Australian Football in Colonial Times by Steve Errington

*ISBN 978-0-85905-637-3, (2016, New), A4, illustrated, 194 pages, 535 grams, $40.00

In the early 1880s in the sleepy towns of Perth and Fremantle young men played loosely organised rugby matches. But in 1885 some keen young players of Victorian Rules imposed their will on this tired scene and formed what is now the West Australian Football League, starting a competition which continues 131 years later.

Do Not Yield to Despair edited by Mike Donaldson and Ian Elliot

*ISBN 0 85905 226 5, (1998 New), Hard Cover, A4, 440pp, illustrated, 1.4kg, $95.00

The bush diaries of Frank Hann 1895-1908. Details his journeys from Townsville, Queensland to Kimberley, in the eastern Pilbara, Parkers Range south and Laverton-Wiluna area to Oodnadatta.

Dobson of Australia by Peter J. Bridge

*ISBN 978-0-85905-952-7, (New, 2022), A4, 27 pages, 105 grams $30.00

Dobson, a lucky Irish prospector at Kanowna headed North. He became a fixture of bush life for several decades and is one of the great characters of the old North.

Dog Registration Discs in Western Australia by Walter R. Bloom & Alf Campbell

ISBN 978-0-85905-845-2, (New 2020), A4, heavily illustrated in colour, 168 pages, french flaps, 530 grams, $60.00 A small run of what will become a real collector's item. Postage is $12.45 for 1 to 3 copies.*

The first and only catalogue of these very collectable relics, which is an outcome of the metal detector gold and relic hunting hobby. Judging by the value of some items the finding these could be like finding gold.

This is a thoroughly researched and outstanding colour publication with many fine examples illustrated of a substantial collector base. It is a snapshot of 20th Century WA local history, where there are more dogs than people.

Dollypot edited by P. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 100 5, (1987 New), 168pp, illustrated, 350grams, Soft Cover $22.00, Hard Cover $30.00

A magnificent collection of prospectors' and miners' stories. Humour, sadness, thirst, booze, hard luck, life, people and poetry of the goldfields - from the Kimberley in the North to Ravensthorpe in the south east of Western Australia.

Don's Adventure. Invasion of Balikpapan. 'F' Day - Sunday 1 July 1945. - The diaries of Corporal Donald Briggs (WX 16865) of 1 Australian Armoured Regiment, 'A' Squadron and Japanese Sailor Katsuichi Kitao. Compiled by Donald (Don) Charles Briggs.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-923-7, (New 2022), A4, 56 pages, illustrated, 180 grams, $22.00

Contains the Japanese diary as well as Briggs' war diary.

Down the Dimbole by Bonnie Milne

ISBN 0 85905 348 2, (2004 New), 124 pages, illustrated, 165grams, $22.00

Bonnie Milne grew up on an isolated sheep station in the Upper Gascoyne district. This is a light hearted look at family life on Coor de Wandie station

Drover's Cook and other verses, The by Tom Quilty

ISBN 978-0-85905-640-3, (1958 R 2016), 124 pages, soft cover, 140 grams, $25.00*

Tom Quilty was a well-known Kimberley cattleman who became famous for his verse and especially for his descriptive poem, "The Drover's Cook – weighed fifteen stone, He had one bloodshot eye, He had no laces on his boots, No buttons on his fly."

The royalties for this book go to the Kimberley RFDS. This small reprint of a now rare book is done to satisfy the curious readers of the new Red Dog: True Blue by Louis de Bernieres in which the author quotes verse from The Drover's Cook.

Drover's Scrapbook, The edited by P J Bridge & Gail Dreezens

ISBN 978-0-85905-428-7, (2008), A4, 127pp, illustrated, Soft Cover, 370 grams, $30.00*.

A collection of reports and reminiscences of WA droving from the 1880s to the 1950s, giving many names and records of trips with sheep and cattle from the north to the southern markets.

Droving Days by H.M. Barker

ISBN 0 85905 197 8, (1994 reprint of 1966 edition), Soft Cover, 124pp, illustrated, 175grams, $22.00

A history of droving, and stories of famous drovers.

Droving with Ben Taylor - Up and down the Canning Stock Route in 1946 by Len Hill

ISBN 978-0-85905-472-0, (New 2009), 236pp, Soft Cover, 310 grams, $33.00.

Droving with Ben Taylor is based on the diary of a Canning Stock Route drover. It is the only droving diary known from the 50 years of operation of the CSR, the longest and most remote stock route in the world. Here, detailed, the old hand, Ben Taylor, teaches the youthful Len Hill the art of droving in the desert lands. With horses and camels from Wiluna to Billiluna, and return with cattle, this unique account describes the pleasures and duties of a drovers life, the cattle, the land, and its inhabitants. Len Hill is a retired Kimberley pastoralist.

Dry River by Rachel Percy As told by Dave Mills

ISBN 978-0-85905-505-5, (2012R), illust., 212 pp, 400g, $30.00.

Humorous, gritty, real... David Mills' biography, Dry River, is a richly detailed account of working life in the Australian Outback in the last days of the old stockroutes and packsaddle cattle camps. An extraordinary story of an ordinary bloke.

Dryblowers and Gold. ed by Peter J Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-677-9, (2017, new), A4, 190pp, heavily illustrated, 510 grams, $50.00*

A history of dryblowers. This revolutionary device was developed on the WA goldfields and spread in various forms to other dry auriferous states and nations. A collection of historical and technical reports that are scarcely known, together with an exceptional collection of photographs. Published 27 Oct 2017.

Due North. The exploration of the North West of WA. by Peter J. Bridge and the Explorers' Diaries Project

ISBN 978-0-85905-837-7, (New, 2020), 160 x 250, section sewn, case bound, dust jacketed, illustrated, 893 pages, 2.3kg, $160.00*

Now available. Probably the most important book to be published on the NW. Full details of all the exploration diaries from 1861 to circa 1900 with maps and bios of the explorers.

Dying World in Northwest Australia, The by Helmut Petri (With a Foreword by Susan Bradley and Introduction by Kim Akerman)

ISBN 978-0-85905-091-3, (New, 2011), 286pp, 160 x 240, illust., 660g, $45.00

Prior to leading the Twenty-second Frobenius Expedition (1938-1939), to the Kimberley Region of Western Australia, Helmut Petri had developed a wide range of interests that encompassed the fields of physical anthropology, ethnology, history, prehistory, economics and philosophy.

E

EP 9 Story, The by Mike Sasin/J B Norman

ISBN 0 85905 326 1, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 54pp, illustrated, A4 wire bound, 190grams, $22.00 *

An aero engineer's life in the NW where his business was shattered by lies and manipulation involving an illegal and unsound pilot, a millionaire megalomaniac pastoralist and DCA investigations

Eager For Labour by Val Fitch

ISBN 0 85905 314 8, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 190pp illustrated, 260grams, $26.00

The indentured labour of the Swan River Colony with the history of several of the families involved.

Eagle's Nest, The - Larkinville, the Golden Eagle and the Great Depression by P.J. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 274 5, (1999 New), Hard Cover, Soft Cover, 320pp, illustrated, HC 700grams, SC 450grams, HC $60.00 SC $40.00

The last great traditional gold rush at the height of the depression, with biographies, details of nuggets and a preview of the coming depression.

Early Days of Yilgarn District, The edited by Peter J Bridge and Angela Teague

ISBN 978-0-85905-445-4 (2008, New), A4, Soft Cover, 69pp, illus., 225 grams, $22.00*

This collection forms part of a series of biographies and reminiscences of the earliest prospectors of the Yilgarn Goldfields. While the answers as to priority, were to a certain extent, answered long ago, this information has become scattered and lost to all but the most determined researchers.

Early History of Cue and the Murchison Goldfields, The

ISBN 978-0-85905-610-6, (1937, R2015), A4, 46 pages, 165 grams, $22.00*

A different and personal view of early Cue and the Murchison area.

Early Memories of the Great North West. by A R Richardson.

ISBN 978-0-85905-079-1, (1914, 2008), A4, 56 pp, Soft Cover, 180 grams, $22.00*

Richardson was a pioneer of the NW. His book is a mainstay of information on the early settlements and the people of the north

Early Woodlines of the Goldfields - The untold story of the Woodlines to World War II edited by Phil Bianchi, Peter Bridge and Ray Tovey new expanded edition

ISBN 0 85905 432 2 140 pp, 380grams, A4 perfect bound, illust., soft cover, $40.00*

Articles and letters by writers such as Crosscut T.H. Wilson and reporters for The Sun, give the reader a clear understanding of events at the time, the undercurrents and how high feelings were running on various issues such as strikes, pay, living expenses, dagoes, the company, bosses, life in the bush and so on.

East is East by WC Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-007-4, (2010, R), 21 pp, illust, SC, B5, 50g, $10.00*

A white woman was mysteriously murdered in an Indian garden, and the police were completely baffled owing to the apparent lack of motive for the crime. Far away in Australia, however, a few people knew that a sixteen-year-old feud - a tragedy of the mating of East and West had reached its culmination

"Eastward Ho!" - A trip through the Murchison Goldfields in 1894 by A Special Reporter

ISBN 978-0-85905-759-2, (1894 R 2019), A4, Indexed, 30pp, 100 grams, $22.00*

Eggs-a-Cook!The story of the Forty-fourth.War – as the Digger Fought It by Captain C. Longmore

ISBN 978-0-85905-049-4, (1921, 2010 R N), illustrated, casebound, 115gsm paper, section sewn, dust jacket, head & tail bands, ribbon, 216pp, 550 grams, RRP $75.00*

Eggs-a-Cook! relates the experience of the 44th Battalion of the Third Division in France during 1916-1918. Formed at Claremont in early 1916 they landed in England in July 1916, via Egypt, where they collected their cognomen, arriving in France in November.

(Eight) 8 Battery. An Enduring Force. by Major Ronald Cutten RFD.

ISBN 978-0-85905-990-9, (New, 2023), A4, french flaps, well illustrated, 276 pages, ~800 grams, $66.00*

The first artillery unit in Western Australia was formed in 1872 with the formation of the WA Troop of Horse Artillery (formerly the Union Troop of Mounted Volunteers). This was followed by frequent name and equipment changes, even after Federation in 1901. At the outbreak of war in 1914, Western Australia was allocated a field artillery battery. From August 1914, the existing 37 Battery militia became 8 Battery AIF.

This book tells the story of 8 Battery, a unit that made its name in World War 1 but whose influence was felt long after the cessation of this conflict.

8 Battery served from Gallipoli on through to the Western Front. While the official unit war diaries and other sources give detailed descriptions of action on the war front it is thanks to the letters and diaries left behind by two remarkable soldiers, namely Hector Roy McLarty and William (Bill) Lyall that the author has been able to capture personal stories of victories and losses, of tragedies and heroic acts, and of comradeship and service to country.

8 Battery's influence did not end at the finish of the Great War. After World War 1 it was the basis of the continuing service of artillery in Western Australia, Members of 8 Battery also served in World War 2 units, in particular 6 Battery of 2/3 Australian Field Artillery (Greece) and in the 14thBattery of 2/7th Australian Field Regiment (Middle East). Soldiers who had been leaders in World War 1 continued their leadership in the Second World War.

The 8th Battery Association continued the strong bonds formed on the battlefield and was active right up until the 1950s. 8 Battery's example of continuing service is reflected in today's former and currently serving gunners. 8 Battery's story is one that deserves to be told.

Enemy subjects. A detailed description of enemy aliens at Fremantle Police Station in WWI. edited by Lorraine Clarke

ISBN 978-0-85905-826-1, (New 2020), A4, 15 pages, 80 grams, $20.00*

Detailed descriptions of internees which have overall been missed in other compilations and so not recorded or referenced in publications on internees.

Ernest Giles - Explorer & Traveller 1835-1897 by Ray Ericksen

ISBN 0 85905 240 0, (1997 reprint of 1978 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 336pp, illustrated, 510grams, $45.00

The prize-winning biography of Australia's greatest explorer.

Escape from Rottneest Prison: William Slee - out of the pan and into the fire Compiled by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-958-9, (New, 2022), A4, 24 pages, 100 grams, $22.00*

A luckless prisoner finds freedom as much as he can bear.

Ethno-Pornography. Male and female Aboriginal initiation and customs by Walter E. Roth

ISBN 978-0-85905-852-0, (1897 R 2020), A4, 23 pages, illustrated, 110 grams, $22.00*

Despite the unfortunate title, a serious study.

Ethnological notes and phallic rites of the Aboriginal tribes of Western and South Australia by R.H. Matthews

ISBN 978-0-85905-859-9, (1904 R 2020), A4, 54 pages, illustrated, 185 grams, $35.00*

Important reference for all seriously interested in the real background to native tribal customs.

Esther Austin – Adventures on the Goldfields by Hadah

ISBN 0 85905 412 8, (1899 reprint 2007, e-published 2006, in the Dollypot, Greenhide and Spindrifft column Vol.4 No.4.), 18 pp, illust, saddle, Soft Cover, A4, 95grams, $12*

The experiences of a Salvation Army girl on the Eastern and Murchison fields in the 1890s.

Evidences of an Inland Sea by G.F. Moore, with a new foreword by Prof. J.M.R. Cameron.

ISBN 978-0-85905-407-2, (2008 Reprint 1837), Hard Cover, dj, 78 pp, 320grams, $60.00*

Moore led a series of expeditions to the NE of Perth to investigate the stories of natives about a body of inland water. This exceptionally rare book contains much of Aboriginal interest.

Expedition Eastward from Northam, The, by the Dempster brothers, Clarkson, Harper and Correll, July-August, 1861 by Lesley Brooker

ISBN 0 85905 390 3, (2006 New), Soft Cover, 92pp, illustrated A4, 285grams, full colour, 43 sketch maps, 59 photos, $35*

It was idle curiosity that first led Lesley Brooker, an ex-CSIRO scientist, to find out who might have been the first Europeans to visit a bush property near Sandford Rocks, Westonia, recently purchased by Lesley and her husband Michael from the National Trust under the BushBank scheme.

Expeditions in Western Australia 1837-1839 by George Grey

ISBN 0 85905 046 7, (1983 reprint of 1841 edition), Hard Cover, 916pp, illustrated, maps, 1680grams, $90.00*

This classic of Western Australian exploration in two volumes details Grey's discoveries. Extensive details of natural history, Aboriginal life, culture, language, and more. Grey's party suffered shipwreck, starvation and thirst in their long travels from Gantheaume Bay to Perth.

Exploration Eastwards 1860-1869 edited by Peter Bridge and Kim Epton. (WAEDP series.)

ISBN 978-0-85905-701-1, (New, 2018), casebound, section sewn, illustrated, maps, indexed, 576 pages, 1.5kg, $115.00*

Contains some 30 expeditions including Lefroy and CC Hunt with appendices on the plants by Alex George and animals by Ian Abbott. Biographical notes on all known expedition members. Resolves the problems of the 'convicts gold' and Hunt's unknown convict helpers.

This is a very small run which will ensure future scarcity. The companion volume 1869-1896 will go to the printers in July.

Explorations in Australia 1858 - 62 by John McDouall Stuart

ISBN 0 85905 062 9, (1984 reprint of 1865 edition), Hard Cover, 538pp, illustrated, 1010grams, $80.00

Stuart was the first to reach Australia's geographical centre and to traverse the continent. Thirst, scurvy, starvation and hostile natives hampered his expeditions. His route led to the construction of the overland telegraph and the opening up of Central Australia.

Exploring the Golden West – H.W.B. Talbot by Len Talbot

ISBN 978-0-85905-418-8, (2008 New), Soft Cover, A4, 200 pages, illustrated, 560 grams, $40.00*

The biography of one of the best-known exploration geologists of Western Australia

F

Family Farm – Success & Succession, The by Judith Stanich

ISBN 0 85905 231 1, (1995 New), Soft Cover, 113pp, illustrated, 160grams, $22.00

An essential handbook that deals with the very sensitive subject of family business succession. The author believes she has found a way for families to deal with and resolve this issue.

FCB Vosper of the long hair. A radical democrat ahead of his time by Chris Holyday

ISBN 978-0-85905-994-7, (2023, New), A4, illustrated, 145 pages, 420 grams, $40.00*

A detailed biography of a great politician. "Apart from the Premier, Sir John Forrest, no public figure was more widely known in the West Australian gold rush of the 1890s than FCB Vosper. Street-corner agitator, vitriolic newspaper editor and state politician, he achieved remarkable prominence while still in his twenties." – Edwin Jaggard.

This is the first comprehensive biography of an outstanding democrat of democrats whose star shone brightly across the roaring nineties of the West Australian gold rushes. He was a firebrand newspaper editor, powerful public speaker, passionate miner, mineralogist, mine reporter, union agitator, MLA for Western Australia and a reformer. He has contributed significantly to the history of Western Australia and his biography makes compelling reading.

Fields Gold. A story of the Yalgoo Goldfields by Alex Palmer

978-0-85905-464-5, (R 1981, 199, R2009), Soft Cover, 160grams, $22.00

Fifty Years Afloat by Hugh Cameron

ISBN 0 85905 213 3, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 198pp, illustrated, 240grams, $22.00

The memoirs of a Western Australian ferryman and boat builder on the Swan River and Rottneest run.

Fighting for Life by Judith Fitzhardinge

ISBN 0 85905 224 9, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 268pp, illustrated, 340grams, $33.00

John Fitzhardinge was in Greece and Crete with the Artillery during World War II and was eventually taken prisoner by the crew of an Italian submarine and incarcerated in Italy and Germany.

Fighting the Kimberley - The 3 Australian Corps Kimberley Guerilla Warfare Group, 1942-1943 by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-501-7, (2012 N), 356pp, A4, 311 illu., indexed, section sewn, soft cover, 1kg +, $60.00*

The role of Major Mitchell's 3rd Australian Army Corps Guerilla Warfare Group, 101 Field Security, Special Duties groups, Special Independent Guerilla Warfare Company, Volunteer Defence Corps, 11 North West Battalion, and the Derby Garrison in the defence of the Kimberley and the North West.

Fighting the Kimberleys. Errata & Additions. By Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-932-9, (New 2022), A4, 15 pages, 80 grams $22.00*

Printed for permanent record. Free pdf on website.

Finch Trapping in the Kimberley. A History of Commercial Finch Trapping in the Kimberley Division of Western Australia by Kevin Coate and Lance Merritt

ISBN 978-0-85905-621-2, (New, 2015), 275h x 200, limp cover, 408pp, illustrated with 48 color and 9 sepia plates, 1350 grams, $85.00*

This valuable new book, Finch Trapping in the Kimberley, provides a rare insight into the far north of Western Australia, the capture of over one million wild finches, their marketing and their distribution around the world.

It is the first complete analysis of lawful, and sometimes questionable, trapping and trading of Australian wild birds, and the operations of authorities who allowed the industry to linger in Western Australia between 1897 and 1986.

Finding HMAS Sydney. A Memoir by Glenys McDonald

*ISBN 978-0-85905-629-8, (2016, New), A4, illustrated, 120pp, 350grams, $30.00

The author was a key figure in the Sydney search. This is the story of the finding of the great ship and of the personal journey of the author in dealing with her husband's dementia. A very readable story from both the maritime and medical views.

Finest Gold fields in the World. Robert Austin's 1854 Expedition to the Murchison, The edited by Peter J Bridge & Sheryl Milentis, with an introduction by Prof. James Cameron.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-018-0, (1855, R2009), Hard Cover, 240pp 620grams $80.00

Austin led the expedition inland and north to the Murchison. His horses were poisoned and Charles Farmer died from lockjaw. They were reduced to drinking the urine of themselves and the remaining horses. They discovered the first gold field in WA but political reasons prevented the disclosure. Previously hidden government correspondence and illustrations by Fraser, the artist with the expedition are published for the first time

Fire, Foxes, and Feral Cats. by Per Christensen.

ISBN 978-0-85905-927-5, (New, 2022), A4, 123 pages, illustrations in colour, 510 grams, $40.00

Have you ever wondered why many of our unique fauna have disappeared from Australia in the short time since European colonization? Over the years many theories have been advanced to try to explain this but most ecologists have come now to believe the introduced European Red fox and wild domestic cat, together with changed fire regimes to be the principal causes.

Ecologist Per Christensen was the first scientist to demonstrate this and he was the first to try to develop large scale fauna management techniques using fire and broad scale predator control to carry out re-introduction experiments.

An migrant from Kenya with a background in forestry and a university degree in botany and zoology, Per works as a research officer in the magnificent southern forests of Western Australia. When green politics and political whim result in the amalgamation of forestry, wildlife and National Parks into a new department of Conservation and Land Management Per's work expands to the arid country.

A serious but at times light hearted account full of interesting characters and amusing situations in which science frequently has to negotiate green politics, political whim, and public opinion. A story of triumphs and failures.

First Actor on the Goldfields, The by Tom Cannam

*ISBN 978-0-85905-577-2, (2014, new), 15pp, SC, B5, 40 g, $10.00

English actor 'Tom Cannam', Thomas Arthur Sowden, 1863-1940s, arrived in Australia in 1891 and soon ended up at the Coolgardie rush. A long life on the stage made him a household name between the wars. This is his autobiographical account of his travails in early Coolgardie.

First Overland Cattle Drove from South Australia to Kalgoorlie, The by EP Halford

*ISBN 978-0-85905-790-5, (New, 2020), A4 illustrated, 40 pages, 150 grams, $25.00

The Halford family's great trek across the Nullarbor to Kalgoorlie where they started Credo Station in 1904. Brilliant photos.

Flight of Diamonds by Major W. Tyler

ISBN 0 85905 105 6, (1987 new), 134pp, SC, illust 200grams, $25.00

The 1942 Japanese attack on Broome had been kept hidden by the Curtin's wartime government. Tyler gives the first full account of the raid and of the loss of $12 million in diamonds, still unrecovered. Copious illustrations of Japanese, Dutch, United States and Australian aircraft and personnel involved in the disaster.

Flip Side War by Ean McDonald

*ISBN 0 85905 353 9, (2005 New), soft cover, A4 175pp, illustrated, 485grams, $30

"Flip Side War is an easily read series of anecdotes covering much of World War Two in the Royal Australian Navy, being the experiences of a young man, cum sailor, cum officer caught up in that part holocaust, part puzzle and part circus. It does not set out to be strictly historical, or zealously serious, but rather records an intermixing of some of the lighter moments whilst roving many seas among some of the famous battles and campaigns.

It begins with the author's call to arms as a Junior Reserve Signaller on day one of his war, swiftly taking the reader to sea to adventure aboard the famous H.M.A.S. Sydney, thence to rare service aboard every one of the Scrap Iron Flotilla destroyers, to Tobruk, Greece and Crete, and moving through his dive bombed sinking in Waterhen and on through the great Fleet battles of Calabria and Matapan.

His tales embrace many facets of a rare six years of fully seetime service including four years with a little known cloak and dagger group working beyond Pacific Island front lines, pathfinding the reef strewn waters leading our armies back towards Japan.

Always there is a sense of humour even to the ironic penalty of seven days stoppage of leave for stepping back in line in his first posting as an officer. It all ends with a young father returning and beginning life in the peace that followed.

For Those Who Remembered Bob True, A History of Whitfords Reward, Gregory Hills by Peter J. Bridge with Ian Murray

*ISBN 0 85905 413 6, (2007 New, e-published 2006, in the Dollypot, Greenhide and Spindrift column Vol.1 No.6.), 20 pp, saddle, Soft Cover, A4, 95 grams, $15.00

Bob True was buried in a lonely grave at Lake Wells in 1906 by his prospecting mates

Forestry through the Fifties. A young forestry officer's journey with the Western Australian Forests Department. by Kevin Coate

*[ISBN 978-0-85905-977-3], (New, 2021). 175 x 250, 262 pages, heavily illustrated, indexed, 730 grams, $50.00

This interesting book provides a fascinating insight into how an aspiring young forest officer gained knowledge and skills through practical experience, working and camping in the bush.

Kevin Coate started work in 1951 at Margaret River and was stationed at settlements from Mundaring Weir in the north to Walpole in the south.

It was an era when steam powered timber mills still operated and power saws had just begun to take over from axes and crosscut saws.

A gem for all interested in the forests and the south west.

This book was published without any input from shire, company or state coffers. Nevertheless it outshines any literary eruptions from those structures.

Forestry in the Fifties by Kevin Coate OAM.

ISBN 978-0-85905-981-7, (New, 2023), 160 x 240, Very well illustrated, indexed, French flap soft cover, 300 pages, 830 grams, $60.00*

The second, greatly expanded edition. A young forestry officers journey with the Western Australian Forests Department.

Forgotten Art of Flash Jack Barrymore, Works on Paper, Painted Pearl Shells and Engraved Boab Nuts, from the first half of the 20th Century The, by Kim Akerman with Bruno Jordanoff.

ISBN 978-0-85905-993-0, (New, 2023), A4, Illustrated in colour, french flaps soft cover, 86 pages, 390 grams, $52.00* Postage Australia wide is $ for a single copy.

In the first half of the 20th century Flash Jack was a well-known and respected artist who primarily catered for the crews and passengers of steam ships that serviced the coastal towns of Western Australia and sailed north to Singapore.

Working on paper, boab nuts and small pearl shells, Jack created images of Aboriginal life in the Kimberley. Sadly, by the 1970s his name had disappeared from the story of Kimberley indigenous art history. In The Forgotten Art of 'Flash Jack' Barrymore, Kim Akerman with Bruno Jordanoff examine Jack's life and art, bringing together nearly a hundred works of art which had, until recently, been forgotten and place this extraordinary man as a crusader for Aboriginal contemporary art in the Kimberley.

Forgotten Explorers, The: - pioneer geologists of Western Australia, 1826 – 1926 by John Glover with Jenny Bevan.

ISBN 978-0-85905-473-7, (2010 N), 246pp, 240 x 160, illustrated, 700 grams, $40.00*

Who were the great Australian explorers? - Most people immediately think of men like Burke and Wills, Giles, Sturt, Grey, Stuart, Leichhardt, Kennedy and Eyre: and it is true that, besides their achievements, all of these suffered great hardships, and some perished, making them more memorable historically.

Forked Thumb Tribe of Cookes Swamp, The by Myra Wolter (nee Sheppard). With intro and annotations by Bob Sheppard.

ISBN 978-0-85905-922-0, (New, 2022), A5, 28 pages, illustrated, 50 grams, $15.00*

Details of a tribe which once lived near Arrino, WA.

Frank Hann's Lolworth Diaries 1866-1875 - transcribed and edited by Ian Elliot

ISBN 978-0-85905-547-5, (2013, New), A4, illustd., 192pp, 515 grams, $50.00*

The long awaited precursor to Do Not Yield to Despair. Frank Hann's early days in North Queensland. Annotated and indexed. Cattle Cape mining, characters, conflict, social and family life. Essential for any work on the period in N.Q.

Fred McGill: An Ambiguous Aboriginal. ed. by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-679-3, (New 2017), A5, softcover, 34pages, 50 grams, $10.00*

The life of Fred, a Noongar among the easterner Mirning. Fred was a hit man for settlement to the east and took part in Russell's 1897 expedition. His story in his own words. Fred died in 1909. Published 28 Sept 2017.

From Wales to Gwalia - A Swansea editor and his Australian goldmine by Alwyn Evans

ISBN 978-0-85905-630-4, (2016, New), A4, heavily illustrated – b&w and colour, well referenced and indexed, 184pp, 515 grams, $50.00*

A long awaited history of the Sons of Gwalia goldmine at Leonora. Assiduous research into the Welsh and Australian origins of this famous mine by Alwyn Evans for a thesis, now modified for general reading has resulted in an essential reference for any and all interested in WA mining history. An appendix on the exaggerated role of Hoover is of interest as an independent analysis divorced from the adulatory propaganda.

G

Gallipoli to Tripoli : History of the 10th Light Horse Regiment AIF 1914 - 1919 by Neville Browning and Ian Gill.

ISBN 978-0-85905-515-4, (2011 R 2012), 648pp, heavily illustrated with maps and photos, rited end papers, 1.8 kg, (Well over 2kg packed), folded laminated card cover, with the printed end papers, 1.65 kg. $70.00*

The 10th Light Horse epitomises the dash and insouciance of the mounted Australian soldier in World War I. We believe that this book will fill the great need of the expanding families, relatives, and growing amounts of Westralians interested in knowing of the experiences of our men in battles of such significance that they literally changed the map of the world.

Gather No Moss by Billy Linklater

ISBN 0 85905 232 X, (1997 reprint of 1968 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 175pp, illustrated, 240grams, $22.00

The classic biography of Northern Territory bushman Billy Miller Linklater includes much detail of the early characters.

Geology and Mineral Deposits of the Leonora-Laverton Area, North Eastern Yilgarn Block, Western Australia by J. Hallberg

ISBN 0 85905 078 5, (1985 New), SC, 218pp, illustrated, 310grams, $25.00

An associated set of 16 large geological maps of the area sells at approximately $104.00 elsewhere.

George James Woodley - The prospector of the Murchison. Collated by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-763-9, (2019), A4, indexed, 40pp, 125 grams, $22.00*

The real prospecting pioneer of the Murchison, defamed and pauperised by the powers that were and are.

Get it Write! by Kim Epton. Explains the process of preparing the manuscript and is a style guide that details the Hesperian Press house style.

Ghosts in Khaki by Les Cody

ISBN 978-0-85905-563-3, (1997, Reprint 2013), Softcover, 388pp, 905grams, $55.00*

The Unit History of the 2/4th Machine Gunners in Western Australia, Malaya, Singapore, Burma Railway.

A classic of Australian military history.

Ghosts of Bayley Street: Collected Poems of J. Sorensen by Jack Sorensen

ISBN 0 85905 138 2, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 100pp, 150grams, $22.00

Jack Sorensen, shearer, boxer and poet was renowned for his meter and rhyme.

Ghost of Garden Island, The. The secret of Singing Rock by E.G. Murphy.

ISBN 978-0-85905-871-1, (1934 R 2021) $10.00*

A forgotten aboriginal legend.

Ghosts of Hamelin Bay, The by Garry Teehan.

ISBN 978-0-85905-035-7, (2008), A4, 92pp, Soft Cover, illustrated, 270 grams, $30.00*

The history of the now forgotten port and timber export town and area at Karridale, near Augusta. Details of the timber cutting, mills, ships and shipping, and the Davies empire from the archives, police files and shipping records.

Girt by Sea. An Unreliable History of Australian Shipping by Kent Stewart.

(New, 2023), 165 x 245, well illustrated in colour, Case bound, 133 pages, 660 grams, $50.00

Only available Direct from author. Be quick. A small run.

kent.stewart@maricon.com.au

Gim! Gold stealing tales and trials of in the Golden West by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-575-8, (2014), A4, 175pp, 505grams, $35.00*

Gold stealing was a way of life on the WA goldfields. It still continues in the boardrooms of the corporations in which are ensconced only the 'best' people. In our Darwinian economy only the most brazen and successful thieves survive to rob again. Many Westralian fortunes were and are built on these rorts. But it is usually the small miner who got caught. These latter stories have become part of the folklore of the goldfields.

Glorious Uncertainty, The by Sally L. Senior

ISBN 0 85905 282 6, (2000 New), Soft Cover, 152pp, illustrated, 215grams, $22.00

An enchanting tale of the lives of three little girls who grew up on a sheep station in the East Murchison district of Western Australia in the 1930s and 1940s.

God before Gugerl, - Luggers, trucks & water bores & other Kimberley stories by Michael Gugerl

ISBN ISBN 978-0-85905-567-3, (2014 New), A4, 226pp, heavily illustrated and indexed, 855gms, $45.00*

The Gugerl family have been landmarks in the Kimberley for nearly a century. This book follows four generations of life in the north, from pearling, carrying, Anna Plains station, water boring, Cockatoo Island, oil drilling, wool carting, the Underworld, rockets, fishing, and many incidents and characters. Biographies of Doug Blythe, Billie King and details of many other Kimberley personalities are also offered.

Gold at Peak Hill by P.R. Heydon

ISBN 0 85905 153 6, (1991 New), Hard Cover, 310pp, illustrated, 530grams, $40.00

The story of the discovery of gold in 1892 by Wilson and partners, the history of the town and Peak Hill area and its characters, all now gone.

Gold Deposits of Western Australia, The by A. Gibb Maitland

ISBN 0 85905 010 6, (1919, 2009), 94pp, A4+, illus, soft cover, 300g, $30.00*

Ninety years on this is still the best overview of gold in WA for the general reader and prospector. The maps, drawings and photos explain the distribution and geology of gold throughout WA. Fourth Edition.

Gold Fields Maps of the early 1900s. WA Mines Department

ISBN 978-0-85905-569-7, (1905-8, 2014), A4, 56pp, 180grams, $22.00*

A reprint of the rare booklets of WA goldfields maps supplied to the early prospectors. Essential for goldfields historians and modern prospectors.

Gold Getting Days by John Meiklejohn

ISBN 0 85905 341 5, 2005, Soft Cover, 175pp, 235grams, $30.00

John Meiklejohn was one of the best known prospectors of the Coolgardie and later goldrushes of the 1890s.

Gold in the Gascoyne by Rhonda McDonald

ISBN 0 85905 270 2, (2000 reprint of 1985, 1986 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 140pp, illustrated, 200grams, $22.00

The story of Mangaroon Station and its development by the McDonalds from 1923, including the discovery of the magnificent Star of Mangaroon Goldmine.

Gold on the Murchison by Phil Heydon.

ISBN 0 85905 066 1, (1986, 2008), 221pp, illustrated, Soft Cover, 315 grams, $35.00

A history of Cue and Day Dawn and the gold rush of the 1890s.

Gold Stealers, The by Brian Purdue

ISBN 0 85905 271 0, (2001 New), Soft Cover, 280pp, 450grams, $35.00

The murders of Police Officers Pitman and Walsh by the gold stealers, Coulter and Treffene, in 1926.

Gold to Grass by A. Ashwin

ISBN 0 85905 284 2, (2002 New), Soft Cover, illustrated, 300grams, $30.00

Prospecting in the Northern Territory, Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria and Western Australia through the 1870s, 80s and 90s. Destined to become a bush classic.

Golden Days by Jules Raeside

ISBN 0 85905 204 4, (1996 reprint of 1929 edition), Soft Cover, 280pp, illustrated, 360grams, $30.00

The early goldfields and the men who shaped the politics of mining.

Golden Era of Animal Health, The - The History of Disease Control in Farm Animals in Western Australia 1829 – 1990 by Fred Newman with Alex Williams

ISBN 978-0-85905-574-1, (2014, New), A4, 93pp, illustrated, 280 grams, $30.00*

Through the years a stock inspector has been; a stockman, bush vet, bush lawyer, and as a public servant committed and dedicated to protecting, improving and enhancing livestock production throughout the State of Western Australia.

As initially set down by the first stock inspectors the culture of the organisation has been one of practical and resourceful advice and assistance. They have been highly motivated, self-reliant and helpful to stock owners. They were of necessity good communicators and great ambassadors for the veterinary professionals who supported and backed up the local and practical knowledge of stock inspectors.

Golden Land of Silence - A Tale of the Kimberleys by A.O Neville

ISBN 978-0-85905-479-9 , (N, 2010), 181pp, 320g, $30.00

This novel, set in the 1930s in the far north Kimberley region of Western Australia, not only is a story of enduring love and revenge, both European and Aboriginal, but a portrayal of life on a remote cattle station where access and transport were both limited to slow.

Golden Quest, The: "Roaring days of the West Australian Gold Rushes and Life in the Pearling Industry" by A.C.V. Bligh

ISBN 0 85905 042 4, (1984 reprint of 1958 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 235pp, illustrated, 370grams, $30.00

The search for gold and the hazards of pearling. A vivid picture of life in the early days of the unexplored North.

Golden Rule, The by Bob Sheppard

ISBN 0 85905 311 3, (2002 New), Soft Cover, illustrated, 480grams, $40.00 *

Who really discovered the Telfer gold mine? "The Golden Rule" tells the real story.

Golden West and How it was Discovered, The by R. Greaves

ISBN 0 85905 009 2, (1981 reprint of 1903 edition), Soft Cover, 63pp, illustrated, 110grams, $16.50

Greaves was the discoverer of the Yilgarn goldfield in 1887. A detailed account of the discovery and its results for Greaves and his partners.

Goldfields Journal of William Diaper 1851-1853, The (Alias Cannibal Jack) edited by William W. Emilsen

ISBN 0 85905 262 1, (1999 New), Hard Cover, 140pp, illustrated, 390grams, $40.00*

This journal was discovered hidden behind a mirror in a theological college. It was written in ink made of charcoal and urine on old and foxed paper. This book is one of the most fascinating personal accounts of the great gold rush in New South Wales and Victoria. It will become an Australian classic.

Goldfields Memoirs of Donald Sandeman McDonald by DS Mc Donald.

ISBN 978-0-85905-792-9, (New, 2020), A4, illustrated, indexed, 88 pages, 290 grams, $35.00*

From the 1890s to the 1960s he recorded N. Coolgardie goldfields life, of both aboriginals and the prospectors.

Goldfields without Chrysanthemums, The by Catherine Bond

ISBN 978-0-85905-602-1, (2015 R 1898), A5, 48 pages, 85 grams, $15.00.

First published in 1898 as a portion of a larger book, this booklet contains all the WA goldfields portion of Bond's goldfields visit in 1896. How the well-heeled did it tough in the goldrush. Well worth a read to get the women's flavour of the fields.

Government Gums and Rattling the Dish, The by Peter J Bridge with Gail Dreezens

ISBN 0 85905 399 7, (2007 New), Soft Cover, A4, 51pp, saddle, illust, 180 grams, $22*

Before the advent of gaols prisoners were chained to trees, a practice surviving in WA until the 1950s. Digger justice was rough, ready, and sure. When the police came crime soared. Perhaps we need local justice committees to be revived

Grandfather was a Policeman by Mollie Bentley

ISBN 0 85905 143 9, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 180pp, illustrated, 250grams, $22.00

Traces the early Western Australian police force from its inception to the 1890s with an emphasis on the men who served in it.

Great Nor' West and its Resources, The . by L. van Praagh & Reginald Lloyd.

ISBN 978-0-85905-912-1, (1904, R, 2022), A3, 116 pp, heavily illustrated, indexed, 1kg, $70.00*

A magnificent reprint of the very rare 1904 book. This A3 book of 116 pages (=232pp A4) has hundreds of photos of the NW before 1904 together with good descriptive text. Period adverts also abound for the enterprises that helped develop the country. Mining, pastoral, agricultural, shipping, transport, pearling, aborigines are well covered.

This is a companion volume to our earlier publications, Nor' West of West (1908), History of the North West (1915), Nor' Westers of the Pilbara Breed (1981), Due North (2020), Experiences and Adventures of NW Cooke (2021), and many smaller books.

These are fundamental sources of information on the people and businesses that have developed the North West into the powerhouse of the national economy. They are the foundation for future projects such as our Biographical Dictionary of the North West 1860-1960.

The unusual size of this book creates problems for mailing. Resolution at reasonable costs is being examined.

Great Unknown & Away Back, The by L.O. Dowker

ISBN 978-0-85905-175-0, (2011), A4, 42pp, 150g, $22.00*

"These narrative are true stories of my own life in the Australian Bush 1888-1897-1903."

Grien on Rougemont by Daily Chronicle, Phil May, Barry Pain

ISBN 978-0-85905-624-3, (1898, R2015), large A4, 38pp, illustrated, 220 grams, $30.00*

De Rougemont's spectacular adventures startled the world in 1898. The tale of shipwreck, rescue by aboriginals, and wondrous happening in the north Australian wilds held the world spellbound. His descriptions of flying wombats, riding turtles, and bevy of aboriginal wives enthralled. Then the penny dropped and irate explorers pulled the plug on him. Carr Boyd outdid him in his tall tales. The Daily Chronicle published this expose of both De Rougemont and his foolish followers with the magnificent Phil May cartooning and lampooning all.

Ground Crew by Felix Sainsbury

ISBN 0 85905 302 4, (2001 New), Soft Cover, 124pp, illustrated, Spiral A4, 370grams, $30.00*

The war diaries of a RAAF ground crew member in North Africa during World War II.

Guidebook to the Pegmatites of Western Australia by Mark Ivan Jacobson, Mark Andrew Calderwood and Benjamin Alexander Grguric

ISBN 0 85905 378 4, (2007 New), Soft cover, French flap, 394pp, well illustrated, 700 grams $80.00* + POST (Overseas postage on application. Sea Mail and Air Mail only)

Western Australia is a treasure trove. Emeralds, green tourmalines, purple lepidolite, lustrous black tantalite and other minerals are found in pegmatites scattered across the vastness of Western Australia

GWF. THE LETTERS OF A NATIVE WELFARE OFFICER. 1959-1961 Pilbara And Kimberley. edited By Nan Broad. ISBN 978-0-85905-673-1 (New, 2017), 278 pages, A4, Illustrated, 700 grams, $50.00*

For the indigenous population of the North West of Western Australia the early 1960s held great promise and inevitable disappointment. Social welfare systems went into practice and some of the class barriers started to crumble. Against this progression the entrenched colonial superiority of the pastoralists continued to dictate employment methods. In this see-sawing milieu Bill Courtney takes up an appointment as Native Welfare Officer in Port Hedland and later in Halls Creek. His first brief is to remove Don McLeod, instigator of Simdan, the mineral prospecting company in Pilbara which has gone broke. He then takes over as the sole officer in Halls Creek, servicing East Kimberley. Courtney's erudite correspondence to a friend during these periods contains it all - his reactions to every aspect of the uniquely individual lifestyle practised by the 'white fellas' and, both funny and sad, the reactions of the 'black fellas.'

H

H.A. 'Matt' Ellis and the Lasseter Rort. edited by Peter J. Bridge ISBN 978-0-85906-832-2, (New, 2020), A4, illustrated, 25 pages, 110 grams, $22.00*

A short biography of 'Matt' Ellis, an almost legendary geologist who died some 50 years ago. A Military Medallist in WWI from NZ he became Government Geologist of the Northern Territory and later held the same position in Western Australia.

This book records his trip in 1936 to check on the claims of companies promoting the Lasseter story.

The once 'secret' files detailing the threats and intimidation against him by the company promoters are now public for the first time.

Matt was rough and tough, and not the person to retreat from a fight. Interesting reading.

Habits and Customs of the Aborigines of Western Australia, The by Salvado, Garrido, Camfield, Armstrong. ISBN 978-0-85905-799-8, (1873 R 2020), A4, 30 pages, 110 grams, $20.00*

Forgotten and Interesting material on the SW Aborigines of WA.

Hackett Memorial Buildings at the University of Western Australia, The by John Melville-Jones

ISBN 978-0-85905-543-7, (New 2012), 160x240, 79pp, col. illust., 300grams, $20.00

For the 100th year of the Uni of WA. the The Hackett Memorial Buildings at The University of Western Australia, was written by Emeritus Professor John Melville-Jones. It begins by detailing the circumstances that led to the provision of a very large sum of money from the bequest of Sir John Winthrop Hackett, an unexpectedly large amount, which allowed the Hackett Buildings and St George's College to be built in a more imposing style than would otherwise have been possible. The book then describes the architecture and decoration of these buildings, and includes some stories of events, serious and not so serious, that took place in and around them.

Havens of Refuge by W. S. Davidson

ISBN 978-0-85905-641-0, (1978 R 2016), Soft Cover, 202 pages, Illustrated, 290 grams, $30.00*

There is at the present time a considerable redistribution of populations taking place in the world, with the consequent redistribution of disease from endemic to non-endemic areas and to susceptible populations.

Havens of Refuge is the history of the incursion of inhabitants from S.E. Asia into the north of Western Australia in pearling days, and the subsequent development of leprosy in the indigenous susceptible population. The book does not deal with clinical details, but with the history of events relative to the introduction of leprosy, its spread and the efforts to contain it, based on and largely told in the words of contemporary observers and administrators, and it illustrates the fallacies of contemporary thought, now in danger of being repeated.

Hedland, Auld Lang Syne by E.G. Clutterbuck & Betty Doohan

ISBN 0 85905 327 X, (2003 Reprint), Soft Cover, 50pp, illustrated, 170grams, $22.00*

A visual and written record of the Moore family, one of the early pioneering families of the Pilbara region of Western Australia.

Heroes Have Wings by Peter Firkins, 1993

ISBN 0 85905 179 X, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 226pp, illustrated, 300grams, $30.00

The stories of RAAF aces in the great air battles of WWII, most told for the first time. The author is one of Australia's best-known military historians.

Hezekiah Pinkham : His Jurnal 1793-1802 - Transcribed and explained by Rod Dickson

ISBN 978-0-85905-508-6, (2011, New), A4, 209pp, illust., 565g, $40.00*

Transcribed from the original logbooks of the Nantucket whaler and trader, Hezekiah Pinkham.

These are the log books kept by young Hezekiah Pinkham after he went to sea as a teenager to learn the art of whaling from his uncle, Captain Andrew Pinkham.

He Paved Kalgoorlie's Streets with Gold. Andrew Phillip Lennon, a Canadian Indian in Australia's Wild West. by Geoff Blackburn and Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-915-2, (New, 2021), A4, 21 pages, illustrated, 90 grams, $22.00*

Andy Lennon, contractor and prospector, laid the Hannan Street paths with ore from the Golden Zone GM in 1899. Footsloggers wore the paths and exposed the gold, to the delight of the bar stool prospectors

He Rode Alone by Joan Brockman

ISBN 978-0-85905-889-6, (1987, R, 2021), 160 x 240, Illustrated, French flap soft cover, 298 pages, 510 grams, $55.00*

A book which, for human interest and historical importance, towers above anything which has or ever will be written about the North West of Western Australia. Though factual it reads more like the fictional story of an extraordinary and in some ways tragic man.

For thirty and more years until 1912 Julius Brockman recorded in his diary, almost daily, the events consistent with adventurous exploration and settlement of a harsh environment. Others have kept similar, though perhaps not such lengthy or meticulous records, but it is the man's unusually descriptive writing and biting wit which makes such entertaining reading. And unlike many pioneers he did not become so immersed in his battle with nature as to lose interest in the outside world. His comments on the politics of the day and the section on his overseas travels add another dimension to the overall theme of pioneer existence.

Available direct from Vernon Brockman, Beachgrove, Busselton and vernonbrockman@hotmail.com

Highways and Byways. ed by PJ Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-607-6, (2015, R 1930s), A4, 108 pages, 310 grams, $30.00*

The letters to The Western Mail in the late 1930s cover reminiscences and observations of bush life by men and women, farmers, drovers, sailors, fishermen and represent the land as it once was before the influx of aliens changed our life. Essential reading to grasp how the nation has changed and why so many are unhappy with the current trends.

Hillies Gift: A memoir of Australia's first rural guide dog owner Hilda Schell. by Jenny Byatt.

ISBN 978-0-85905-785-1, (New, 2020), A4, 158 pages, illustrated, 450 grams, $50.00* POSTAGE $12.45 Australia wide.

Biographical reminiscences collected by the editor over many years as a memorial to Hilda.

History of the North West of Australia by J.S. Battye

ISBN 0 85905 057 2, (1985 reprint of 1915 edition), Hard Cover, 322pp, illustrated, quarto, 1005grams, $115.00*

Contains details of some 230 early North West settlers, their families and 100 stations. It is the most valuable source of pre-1915 information on the North West.

History of the North West of Australia, Battye & Fox. Index. Michael Lance, Gail Dreezens, Peter J Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-906-0, (2021), A5, 34 pages, 60 grams, $10.00*

History of West Australia. A narrative of her past together with biographies of her leading men by W. B. Kimberly

ISBN 978-0-85905-202-3, (1897, R2015), large A4, casebound, laminated cover, PUR glued spine, 620 pages, illustrated, 2.8 kgs, $165.00*

Contains a comprehensive and detailed overview of the state's history and some 236 pages of biographies and portraits of the leading men of the 1890s.

The original book brings $5000 and over in dealers listings. This long awaited reprint of W. B. Kimberly's magnificent History of West Australia (1897) culminates our reprint programme of the histories and overviews of WA that have included:-

The Cyclopedia of Western Australia, 1912-13. The History of the North West, 1915. Those were the Days, 1933. Twentieth Century Impressions, 1901. Nor' West of West, 1908.

History of the Whalers on the South Coast of New Holland from 1800 – 1888, The by Rod Dickson

ISBN 0-85905-394-6 (2012, 2nd, corrected edition), stiff double edged cover, A4, cleat sewn, 640pp, 1.7kg, $120.00*

This volume traces the history of over 700 individual ships and their voyages from American, French, British and Colonial ports to the southern shores and offshore waters of today's Western Australia from Cape Leeuwin to the Head of the Great Australian Bight.

HMS Guardian and the Island of Ice. The lost ship of the First Fleet and Lieutenant Edward Riou. 1789 - 1790. Compiled and annotated by Rod Dickson.

ISBN 978-0-85905-511-6, (N, 2012), A4, 128pp, illust., 355grams, $30.00*

Is the near forgotten story of the GUARDIAN, her Heroic Commander and his Crew. It is one of the great stories of survival at sea and the importance of leadership.

HMS Sulphur 1829- 1832 by E.S. & C.G.S. Whitely

ISBN 978-0-85905-020-3, (New, 2010), A4, 101pp, 300g., $30.00*

The Sulphur was considered by Dr Cyril Bryan as "the pioneer vessel of the Swan River Settlement."

Homemade Adventures. My Expeditions in the West Australian Bush and Desert by Stan Gratte OAM.

ISBN 978-0-85905-985-5, (New, 2023), 160 x 240, Well illustrated, indexed, French flap soft cover, 242 pages, 650 grams $55.00*

Stan made many trips into the Western Desert with his associates which have now become the basis of a great deal of anthropological study, having been instrumental in contacting the last of the bush nomads. His following of Forrest's route and recording the relics of Carnegie and other explorers laid the groundwork for Hesperian's Exploration Diaries projects and the spark for the 4WD travellers of later decades.

As with many books nowadays, a small run only, so do not delay in getting a copy.

Author direct Stan Gratte. 292 Seventh St Geraldton. 6530. 99212845.

Hoovers Millions and how he made them by James O'Brien

ISBN 0 85905 340 7, (2005 reprint of 1932 edition), Soft Cover, 516pp, 800grams $66.00* Direct sale only

Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, 1928-1932, worked for Bewick, Moreing and Co. on the Sons of Gwalia mine at Leonora, Western Australia, in 1897 and 1898

Horse Trams of the old West. by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-733-2, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, 26pp, 90 grams, $20.00*

Horse trams were a feature of the old north coastal towns, taking passengers and cargo from the jetties to the townships.

Horses Horses Horses edited by Flora Stuart Lee

ISBN 0 85905 125 0, (1989 New), Soft Cover, 79pp, illustrated, 130grams, $22.00

A celebration of the part played by horses in the development of Australian life in the days before tractors, cars and trucks.

How to Cook Wheat by Mary Farrelly

ISBN 0 85905 385 7, (2006 reprint), soft cover, A4, 42pp, 150 grams, $22*

A depression cookbook with many great old ads.

Hunting of Ninaluk, The by WC Charnley

[ISBN 978-0-85905-885-8], (1935, 2021), A4, 19 pages, illustrated, 120 grams. $22.00*

The escape and recapture of the NT murderer Ninaluk in 1934

Hyland Circus, The by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-900-8, (New, 2021), A4, 52 pages, heavily illustrated, 175 grams, $30.00*

Hyland's Circus was renowned across Australia. Horseman John Roberts married a daughter of Ah Pan and an Irish girl from Capetown, N Queensland.

The many children were trained as horseriders and circus performers. Some became renowned internationally.

Arriving in WA at the turn of the century they performed state-wide. An attraction was that many of the performers were blind from an inherited optical neuropathy passed on maternally.

Settling in Broome, Roberts disappeared on a horse trading trip up the Fitzroy River. Several years later his body was found with a bullet hole in the head.

The reason for his death was a mystery, known to very few, all now dead. All the police files have been destroyed.

Now for the first time in over a century the secret of his death is revealed..

I

I see something better soon. How a remote community was transformed through empowerment by Jim Heslop
ISBN 978-0-85905-638-0, (New 2016), A4, 312 pages, illustrated, softcover, 840 grams, $60.00+*

This is a book that I really did not want to write because I had hoped that the journey of community-school transformation and empowerment that was commenced in 1991 in Warakurna would have gone much further and it would have dwarfed the tentative steps that were made at that time. Unfortunately, it may be argued that the empowerment of Aboriginal people over their school Warakurna or anywhere in the Ngaanyatjarra Lands of Western Australia has probably gone backwards. I have therefore written this book as an historic reminder to readers of what can be achieved by people who have a mind to work cooperatively and in humility towards achieving community aspirations.

Illicit Gold and the Looting of the Butterfly by John HC "Muggins" Sleeman. Edited by Peter J. Bridge
*ISBN 978-0-85905-954-1, (R, 2022), A4, 33 pages, 130 grams, $22.00

A selection of the Kalgoorlie writings of a great goldfields journalist John Harvey Crothers Sleeman, 1880-1946. Includes a biographical introduction and a sketch. Contains some of the more creative descriptions of goldstealing than the usual primitive fare, which explains why those who get caught are generally of an IQ matching their boot size.

In Australian Tropics by Alfred Searcy. Foreword by Dr. C.C. McKnight

ISBN 0 85905 067 X, (1984 reprint of 1909 edition with new material), Hard Cover, 478pp, 650grams, $40.00

Searcy led an adventurous life as a customs officer in the Northern Territory in the 1880s. Experiences of the North, buffalo and crocodile hunting, the natives, Chinese, history of the early settlements, and more.

In Savage Australia by Knut Dahl

*ISBN 978-0-85905-633-5, (1926 R 2016), 240 x 160, 372pp, Hardcover, dj, indexed, illustrated, 1.1 kg, $96.00

Knut Dahl led expeditions into the NT and Kimberley in 1894-96. In Savage Australia was first published in English in 1926 but is not well known despite his interesting biological work and pertinent comments on the social habits of all races.

Dahl was a biologist with a wide knowledge and interest. Ian Abbot has written the Foreword and an appendix on the fauna described by Dahl. This is the latest volume in the Western Australian Explorers' Diaries Project and an essential reference for anyone interested in northern Australia.

In the Hands of Providence – The desert journeys of David Carnegie by Bill Peasley.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-530-7, (R2020), A4, 246 pages, well illustrated, 700 grams, $55.00

Bill's retelling of the story of Carnegie's desert journey.

In the Wake of HMAS Sydney II by Bryan Clark

*ISBN 978-0-85905-493-5, (2010 new), A4, 265pp, 740 grams, $55.00

Researched over a 15-year period by the former editor of The Gascoyne Telegraph and The Northern Times newspapers, Bryan Clark, this newly-released book is the only record of many of the now-deceased German survivors of the World War 11 raider, HSK Kormoran, which sunk the famous Australian cruiser, HMAS Sydney 11, off the West Australian coast on November 19, 1941, resulting in the deaths of 645 Australian naval personnel.

Incident at Afghan Rocks, The edited by P.J. Bridge, J. Crocker, S. Gullefer, I. Murray and G. Dreezens

*ISBN 978-0-85905-437-9, (2008 New), A4, Soft Cover, 51pp, illustrated, 170grams. $22.00

The details of the shooting of two Afghans by R.B. Knowles in 1894 near Balladonia, for defiling a waterhole, are brought together for the first time. The incident is now part of Australian folklore.

Incredible Klemm, The by Pat Studdy Clift

ISBN 978-0-85905-148-4, (2009 New), Soft Cover, 125 pages, 175 grams, $22.00.

This is the story of the remarkable Klemm Swallow aircraft built by Hans Klemm in Munich in 1934 and sent to New Guinea as a mission plane. It is now the oldest surviving mission plane from a lost past in the jungles of New Guinea.

Indian Ocean Whalers on the West Coast of New Holland by Rod Dickson

*ISBN 978-0-85905-597-0, (New, 2015), A4, 22 pp, 95grams, $22.00

This is a companion volume to the immense, The history of the Whalers on the South Coast of New Holland from 1800 – 1888, by Rod Dickson. Hesperian Press, 2007. The West Coast book lists the whalers alphabetically, with master, tonnage and rig, home port, date sailed and to which whaling ground. While not detailed to the extent of the South Coast volume, the gems of information on WA coastal activities are of great interest.

Ingenious Inventor - Frank Mather and his Electweld Steel Co. at Kellerberrin by Phil Bianchi and Ray Mather

*ISBN 0 85905 404 7, (2007), A4, 40pp, illust, 140grams, $22.00

Frank Mather was an inventor and engineer whose work was renowned in the WA wheatbelt. This book details his work on gas producers, farming implements, and refurbishing and recycling the Eastern Goldfields water pipeline.

International Chook Book, The by Annette Ryan.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-655-7, (New, 2020), A5, 36 pages, colour illustrations, 95 grams, $20.00

Chooks by any other name... also describes the foibles of their lofty admirers. Annette's catchy verse is a pleasure to read and smile about. Air hostess, laboratory worker, pharmacy assistant, doctor's wife, and widow, with award winning poetry and university studies, published poet, and an audience of chooks are some of her accomplishments.

Interpreting Occupied Japan – The Diary of an Australian Soldier 1945 – 1946 by Basil Archer edited and with an introduction by Sandra Wilson.

ISBN 978-0-85905-474-4, (2009), Soft Cover, 164pp, 280 grams, $25.00

This is a rare account of early post-war Japan from the cutting edge of day-to-day work in the Allied occupation, by an Australian soldier trained in the Japanese language for occupation work. It provides a wealth of insights into the lives both of the soldiers in the British Commonwealth Occupation Force and of the Japanese with whom they lived and worked.

Into the Arms of Death by Neville Green

ISBN 978-0-85905-820-9, (New 2020), A4, Soft Cover, 188pp, well illustrated, 720 grams, $50.00*

An important and revelatory study of the effects of disease on Westralian Aboriginals that will change the way we perceive their diminution and which places the politicised claims of many mythical massacres squarely into the propaganda (aka bullsh) basket. From the measles of European settlers to leprosy, smallpox and VD from the great Asian disease reservoirs, the effects on native populations were a real holocaust.

Into the West edited by Chris Holyday

ISBN 0 85905 363 6, (2005 New), Soft Cover, A4, 158pp, illustrated, 440grams, $25.00*

The Western Australian goldrushes of the 1890's witnessed the first major encounter between Australians West and East. Henry Lawson led the charge of writers who came West. This book showcases those writers and some of their works in what was a little known period of great literary activity which would prove significant for both Western Australia and Australia

Iron in the Fire by Edgar Morrow

ISBN 0 85905 360 1, (2006 reprint of 1934 edition), Soft Cover, 136pp, 190grams, $22.00

1896-1953, was born in Lancashire, England. At the start of World War I he enlisted in the 28th Battalion, attaining the rank of Corporal and served in Gallipoli and France, where he was twice wounded.

His book is one of the few from Australian authors of their experiences during the War and is considered among the best from an Australian writing of that great conflict.

Itchy Feet. The life and travels of 'Happy Bob' by Bob Johnson.

ISBN 978-0-85905-028-9, (2012, New), Soft Cover, A4, 128pp, illustrated, 370grams, $30.00*

Bob spent most of his working life in the North, Wodgina Ta mine, on shearing teams, Big Bell, Moola Bulla Station, Bedford Downs, etc. Much info and anecdotes on the people and places. Many photos.

I've had a good life – Phil's Story by George Phillip Aitchison

ISBN 978-0-85905-377-8, (2006 R, 2010), A4, 58pp, 185g, $22.00*

Phil Aitchison's life story has the potential to appeal to the broader community. Australians like to read about "battlers." How he has overcome adversity and lived a fulfilling life is a fascinating story.

J

Jack Otway - My Biography by Jack Otway

ISBN 978-0-85905-447-5, (2009, New), Soft Cover, 34pp, illustrated, 170 grams, $25.00

Jack Otway is one of the last of the old breed of prospectors. He has led the hard life of the quintessential Australian bushman of yesteryear, but is not mired in the past.

At ninety five (in 2009) he was still on the go with mining projects, developing new talents and seeking new horizons, both in life and as a modern prospector.

Jacky and Polly, & Jimmy by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-592-5, (New, 2014), A5, 16pages, illustrated, 40 grams, $10.00*

The tale of Polly, drawn to the delights of civilisation and of the advantage of feminine wiles when devouring a damper. Also of Jacky who had to work for his. And ultimately, Jimmy, who paid the price for sticking his neck out in the wilds of the bush. A cautionary tale for the rest of the tribe. If you are a murderer who wants to remain free then make sure the colour of law matches yours.

Jarrahlant Jangler, The. The wit and short stories of EG (Dryblower) Murphy. edited by Chris Holyday.

ISBN 978-0-85905-796-7, (new, 2020, A4, illustrated, 62 pages, 200 grams, $30.00*

The goldfielder poet who was the core of the Sunday Times for many years.

JINGEMIA by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-754-7, (New, 2019), A4, 16 pages, illustrated, 80 grams, $22.00*

Jingemia, place of the jinghis, at Watheroo, is a large collapse doline in the Noondine Chert. The cave was mined for guano over a century ago.

It is now a National Park. This booklet covers all the reports and history of the cave.

John Dunn and the Wealth of Nations by Peter Bridge, Ian Murray, Maureen Causer.

ISBN 978-0-85905-061-6 (N, 2010), A4, 64pp, 210g, $22.00*

In 1894 John Dunn discovered the Wealth of Nations Gold Mine at Dunnsville, NE of Coolgardie.

John Morrell - Northam and Beyond by Michael J. Duggan

ISBN 978-0-85905-651-9, (new, 2016), A4, 534 pages, illustrated, indexed, French flap cover, 2.20 kg, $110.00*

The history of the Northam Morrell family from England to Western Australia.

Journal of Gerald De Courcy Lefroy, The edited and annotated by Bruce and Anne Buchanan

ISBN 978-0-85905-468-3, (2010), casebound, 361pp, 1kg, $80.00*

This is probably the most readable of all the extant colonial journals. It covers the 1840s and early 1850s, with an outline of De Courcy's life to the 1870s.

Journal of the Brockman Droving Expedition of 1874-75 to the North of Western Australia, The edited by Nan Broad with Peter Bridge.

ISBN 0 85905 366 0, (2006 New), Hard Cover, Dust Jacket, 177pp, illustrated, 475 grams, $60*.

The story of one of the greatest early stock droves in Australia

Journal of the Calvert Scientific Exploring Expedition, 1896-7, The by L.A. Wells

ISBN 0 85905 184 6, (Facsimile 1993 reprint of 1902 edition), Soft Cover, 62pp, quarto, illustrated, map, 250grams, $30.00

The journal of the fateful expedition on which two men disappeared. Details of Larry Wells' unsuccessful search for the men who were later found dead from thirst.

Journal of the Elder Scientific Exploring Expedition 1891-1892. David Lindsay. edited by Peter J. Bridge, Calliope Bridge and Celene Bridge (WAEDP series.)

ISBN 978-0-85905-658-8, (Reprint 1893 + New 2018), Casebound, section sewn, illustrated - b&w and colour, maps, indexed, 397 pages, 1.08 kg, $105.00*

With appendices on the plants by Alex George and animals by Ian Abbott, reported by the expedition. Also the full Anthropology report by Richard Helms which has not been available for over a century, which contains 6 colour plates and many b&w photos. Biographies of all the men.

This is a very small run which will ensure future scarcity.

Journals of Australian Exploration 1846-1861 by A.C. and F.T. Gregory

ISBN 0 85905 258 3, (2002 reprint of 1884 edition with 20% larger text), Soft Cover, illustrated, 340grams, $35.00

Journals of nine expeditions from 1846 to 1861.

Maps to Accompany "Journals of Australian Exploration 1846-1861" by A.C. and F.T. Gregory

$22.00 for set of four

Maps not previously published and that have not previously been available to readers. Please note that while these maps are not identical with those listed in 2002 edition, they appear to be all those published by Gregorys.

Judex – Judging the Fields by Fred Casey, edited by Peter Bridge with Celene Bridge.

ISBN 0 85905 421 7, (2007 New), Soft cover, A4, 37pp, saddle, 150 grams, $22.00*

Fred was the surveyor of the Kalgoorlie Council and a prospector who died on the dumps, chasing the wily weight. He was the first historian of early Kalgoorlie

Julian Stuart. Short Stories of a Dangerous Democrat. by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-938-1, (New, 2022), A4, 60 pages, 200 grams, $30.00*

Stuart was jailed in Qld during the 1890 shearers strike. In WA he was a fighter for the rights of workers and became an MP. His fame is for his brilliant poetry and other writings on the goldfields and working life generally.K

Kalamazoo The.

ISBN 978-0-85905-873-5, (R, 2021) $10.00*

Descriptions of the trolley use on the Port Hedland – Marble Bar railway in the 1930s..

Killers and Cannibals of the Upper Ashburton: Prospectors and stockmen murdered and cunning natives evade punishment. edited by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85904-841-4, (1905 R 2020), A4, illustrated, 16 pages, 80 grams, $22.00*

As the title explains, a chase for killers by Sergeant Frederick Growden, whose biographical outline is included.

Kimberley Days and Yesterdays. 45 years in the Great Nor-West of Western Australia by Charles Edward Flinders

ISBN 978-0-85905-064-5, (New, 2016), A4, well illustrated, indexed, 122 pages, 355 grams, $30.00*

Charles Flinders was a co-lateral descendant of Matthew Flinders. His time in the Kimberley-North West during their Roaring Days are told in his memoirs. People, incidents and tales of the characters that built the nation are a joy to read.

Kimberley in the 1950s, The

ISBN 978-0-85905-978-7, (2023, New), A4, 38 pages, highly illustrated, 140 grams, $30.00*

A series of Kimberley photographs, mainly of the people, from a defunct popular magazine.

Kimberley Reminiscences of Doug (William Douglas) Moore, The Edited by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-973-2, (New 2023), A4, 135 pages, illustrated, 400 grams, $40.00*

Doug Moore died at 83 at Roelands. He spent many decades in the Kimberley and his reminiscences were drawn upon by Mary Durack for the Sons in the Saddle.

Kimberley Scenes edited by C. Clement & P.J. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 145 5, (1991 New), Hard Cover, 310pp, illustrated, 550grams, $40.00

A magnificent collection of reminiscences of the early days of Kimberley: the gold rush, droving and police work in the Northern territory with 100 illustrations of the period.

Kimberley Squadron - Norforce - The First Twenty Years by Major Trevor Tough RFD (Retd)

ISBN 978-0-85905-618-2 (2015 New) A4, 193pp, illust., SC, (500g+), $40.00*

Formerly Troop Commander and later OPSO Kimberley Squadron

From the Foreword by Major General (Retd) The Honourable Michael Jeffery, AC, AO(Mil), CVO, MC:

"Major Trevor Tough, himself a long time member of the Squadron, has written an informed, detailed and at times passionate account of the Squadron and its people spanning the first 20 years of its establishment in 1981. Characters abound as the author takes us informatively and interestingly through the myriad of specialised skill sets required of a NORFORCE soldier.

And so the book proceeds on a journey describing Trevor's interesting and often hilarious 20 years' service; his anecdotes enlivened with very good and quite unique photographs of men, equipment and an uncompromising hinterland that can only be mastered by true bushmen soldiers.

Kimberley was God's by Harold S. Godbehear

ISBN 978-0-85905-117-0, (New, 2011), illust., A4, 112pp, 325g, $30.00*

Harold Godbehear was one of the great characters of the Kimberley and known by all of those in the Kimberley between the 1920s and 1950s.

Kinda Warm, Ain't It Missus? by Kath Zuegg

ISBN 978-0-85905-129-3, (2009), Soft Cover, 75pp, illustrated, 110 grams, $22.00

Kath and Harry Zuegg were mining at the Shenandoah out of Gullewa when they decided to try their luck at Bamboo Creek. Perhaps Kath Zuegg's own words best describe what this book is all about... "The 'hard as hell' rock in the Doone beat us in the end. It was not profitable to mine with the machinery and tools available to us ... my aim is to share with you my memories of the wonderful people; the happenings -some bright, some sad, - that took place up north during the eighteen months my husband, Harry, and I spent there." A memoir of bush life in the Depression of the 1930s.

Kingdom of Shylock, The (Revised) by Frank Anstey MP.

ISBN 0 85905 392 X, (2006 reprint), Soft Cover, A4, 112pp, Illustrated, 315g, $30*.

First published in 1917, when it was repressed. This is a reprint of the second edition. Frank Anstey (1865-1940) was a leader of the Labor Party, a committed socialist, supporter of public finance and the Commonwealth Bank, and viewed WWI as "a war of rival capitalists"

Knights of the Boomerang by Herbert Basedow

ISBN 0 85905 247 8, 2004 reprint of 1935 edition, Soft Cover, 120pp, illustrated, 170 grams, $22.00

Episodes from a life spent among the native tribes of Australia. Set mainly in the Northern Territory.

Dr. Basedow was Chief Medical Officer and Protector of Aborigines in the Northern Territory, and later Special Aborigines Commissioner.

Kokoda and Gona - New Guinea 1942 by WX8340 L/Cpl W.F.Cousins 2/16 Bn

ISBN 978-0-85905-489-8, (New 2010), A4, 31pp, 120 grams, $16.50*

Frank Cousens' graphic reminiscences of fighting in New Guinea, with a Foreword by Lt Bill Grayden, also of the 2/16.

Kokoda Lieutenant by William Leonard Grayden

ISBN 978-0-85905-600-7, (New, 2015), 160 x 240, 157 pages, illustrated, 415 grams, $30.00.

Lt Bill Grayden, under Brig. Arnold Potts, led his men in the bitter fighting of Kokoda in 1942. This book, possibly the only one written by one of those who fought, rather than by a distant armchair observer.

Krakatoa in Western Australia. Pseudobitumen by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 414 4, (2007 New, e-published 2006, in the Dollypot, Greenhide and Spindriff column Vol.1 No.7 – 8.), 30 pp, saddle, Soft Cover, A4, 125 grams, $20*

When Krakatoa lifted off, WA rang like a bell and many strange seismic activities were recorded. Pseudobitumen from desert caves has intrigued investigators for over 150 years

L

Lady Bushranger by Pat Studdy-Clift

ISBN 0 85905 223 0, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 240pp, illustrated, 340grams, $30.00

The story of Elizabeth Hickman 'Wild Australian' circus performer, who became the 'Lady Bushranger' in the Blue Mountains, clashing with police until her eventual imprisonment and death in 1936.

Lakewood Woodline, 1937 – 1964, The by Phil Bianchi and Ray Tovey.

ISBN 0 85905 422 5, (2007 New), A4, Soft Cover, 220pp, illustrated, 610 grams, $50.00*

Combined documents, photographs, and reminiscences of those who lived on the Lakewood line. Of great goldfields interest.

Land of Gold, The by Julius M. Price

ISBN 978-0-85905-263-4, (Reprint, 2010), illust., 144pp, 200grams, $22.00

This edition has been re-set and proofed.

Julius M. Price, special artist and correspondent for the Illustrated London News, journeyed through Western Australia in 1895, writing of and sketching the scenes of bush life and goldmining in the Eastern and Murchison goldfields.

Landlords of the Iron Shore by John Slade Durlacher, with an Introduction by Dr Peter Gifford

ISBN 978-0-85905-539-0, (New 2013), 106pp, illustrated, 275g, $25.00

J. S. Durlacher was a Pilbara pastoralist with a great interest in native customs. In 1900 he wrote his reminiscences of these, together with a unique series of sketches. Lost for a century his fascinating descriptions are now available courtesy of the Roebourne Shire and Rio Tinto Iron Ore

Laporte: A history of the Australind titanium dioxide project by Peter O'Shaughnessy

ISBN 978-0-85905-344-0, (2011, New), 207pp, illust., 365grams, $35.00

In 1964 one of the most important industrial projects in the history of Bunbury and indeed the South West of Western Australia, opened its gates, amid a storm of controversy.

Last Outposts, The. From Port of Pearls to Desert Sands. A Flying Doctor in North Western Australia by William Peasley

ISBN 978-0-85905-586-4, (2014, New), A4, SC, illustrated, 3pp colour, 152pp, 450 g, $40.00*

In 1956 Bill Peasley set off overland to WA with his family, a beloved jaguar, and a medical degree.

He started practice in Derby and there commenced an affair with the bush which is still going strong. This book covers his time in the NW and Kimberley, the people and places, incidents both clinical and recreational and is a welcome read for all old hands of the North.

Law Provides, The by E. Morrow

ISBN 0 85905 060 2, (1984 reprint of 1937 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 328pp, illustrated, SC450grams, $30.00

Morrow recounts his Police patrols through the North West Kimberley and the Murchison after World War I, chasing cattle spearkers, killers and tracking lost men. A view of the North recorded by few others.

Laying the Bait by The Dog Stiffener

ISBN 978-0-85905-229-0, (2011), 13pp, 40g, $10.00

Details the use of poison on and by Aborigines in Western Australia

Leaves from a Prospectors Diary by J.E. Tregurtha

ISBN 0 85905 212 5, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 225pp, illustrated, 295grams, $30.00

Reminiscences of prospecting in Western Australia from the 1890s to the 1930s. With Billy Frost, Tregurtha opened up many areas. He recounts his desert expeditions and his time in the Klondyke and New Guinea.

Leeman's Rescue from the Great South Land 1658. by Paul Cozynsen.

ISBN 978-0-85905-896-4, (New 2021), A4, illustrated, 87 pages, 420 grams, $40.00*

The Governor-general and his councillors in Batavia resolved to send the fluit Waeckende Boey and the galjoort Emeloordt, in search of survivors from Vergulde Draeck and the lost eleven crew of Goede Hoop. Captains Samuel Volkersen and Aucke Peieters Jonck, with crews of forty and twenty-five respectively left Batavia on News Years Day, 1658. Leeman had been appointed uppersteersman of Waeckende Boey. The company's orders to Volkersen made it quite clear that the officials were as concerned about obtaining as much information as possible on the South land as that survivors be found and brought back. He was to give special attention to navigation hazards along the coast. He was also to find out all he could about the mainland and its inhabited. Finally, he was ordered to take formal possession of all places, lands and islands.

He was reminded in no uncertain terms, that the company had invested heavily in the expedition and it wanted a careful record kept of all his actions and discoveries in order to obtain due and perfect knowledge of the situation and natural features of this region.

Available direct from the author. Paul Cozynsen 15 Kingsbridge Road, Warnbro, 6169 Cell# 0448653560.

Legal Executions in Western Australia by Brian Purdue

ISBN 1 875778 00 4 Foundation Press, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 85pp, illustrated, 125grams, $22.00

Details of all executions and also those sentenced to death and reprieved.

Legend of the Kimberley – Lawson Holman – Flying Doctor - compiled by Janet Holman Updated and reprinted

ISBN 978-0-85905-562-8, (2004, 2013), 180pp, illustrated, 350 grams, $35.00

Dr Lawson Holman lived in Derby from 1956 until the end of 1970. He related many entertaining stories and interesting incidents which provide intriguing glimpses of characters and life in the Kimberley in those days. These forming the bulk of the book, are woven into the story of his life.

It's a yarn with all the necessary human-interest ingredients – adventure, drama, pathos and tragedy – but, most importantly, it's a collection of wonderful down-to-earth Australian humour which provides a succession of belly-laughs. Reviewer.

Letters from Nigeria by David Carnegie.

*ISBN 0 85905 086 6, (1902, 1992, 2008), A4, 114 pp, Soft Cover, 320 grams, $25.00

Leaving WA after his great expedition, Carnegie went to Nigeria where he was killed by a poisoned arrow while quelling a native rebellion. These are his letters arranged by his sister. Only 100 copies were made of the original edition.

Liberty Call by Ian Johnson

*ISBN 0 85905 289 3, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 364pp heavily illustrated, 625grams, $45.00

The visits of the U.S. Navy to W.A., 1975 to 2002.

Lieutenant Bunbury's Australian Sojourn. The letters and journals of Lt. H.W. Bunbury, 21st Royal North Fusiliers, 1834-1837. edited by JMR Cameron and Phyllis Barnes.

*ISBN 978-85905-551-2, (2014, New), 298pp, illust., case bound, dj, 685 grams, $70.00

Henry William St Pierre Bunbury, after whom the City of Bunbury in Western Australia is named, was a professional soldier, the son and nephew of distinguished professional soldiers. He was just 21 years old when he sailed for the Australian colonies in charge of the military guard on the convict transport Susan. Between his arrival in Sydney in July 1834 and his departure in November 1837, he spent 10 months in New South Wales as aide-de-camp to Governor Bourke, 9 months in Van Diemen's Land, and 21 months in Western Australia.

Life and Adventure in Northern Australia by Thomas Traine

ISBN 0 85905 367 9 (2005 New), 62pp, A4, Perfect bound, illust., 190 grams, $22.00.*

Tom Traine was one of the overlanders from Queensland to the West in the 1880s. His story covers the opening of the Barkley Tablelands, Black Jack Reid, the Ragged Thirteen, aboriginal encounters, running pubs and stations and the first development of Port Hedland

Life on the Goldfields. A retrospect. by Anon

*ISBN 978-0-85905-765-3, (R, 2020), A5, 15 pages, $10.00

A very early reminiscence of the Coolgardie goldfields with detailed descriptive views.

List of Cancelled Gold Mining Leases which have produced Gold (1954) by the Mines Department of WA.

ISBN 0 85905 058 0, (1954, R2008), A4, 275 pp, Soft Cover, 750 grams, $50.00.*

This important list of mining leases, set out by goldfield and district, lists the active years, the tonnage of ore, and the gold produced. It is an essential volume for any prospector in WA. See also our Alphabetical Index of this.

List of Nuggets found in Victoria by E.J. Dunn

*ISBN 0 85905 013 0, (1979 reprint of 1912 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 69pp, illustrated, foolscap, 280grams, $35.00

A compilation of data on 1360 nuggets each weighing over 20 ozs.

Little Boy Lost - Northampton in 1865 by Peter J Bridge

*ISBN 978-0-85905-490-4, (2010, New), 24pp, illust, SC, B5, 50g, $10.00

There is little more heart-breaking for parents than to lose a child, especially one of tender years, in whom love and dreams for the future were the warp and weft of a precious tapestry. Index can be downloaded from website.

Little Wonder gold mine, The by P.J. Bridge

*ISBN 978-0-85905-458-4, (2008), A4, 18 pp, Soft Cover, illustrated, 110 grams, $12.00

The spectacular gold output of this now forgotten show created legends in the 1890s. The ore was carted hundreds of miles by packhorse for treatment. Most of the owners drank themselves to death.

Loaming For Gold by Sam Cash, with a Foreword and biographical notes by Bob Sheppard.

ISBN 0 85905 431 4, (2008 Reprint with new material), Soft Cover, 84pp, illustrated, 150grams. $22.00.

The technique of loaming has found many new gold mines and millions of $ of gold. This book by the 'Prince of Loamers' is an essential handbook for prospectors. It gives the potential for the creation of great wealth

Locked Up In Fremantle 1829-1856. Prisoners and Patients on the Marquis of Anglesea and in the Round House by Steve Errington.

ISBN 978-0-85905-999-2, (New, 2023), 266 pages, 240 x 160, French flap soft cover, 460 grams, $70.00.

This book is a vital addition to both Steve's recent book on the Roundhouse and the earlier collections of the WA Dictionary of Biography series.

Londonderry - The Golden Hole by A. Sprake

ISBN 0 85905 160 9, (1991 New), Hard Cover, 236pp, illustrated, 430grams, $30.00

The full story of the 1890s' share fiasco that shattered London and Western Australia.

Lone Hand, The: Charles Ross and the mountain bandits by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-486-7, 2010 New, A5, 16pp, 40g, $10.00*

Charles Ross was of that great Australian breed, the Overlanders. Arriving on the Ashburton in the early 1890s from the Kimberley and further east, he was a successful prospector.

Longest Fence in the World, The by F. H. Broomhall

ISBN 0-85905-147-1, (1991, 2013), illustrated, 197pp, 350grams, $35.00.

A limited facsimile edition of the 1991 edition.

Frank Broomhall, after serving in Ireland, Mesopotamia, Persia, and India, joined the Rabbit Department in 1926 and spent 14 months as a boundary rider on the Rabbit Proof Fence. After farming and government work he completed a BA on retirement. He had several history books published.

This is the history of the Rabbit Proof Fence and the story of the men who made it and rode it. One of the great stories of the bush in WA.

Loreto by J. Stephenson

ISBN 0 85905 115 3, (1988 New), Soft Cover, 108pp, illustrated, 200grams, $22.00

History of the Loreto School in Perth. Well illustrated. A must for Loreto "old girls".

Lost Flyers, The by WC Charnley

[ISBN 978-0-85905-883-4], (1935, 2021), A4, 20 pages, illustrated, 105 grams. $30.00*

Hans Bertram and Adolf Klauselman were flying from Germany in 1932. They crashed on the northern coast of WA. All was thought lost but when eventually found they had been succoured by the once fierce tribal aboriginals.

Lucky Ross by W.H. Ross

ISBN 0 85905 203 6, (1994 New), Soft Cover, 288pp, illustrated, 360grams, $30.00

John Ross served on the HMAS Sydney and HMAS Canberra. This unique account will become a naval classic.

Ludovic de Beauvoir's visit to Australia translated and edited by John Melville Jones with Nicola Cousen, Steve Mullins, Stefan Petrow and Marie & John Ramsland.

ISBN 978-0-85905-626-7, (2016, New), Published in a edition of 250 copies. 160 x 240, 351pp, Section sewn with dj on soft cover in French flap style with quality paper, illustrated, 850 grams, $50.00*

This publication presents a revised English translation of the first volume (Australie) of an account of a voyage around the world undertaken in 1866 by two young French aristocrats. In Australia they visited Melbourne, Ballarat and Bendigo, and outside Melbourne experienced the life of a squatter at that time. They also visited Hobart, Sydney, Newcastle and Brisbane before sailing north towards South East Asia.

Lure of the North by F. W. Gunning

ISBN 0 85905 396 2, (2007, reprint), Hard Cover, dj, 272pp, illustrated, 720 grams, $75.00*

Lure of the North is the story of George Gooch and the opening up of the Gascoyne.

Long out of print and reaching $600 plus as a rare book, it has been reprinted courtesy of the Gunning and Gooch families. This new facsimile, limited edition, is case bound with a dust jacket

M

Macedonians in Australia, The by Peter Hill

ISBN 0 85905 142 0, (1989 New), Soft Cover, 150pp, illustrated, 220grams, $22.00

A study of a migrant group whose name rings through history. A sympathetic, interesting and very readable account.

Magic Snake, The by Billy Miller Linklater

ISBN 978-0-85905-371-6, (1946 R 2013), 96pp, illustrated, 205g, $26.00*

Billy was the author of Gather No Moss, a NT classic. He wrote of the Territory when it was young. These are his collected legends of the Warramunga tribe among whom he lived and worked for many years. A forgotten classic of the North.

Magnificent Miner - Claude De Bernales, The by Hal Colebatch

ISBN 0 85905 200 1, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 340pp, illustrated, 450grams, $35.00

De Bernales was controversial but in Western Australia his mining activities helped keep the State afloat. His origins, rise, fall and legacy.

Maguire Mystery, The by WC Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-008-1, (2010, R), 22pp, illust, SC, B5, 50g, $10.00*

A stirring story of Northern Australia. Seeking mother-o-

pearl shell and a rich tin deposit, three adventurous young men set out in a small ketch for the lonely Kimberley coast. They had been warned as to the treachery of the wild blacks, and took every precaution against attack. Nevertheless, disaster overtook them. Their lugger was found sailing herself, with blood upon her deck, but despite all the efforts of the police, the exact fate of the luckless trio remains in doubt.

Major the Outlaw by WC Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-003-6, (2010, R), 23pp, illust, SC, B5, 50g, $10.00*

"Major" was a fine type of Australian black-fellow, and might have lived and died as a useful member of society but for the deep-laid vengeance of "a woman scorned." Plotting with Machiavellian cunning, she first induced him to commit murder and then helped the police to hunt him down. Finally, when a bullet had put an end to his ill-starred career, she proceeded, like a dutiful wife, to mourn his loss!

Making Pain Pay. The 'Jail Journal' of J. M. Drew. ed by Andrew Gill.

ISBN 978-0-85905-585-7, (New 2015), Soft Cover, A4, illustrated, 87pages, 255 grams, $25.00*

In 1895, J M Drew, editor of the Geraldton Express was sued for libel by the local medical officer. While the libel trial was in progress, Drew committed a contempt of court and was gaoled for two weeks in the Perth Waterside Lockup. On his return to Geraldton he published his so-called Jail Journal, a record of conversations with the other inmates of the Lockup including two drunks drying out and the colonial hangman. He recorded their memories of the convict era of Western Australia. He took the opportunity to portray himself as a heroic victim of injustice, a principled journalist and a fearless defender of democracy.

Man from Arltunga by R.G. Kimber

ISBN 0 85905 225 7, (1996 reprint of 1986 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 193pp, illustrated, 250grams, $25.00
The biography of Walter Smith (1893-1990), drover, prospector, dogger and bushman, one of the identities of the Northern Territory.

Managing a Million Square Miles by Ron Hutchinson

ISBN 978-0-85905-650-2, (New, 2016), 240 x 160, well illustrated, indexed, 357 pages, 850 grams, $50.00

With a history spanning 187 years, the authority now called Landgate, has seen momentous changes. From the days of survey expeditions, to world-leading innovations in online mapping and the delivery of land information, Ron Hutchinson has given us a fascinating and insightful history of Western Australia's first government department.

Map and Gazetteer of Western Australia prepared by Celene Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-555-0, (2013, R), A3, 17 pages colour map, 33 pages text. 470 grams $50.00*

The 1969 1:2,250,000 map modified with 1:250,000 sheets marked and the gazetteer included.
Some 7000 localities marked. This is the best map available of WA. An essential research tool.

Marrinup: A cage in the bush. No. 16 POW Camp. Kaefig im wald. Una gabbia nella bosaglia. by Ernie Polis.

ISBN 978-0-85905-926-8, (New, 2020), A4, 252 pages, heavily illustrated, indexed, French flap soft cover, 1.1kg $60.00* [Postage for a single book will be $12.75. Express $16.25. Multiple or bulk orders will be quoted for before payment.]

The detailed story of the No 16 POW Camp at Marrinup, near Dwellingup, which held thousands of Italian and German POW during WWII. The full history of the camp from 1943 to 1946 together with much personal detail on both the prisoners and the guards with statistics and anecdotes.

A book such as this is to be welcomed as the camp has remained little known to the wider public. The Harvey civilian internment camp being relatively well known.

One of the many highlights are the photos taken by a German POW on his secret Leica camera. The book is the result of some decades of dedicated work by Ernie Polis, an officer in the Australian Army Reserve and in civilian life a cartographer and ranger. Ernie's parents were Latvian displaced persons after WWII, his background creating a great interest in military history. He is now retired and is president of the Historic and Antique Firearm Research Association.

Massacre! Peter J Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-734-9, (New, 2018), A4, 53pp, illustrated, 170 grams, $30.00*

The brutal shootings and bludgeoning to death of many Aboriginal men, women and children at Laverton in 1910 shocked the nation. It was the culmination of a series of attacks and murders but the trial resulted in the acquittal of the perpetrators.

Massacre at the Golden Mountain, The. edited by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-795-0, (New, 2020), A4, 24 pages, 210 grams, $20.00*

The 1890s goldrush was rocked by the claims of a great massacre on the new frontier. This story details the evidence and the result of the magisterial enquiry.

Mates and Gold by N.K. Sligo

ISBN 0 85905 195 1, (1995 reprint of 1980 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 259pp, illustrated, 340grams, $30.00

The greatest of the Western Australian 1890's gold rush reminiscences and the most popular among prospectors and those with an interest in how it was.

May They Rest in Peace by Jane Hall

ISBN 978-0-85905-550-5, (New 2012), 160x240, 62pp, illust., 130 grams, $22.00*

The old Fremantle Women's Asylum has a colourful history and the stones tell their story but inside the spectral wraiths of the poor demented are still active. Jane Hall has collected the history and the stories of this strange and haunted place. Appropriately it is now an Arts Centre.

McLennans Way: Bush Ballads of Lex McLennan edited by Jean Green and James Fitzgerald

ISBN 0 85905 201 X, (1994 New), Soft Cover, 82pp, 125grams, $22.00

The poetry of one of Australia's best balladists.

Meekatharra - End of the Earth by P.R. Heydon

ISBN 0 85905 196 X, (1994 New), Hard Cover, 438pp, illustrated, 660grams, $40.00

The history of Meekatharra, its people, mines, stations, bushmen, drovers, prospectors, townspeople and more.

Megisti in the Antipodes by John Yiannakis

ISBN 0 85905 218 4, (1996 New), Hard Cover, 276pp. illustrated, 470grams, $40.00

A study of the Castellorizian Greeks in Western Australia.

Memoirs by J. Jobst.

ISBN 978-0-85905-891-9. (New, 2021), A4, French flap soft cover, illustrated, 102 pages, 400 grams, $40.00*

John Jobst was the Catholic Bishop of the Kimberley. We published his memoirs privately in 2000 as an edition of 40. John died in 2014.

His memoirs, both of his experiences in the Kimberley, and especially in his life on the Eastern Front and as a prisoner in the 'American' death camp on the Rhine, are valuable reading.

Memoirs of a Spanish Missionary Monk by Seraphim Sanz de Galdeano OSB MBE OAM CSM

ISBN 0 85905 386 5, (2006 New), Soft Cover, 260pp, illust, 350g, $35.00

Seraphim Sanz de Galdeano was born in Spain in 1913, the eighth of ten children. At eleven years of age he heard Dom Anselm Catalan of New Norcia, Western Australia speak of the need for missionaries to work with the Australian Aborigines in far flung areas of Australia. From that time, young Seraphim decided to dedicate his life to this mission.

Memoirs of Ted Cockram. Teamster, Tailor and Tourism. A life in the NW. Ted Cockram.

ISBN 978-0-85905-703-5, (New, 2018), A4, 220pp, illustrated, 600 grams, $45.00*

Ted's early bush life led to his being one of the major promoters of tourism in the North and the Goldfields, long before the current slick marketing campaigns have made their millions. An important bio of a genuine Westralian.

Memories of the Best Generation or My First 85 Years by Jack Matthews.

ISBN 978-0-85905-556-7, (New, 2013), A4, illustrated, 40pp, 140grams, $22.00*

From early childhood in country South Aus, 1930s depression years to independence on a NSW cattle station at 13 years; back to South Aus and up the Birdsville Track mustering cattle on the Queensland stations. Droving from the Kimberley, through the Territory and down to South East Queensland. Working with natives; some good some bad. The misadventures of Sandy MacIndoe and his death (with my .38cal. revolver). The man with the wheelbarrow who survived the Kimberley but perished between two creeks in the Territory. Dad wounded twice in France; two brothers in World War II, my turn in Korea with 1 & 2 RAR and the battle of the Hook. Sandplain farming in WA, contract fencing on the Nullarbor, trucking up north and my 30 years with Elisabeth.

In later years citizen of the year Victoria Park 1998 and life member of the RSL. Walking the Bibbulmun Track and the Kokoda Trail and taking part in 2001 in the 10th Light Horse re-enactment ride to Albany.

Metamorphosis of a Race - Kuini and Kulari Tribes of Kalumburu Mission by Seraphim Sanz de Galdeano OSB MBE OAM CSM and Dolores Djinmora

ISBN O 85905 376 8, (2006 New), Soft Cover, 152pp, illustrated, 260grams, $30.00

The observations and life of Father Seraphim Sanz, a Benedictine monk, at Kalumburu, an isolated Aboriginal Mission in Australia's Far North West. and the of Aboriginal elder, Dolores Djinmora who worked along side Father Sanz in his Christian endeavours.

Military Establishment and Penal Settlement at King George Sound, 1826-1831, The by John Sweetman

ISBN O 85905 022 X, (1989 New), Soft Cover, 24pp, 40grams, $10.00*

A detailed list of the personnel, military and convicts, who first settled Albany.

Military Establishment in Western Australia, 1829-1863, The by E.S. and C.G.S. Whiteley. edited by Keith Bostock and with a Supplement by Pamela Statham.

ISBN 978-0-85905-403-4, (New, 2010), A4, 113pp, 335g., $30.00*

The Military Establishment includes a general survey of the early military establishment, details of the military posts, an extensive biographical index and statistical data on each regiment.

Millendon Memoir, The George Fletcher Moore's Western Australian Diaries and Letters, 1830-1841 edited with an Introduction by JMR Cameron.

ISBN O 85905 388 1, (2006 New), Hard Cover, 536pp, illustrated, 1020g, $80.00*

This is probably the most important colonial work to be published in WA. There are no other diary or letter sequences of such content from such a central figure in the early colony

Mineral and Locality Index to the Publications of the W.A. Government Chemical Laboratories 1922-1970, by P.J. Bridge

(1971-72 New), Soft Cover, 122pp, 600grams, $50.00* (Direct from Publisher only)

Minerals of Western Australia by E.S. Simpson

ISBN O 85905 053 X, (1984 reprint of 1948-52 editions with new material), Hard Cover, illustrated, 2054pp, 3.5kg, $300.00*

This magnificent three-volume work of over 2,000 pages is the basic reference work on Western Australian minerals and many fortunes have been made by careful study of its contents. Includes Locality – Mineral Index by P.J. Bridge.

Miracle of Fairbridge by Joan Halls

ISBN O 85905 264 8, (1999 New), Soft Cover, 160pp, illustrated, 210grams, $22.00

The story of Fairbridge Farm School and biographies of some of its people.

Misfortunes of Phoebe, The by Rica Erickson

ISBN O 85905 238 9, (1997 New), Soft Cover, 180pp, illustrated, 220grams, $22.00

The author's great grandmother in the Victorian gold rush and the story of her descendants.

Moondyne Joe — the man & the myth by Ian Elliot

ISBN O 85905 244 3, (1998 reprint of 1978 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 148pp, illustrated, 205grams, $22.00

Joseph Bolitho Johns—convict and escapee, bushranger, legend in Western Australia and now a folk hero.

Moondyne Joe poster

The unique photo of Moondyne Joe in kangaroo skin booka, as it appears on the cover of the book, has been produced as a poster, 59.5 x 84 cm. These have a RRP of $10.00. Postage is a problem as they must be rolled in a tube. POA.

More Lonely Graves by Yvonne and Kevin Coate

ISBN O 85905 276 1, (wrongly published 275), (2000 New), Hard Cover, 542pp, illustrated, 1080grams, $85.00*

New lists with death details. Essential for all bush historians.

Mostly Good Times Revisited by Enga & Bernard Smith

ISBN 978-0-85905-671-7, (1986, 2017, R), Soft Cover, 148pp, illustrated, 220 grams, $22.00

Mostly Good Times is about the founding of Towrana sheep station in the North West of Western Australia and of life in an isolated bush community.

It is a lively account of life and living in the Gascoyne – of Walter Smith and Emily Turp who left England about the turn of the century, their meeting and the raising of a family in the Australian bush.

Mother O'Neill - Widow of the Kimberley Goldfield by Yvonne Coate

ISBN 978-0-85905-518-5, (2012, New), Full colour, illustrated, 245 x 160, 135pp, 330 grams, $35.00

Sarah O'Neill was a widow on the Kimberley Goldfield, in the 1880s, the same time as Russian Jack, the famous wheelbarrow man who became legendary throughout the goldfields of WA.

Mount Minnie Mystery, The & A Midnight Melee edited by Peter J Bridge with Gail Dreezens.

ISBN 978-0-85905-425-6, (2008 New), Soft Cover, 36 pages, A4, 125 grams, $22.00*

In late 1925 Moorish horse dealer, Alexander Hughes, and his aboriginal assistant, Sailor, disappeared from Mount Minnie Station near Onslow in the North West of Western Australia.

In 1920 a well-known Nor' Wester, Charles Athelstone Park, was arrested for the murder of Big Bob, an aboriginal drover. The investigation overed territory from the Kimberley to the Upper Gascoyne.

Mountain View Gold - Day Dawn & The Italians who made it Happen by Alex Palmer

ISBN 978-0-85905-514-7, (2012N), illust., 125pp, 240grams, $25.00

A new day dawned for Day Dawn WA, following a rich strike at Mountain View. A group of Italian prospectors at Day Dawn in the 1940s, down to their uppers, defying the advice of experts, persevered for four years before they finally struck it rich.

Moving Mountains - The Evolution of Port Hedland Harbour by Murray Shaw

ISBN 0 85905 389 X, (2007 new), Soft Cover, A4, 98pp, Illustrated in colour, 285grams, $30*

Contains 21 colour and 24 black and white illustrations.

Port Hedland is the biggest tonnage port in Australia. This is its story!

Mulga Fred. From stock camp to sartorial icon and down-and-out again by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-930-5, (New, 2022), A4, 46 pages, well illustrated, 150 grams, $25.00*

Fred, a NW aboriginal became a bush circus horse rider and ended up in Victoria where he was long thought to be the model for Pelaco's "Mine tinkit they fit" shirt advertisements. He was killed by a train in 1948.

"Mum's Grey Hair" by Rod Dickson

ISBN 978-0-85905-584-0, (2014), A4, 198pp, illustrated, 555 grams' $40.00*

Rod Dickson's idiosyncratic memoirs cover his early childhood in the northern suburbs of Melbourne, his years at Tyler St. Primary and Reservoir and Northcote High Schools and after leaving the hallowed halls of learning pursued a 51 year career at sea. On all types of vessels ranging from a crayfishing boat to tugs, oil rig tenders, cargo ships, tankers to finally a 128,000 ton L.N.G. Tanker from which he retired. The title of this autobiography comes from his mother's favourite saying - "Rodney you gave me all my Grey Hairs."

Mungilli : Poor Little Fella by Maureen Herbert.

ISBN 978-0-85905-588-8, (2014, new), Softcover, A4, well illustrated - some colour, 111pp, 325g, $30.00*

Maureen and Trevor Herbert, on a desert expedition with Dr Bill Peasley, found a half starved desert dingo and he adopted them.

This is the story of their times together, enlightened by the correspondence of Mungilli and Dr Bill.

A good read for those interested in desert travel, wildlife, and people.

Murchison in 1887, The. William Frear Forster & Frank Wittenoom.

ISBN 978-0-85905-716-5, (New, 2018), A4, Indexed, 57 pp, 170 grams, $30.00*

The newly created stations in the Upper Murchison became a byword for enterprise and have remained important pastoral properties to the present. A visit by a group of government officials and business people recorded much that was otherwise lost.

Murchison Revisited, The by FCB Vosper

ISBN 978-0-85905-746-2, (R 2019), A4, 78 pages, indexed, 210 grams, $35.00*

The mining journalist and politician wrote of the changes to the Murchison and its mines in 1895, several years after his first experiences there. Interesting comment on the people, mines and institutions of the wider Murchison goldfield.

Murder and Mayhem on the Nullagine. The joys of multiculturalism. by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-897-1, (New, 2021), A4, 38 pages, indexed, 150 grams, $22.00*

Nullagine probably has had more murders per head of population than any other place in Western Australia. The latest openly recorded being that of 'Old Otto' in 1983.

Nullagine, the blistering god-forsaken outpost of a sun-blasted Empire. From its primeval days as the kingdom of the cannibals where untold generations of piccaninnies were immolated for the indigenous epicures, to the gold and diamond rushes that introduced a bit of colour into the mix, raising tempers, and laying a solid foundation for the joys of multiculturalism, Nullagine is celebrated for its blood curdling hotel and the highest ratio of murders per head of population in Australia.

There are no doubt a few more forgotten bodies buried in the outliers of Nullagine such as Mosquito Creek, 20 Mile Sandy Creek, Shark Creek and Skull Springs, but this small collation will serve to give the flavour of the local culture.

Murder at Maylands : Executed under an alias. W.C. Charnley & Peter J. Bridge.

SBN 978-0-85905-670-0, (New, 2017), 22 pages, illustrated, A4, 70 grams, $15.00*

For 90 years the true identity and fate of a murderer has been hidden.

Murder on the Rabbit Proof Fence - The strange story of Snowy Rowles and Arthur Upfield by Terry Walker

ISBN 978-0-85905-857-5, (New Edition 2021), Soft Cover 152pp, illustrated, 210grams, $26.00

Snowy Rowles was hanged on circumstantial evidence for the murders on the lonely Rabbit Proof Fence.

Musgrave Ranges, The by Alan F. Wilson

ISBN 978-0-85905-779-0, (1947 R 2019), A4, 19 pages, illustrated, 100 grams, $20.00*

The story of two journeys by camel, car and foot, with biographical entries on the author

My First Eighty Years. It all turned out for the best son by Trevor Percival

ISBN 978-0-85905-928-2, (New, 2022), A4, 175 pages, illustrated, soft cover, limited print run, grams, $50.00*

The life of a Queensland man of varied experiences grew up in the country town of Wondai in SE Queensland, and spent time as an apprentice electrician, sawmill labourer, postman, navy for nine years, police civilian, prospector, and did fostering for six years.

Available only direct from the author 24 Suffolk Street, Caboolture South, 4510. trevor.p14@bigpond.com

My Fourth Tour in W.A by A. F. Calvert

ISBN 0 85905 033 5, (1989 reprint of 1897 edition), Hard Cover, 400pp, illustrated, quarto, 1.6kg, $95.00*

One of the most magnificent books on the Western Australian goldfields and the bush. Hundreds of photographs and sketches of people and places.

My Life Story by F.W. Bow

ISBN 978-0-85905-533-8, (1954, 2012), A4, 44 pp, illust., 150 grams, $16.50*

Fred Bow was an 1890s prospector who built the Kununalling pub, farmed at Coolgardie, and a pioneer of Esperance.

My Natives and I by Daisy Bates edited by Peter J. Bridge with an introduction by Bob Reece

ISBN 085905 313 X, (2004 New), Soft Cover, 292pp, illustrated, 390grams $35.00

There is in the life of Daisy Bates something of the spirit of service that moved Florence Nightingale, and something of the spirit of sacrifice that filled the heart of Father Damien. She would not put it so, for she has loved her life and made a joy of her labour but it is right that tribute should be paid. She went out to her Aborigines in the first years of this century.

My Steam Days. On the Great Southern Railway of Western Australia 9 March 1959 to 3 November 2007 by Max Francis.

ISBN 978-0-85905-979-4, (New, 2023), A4, very well illustrated, 75 pages, 250 grams, $35.00*

The life of a railway man in the last days of steam.

Only available directly from the author at 3 Weld Street, Northam, 6401. tel 08 9622 5377.

Mystery of the Mayanup Poltergeist, The by Helen Hack

ISBN 0 85905 268 0, (2000 New), Soft Cover, 92pp illustrated, 150grams, $22.00

An examination of a series of mysterious incidents (poltergeists, telekinesis) that occurred in the South West of Western Australia and intrigued the nation.

Mystery of the San Michelle, The by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-773-8, (New, 2020), A4, Illustrated, 40 pages, 140 grams, $25.00*

Details the disappearance of the lugger San Michelle in 1971. The bios of the skipper, Stan Stojanovic and Margaret Maclean give interesting and little known details on the people involved.

N

1942. Escape from the Rising Sun by Allen Metherell

ISBN 978-0-85905- 581-9, (2014, new), Softcover, well illustrated, 206pp, 575 g, $45.00*

Fleeing the Japanese onslaught from Singapore the Metherell family landed in Darwin and boarded an MMA Lockheed 10A Electra, RMA Gascoyne for Broome. The plane crashed in the Leopold ranges, 60 miles from Derby. This is the detailed story of the planes discovery, rescue of the survivors and the repair and the final flight to safety. The unique collection of photographs greatly enhances the book.

90 NOT OUT by Ean Mc Donald

ISBN 978-0-85905-471-3, (2009, New), Soft Cover, A4, 172pp, 485 grams, $30.00*

Living in the nineteen twenties – Car crossing the continent in 1932 – Surmounting Depression woes – Surprising gold discovery – Adventurous youth, Sailor, Student, Prospector, Architect, Councillor, Actor, Artist, Dancer, Writer, Humorist, Dilettante, Traveller, Navigator, Master Mariner, Political observer, Business man, Bankrupt, unflappable, Survivor, Inventor, Community man, Lecturer, Speaker. Is this one man?

Nannine by the Lake by P.R. Heydon

ISBN 0 85905 137 4, (1990 New), Soft Cover, 260pp, illustrated, 350grams, $30.00

The first township on the Murchison Goldfields. The finding of gold, controversy surrounding its discoverers and the life of the people and characters of the town.

Nannup, A Place To Stop And Rest by Len Talbot

ISBN 0 85905 316 4(2003 New), Soft Cover, A4, 201pp, illustrated, 570grams, $40.00*

The history of Nannup and its people. A new edition of this sought after history which had quickly sold out. Details on web site.

Narrative of an Expedition of Exploration in North-Western Australia by Herbert Basedow with an introduction by David Kaus.

ISBN 978-0-85905-453-9, (2009 R+N 1918), 259pp, illust., Hard Cover, dj, 635g, $80.00*

In 1916 scientist and explorer, Dr Herbert Basedow, was requested by the Government to examine a remote Kimberley prospect for the strategic tungsten mineral, scheelite.

Neergabby by Bill de Burgh

ISBN 0 85905 324 5, (2003 Reprint), Soft Cover, 227pp, illustrated, 330grams, $25.00

The history of Gingin, the area surrounding and its people. Available direct from Gingin Shire

New Gold in Old Country and other Great Finds of the Goldfields by John Drayton. Prepared by Peter J Bridge, Angela Teague and Rina Ashcroft.

ISBN 978-0-85905-561-1, (2014), Soft cover, A4, indexed, 136pp, 390g, $30.00*

Contains 69 real stories of the gold rushes. The finish of Billy Frost, Never trust a nigger, Is there gold in the desert?, Sam Hazlett's spearpoint, The lost Yellowstone field, and, New gold on an old find.

Nine Days Entombed. The story of a fight for life by C.A. Jenkins

ISBN 978-085905-936-4, (R 2022), A4, 12 pages, illustrated, 80 grams, $22.00*

The real story of the Bonnievale disaster without the multicult promo that has obscured the truth and the real heroes of the mine rescue.

No Winners: The British Seamen's Strike of 1925 by Peter Gifford

ISBN 0 85905 355 5, (2005 New), Soft Cover, A4, 71pp, 210grams, $22.00*

This is a study of the world's first transnational strike, by more than 10,000 British seamen in their home ports, along with South Africa and Australasia.

Nor'Westers of the Pilbara Breed by Jenny Hardie

ISBN 0 85905 296 6, (2001 reprint of 1988 edition), Soft Cover, 416pp, ~1kg, $55.00*

An illustrated history of the North West of Western Australia. A reprint of a pioneering classic.

North Coolgardie Herald, The. Special mining number. A comprehensive survey of the North Coolgardie and Mount Margaret Goldfields.

[ISBN 978-0-85905-846-9], (1901, 2021), A4, 185 pages, heavily illustrated, indexed, 550 grams, $50.00*.

Exceptionally rare in the original A3 newspaper size. This reformatted edition is an essential volume for all prospectors, corporates, historians and tourists in the goldfields. Few such publications came out in the long gone boom periods and never in the degenerate free-for-all of today.

This book was published without any input from shire, company or state coffers. Nevertheless it outshines any literary eruptions from those structures.

Northern Patrol by R.A. Pilmer

ISBN 0 85905 220 6, (1998 New), Soft Cover, 180pp, illustrated, 250grams, $25.00

Experiences of a mounted policeman in the Western Australian outback in the 1890s and early 1900s. Accounts of native murders, horse stealing, gold rushes, the outlaw Pidgeon, Canning Stock Route, Wiluna, Kimberley, and more.

Northmost Australia by R. Logan Jack

ISBN 0 85905 222 2, (1998 Reprint of 1921-22 edition), Hard Cover, 900+pp, illustrated, Two Volumes plus Set of Maps, 2150grams, $190.00*

The classic history of Cape York Peninsula.

Nor' West O' West. Tales of Old Onslow. Herbert E. Riemann.

ISBN 978-0-85905-728-8, (2018, R + New, 2018), 160 x 240mm, illustrated, 182 pp, 450 grams, $40.00.

Short stories of Onslow and the Ashburton set in the early 1900s. Riemann was judged the best short story writer in Australia in the 1950s. These are some of his best, set in the Old North of pearlers, prospectors, police and pastoralists.

Nor'West of West by James Thomson

ISBN 978-0-85905-541-3, (1908, 2012), 160x240, 200 pp, illust., 475 grams, $40.00*

A brilliant overview of the great North as it was being opened and developed a century ago. An essential but very rare reference book on the north now reprinted.

Nor'West of West. James Thomson. Index by Peter J. Bridge & Gail Dreezens

ISBN 978-0-85905-903-9, (2021), A5, 9 pages, 25 grams, $10.00*

Notes & Anecdotes of the Aborigines of Australia: Observations in Western Australia during 1841 to 1853 by

Philip Chauncey, J.P., Surveyor

ISBN 978-0-85905-863-6, (1878 R 2021), A4, illustrated, 72 pages, 220 grams, $35.00*

Chauncey was based mainly at Albany and this information has rarely been accessed by local researchers being an appendix on a major and large book on Victorian natives, published in 1878.

Contains portraits of the locals and much information

Notes of Savage Life in the Early Days of West Australian Settlement. Walter E. Roth – the reminiscences of Robert Austin Surveyor.

ISBN 978-085905-909-1, (1902, R, 2021), A4, 23 pages, illustrated, 95 grams, $22.00*

On the natives of the SW of WA.

Nulla. Albert "Nulla" Thompson, Drover and Horseman by Lorraine Rieck.

ISBN 978-0-85905-944-2, (New, 2022), A4, 53 pages, illustrated, 180 grams, $30.00*

The biography of Nulla by his daughter. He grew up in Meekatharra and became a well-known drover and horseman, despite having a bung leg from a childhood accident.

Nurses with Altitude by RFDS staff

ISBN 978-0-85905-441-6, Soft cover, section sewn, 264 pages, 355 grams, $35.00.

Stories by the nurses and their colleagues at the Royal Flying Doctor Service in Western Australia. Compiled by Gaye Richardson in conjunction with the Flight Nurse Reunion Committee. Probably the best book on the RFDS, written by the staff from their own experiences.

O

Odyssey of a Digger, The by F.D. Burdett

ISBN 0 85905 334 2, (2004 reprint of 1936 edition), Soft Cover, 170pp 220grams, $30.00

Fred Burdett was one of the earliest diggers at the Kimberley goldrush of the 1880s. His reminiscences cover pastoral life in NSW and the men and incidents of the early Kimberley

Okinawans Reaching Australia by John Lamb

ISBN 978-0-85905-747-9, (New, 2019), A4, 142 pp, heavily illustrated, indexed, 400 grams, $40.00*

This publication fills a large gap in research into aspects of the pearl-shell fishing industry and Japanese immigration to Australia in general. Through careful research, and with over 200 photographs, John provides a comprehensive record of all Okinawans known to have ever reached Australia up until the early 1960s. He fleshes out how and why Okinawans came to be chosen over mainland Japanese in the post-war period and challenges some of the misconceptions that have arisen around their role and performance.

Old Coach Roads to Cue and Beyond, The by Alex Palmer

ISBN 0 85905 183 8, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 103pp, illustrated, 175grams, $22.00

The story of the tracks to the Murchison Goldfields and the people who made and lived at the wayside coach stations.

Old North Road, The by W. de Burgh

ISBN 0 85905 272 9, (2002 reprint of 1986 edition), Soft Cover, 198pp, $26.00

Originally the only land route between Perth and Geraldton. This fascinating history covers drovers, bush postmen, mining, pioneers and much more.

Old Sixteenth, The by Cyril Longmore

ISBN 0 85905 409 8, (1929 reprint 2007), Hard Cover, 286 pp, illust, 695 grams, $85.00*

The unit history of the mainly West Australian 16th Battalion during WWI, with fold out plates and nominal list.

Old Time Memories and Adventures by Charles Edward Gaunt

ISBN 978-0-85905-643-4, (1930s R 2016), A4, indexed, 148 pages, 410 grams, $35.00*

Charlie Gaunt arrived in the Northern Territory in 1878 as a young teenager. His adventurous life there and in NQ is detailed with many bloody meetings with the tribesmen. Pearlring, prospecting, soldiering, tall ships, dog musher, hobo, ranch manager, customs officer were some of the occupations of an adventurous life in the Boer War, Alaska, Nevada & USA generally, Mexico, China, Trinidad, British Guiana, Burma., etc. He died in Brisbane in 1938.

On Australia's Rim ed by W.J. de Burgh

ISBN 0 85905 361 X, (2006 New), Soft Cover, A4, 142pp 400 grams, $30.00*

Jean Christopher de Lancourt, an enigmatic "French" traveller, raconteur, and soldier, wrote of his experiences while walking around Australia for a wager. Bill de Burgh has collected and annotated the articles commissioned by his uncle at The West Australian. Accused of being a bludger, rogue and spy, in language today reserved for erring historians, he eventually fell out with his companion in N Q. This resulted in some surprising revelations. It is still not known who he really was, or what was his eventual fate. De Lancourt is one of those many mystery characters of the bush. Included are his Arnhem Land Aboriginal legends.

On Gold! edited by P.J. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 116 1, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 128pp, illustrated, 175grams, $22.00

A collection of prospectors' and miners' stories with magnificent photographs of mining life now long past.

On the Aborigines of Australia by Augustus Oldfield, with introduction by H. Henderson

ISBN 0 85905 359 8 (1861+2006 new) Hardcover, 132pp, 290 grams, $55.00* A limited casebound numbered edition of 250 copies. Soft Cover $30.00*

Oldfield was a botanical collector with a great interest in Aborigines. This 1864 work with an extensive introduction by H.H. is virtually unknown to anthropologists and is not known in most libraries. It describes the natives of the Port Gregory area at the mouth of the Murchison River in a detail that few others aspired to until the 1890s. Graphic descriptions of customs and incidents of life (and death).

On the Natives of Central and Western Australia by John Forrest

ISBN 978-0-85905-901-5, (1876, R, 2021), A5, 8 pages, 30 grams, $10.00*

On the Swan; a History of the Swan District, Western Australia by Michael J. Bourke

ISBN 978-0-85905-893-3. (1987,R, 2021), 180 x 245, French flaps, Section sewn, heavily illustrated B&W & colour, 385 pages, 1.2kg, $75.00*

One of the best local histories published in WA and a beautiful book. A new edition with some upgrading. Essential reading.

One Life's Journey by Edward Holthouse

ISBN 0 85905 107 2, (1987 New), Hard Cover, 161pp, illustrated, 450grams, $33.00

Holthouse's autobiography and the history of Muccan Station, in the Pilbara of Western Australia.

One Man's Gold by H Cooper

978-0-85905-451-5, (1934), A4, 49pp Soft Cover, 165 grams, $22.00*.

Footloose in the years after WW1 Cooper sets out to find a gold mine of his own in the Eastern Goldfields. How he succeeded in the middle of the Great Depression.

Ontology of book burning, The. Burnt, shredded, pulped, censored, suppressed, stolen and destroyed books, documents and artefacts in Western Australia by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-476-8, (2009), 17pp, A4, 90 grams, $10.00*

The subtitle says it all without the adjectives! Details of the criminal rorts by the 'keepers' of our records and heritage. A wave of these lowlifes has flooded our institutions and destroyed much of the records. Without knowledge of the past one cannot understand the present, or plan the future.

Dedicated to Prof Leslie R Marchant, 1924 – 2004. A doughty fighter for the integrity of historical archives.

Opals and Agates. The McNamara's gem hunting in the West by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-920-0, (New, 2022), A4, 16 pages, illustrated. 130 grams, $22.00*

Jack McNamara and his cousin prospected some beautiful gem deposits in the 1960s. This is the story of them and that of Jack's son, Max, an long time associate and now a rare book dealer in Perth.

Our Western Australian Home. Being Sketches of Scenery and Society in the Colony by George J. Webb, Esq., D.A.C.G. (edited and annotated by Geoff Blackburn, Steve Errington and Peter J. Bridge)

ISBN 978-0-85905-636-6, (New, 2016), A4, 44pages, 150 grams, $22

George Webb lived in Perth from April 1839 until January 1848, working in the commissariat building (where the Supreme Court now stands), and progressing from Assistant Clerk to D.A.C.G (Deputy Assistant Commissary General) by December 1845. He was a 'young man about town', organising Assembly balls and Foundation Day regattas, singing at St Patrick's Day dinners and taking part in Perth's first amateur theatricals.

To enlighten his family and friends back home about life at Swan River he wrote lengthy 'sketches' including descriptions of Perth and its lifestyle plus reports of visiting the Aboriginal prison on Rottnest Island, fighting a bushfire on Mount Eliza, visiting the caves at Yanchep, and sitting in at a session of the Legislative Council. He also included a description of seasonal changes at Lake Monger and a lengthy portrait of an Aboriginal youth called Warrup, his manservant.

The sketches were published in 1847, in monthly issues of the London newspaper the Swan River News, providing us with a snapshot of life in Perth around 1841-43.

Out and About with Tommy and Me by C. Fitzgerald Fraser

ISBN 978-0-85905-256-6, (R2008), A4, 82 pp, Soft Cover, 240 grams, $22.00*.

Fraser loved the bush. Leaving his farm he reported on the new places of the wheat belt to as far north as Geraldton and on the bush areas to the north of Southern Cross, in the years before and after WW1.

Outback Trail, The by Gus Luck

ISBN 0 85905 081 5, (1988 New), Hard and Soft Cover, 155pp, illustrated, 315grams, Hard Cover $30.00, Soft Cover $22.00

Luck was one of Western Australia's most experienced bushmen when he passed on his bush skills to David Carnegie, who later wrote the classic Spinifex and Sand. Luck writes of his life and experiences in the bush, camels, natives, prospecting, people, and more, in a fascinating story of the 1880s to 1930s.

Over the Hills. A History of York 1834 – 1880 by Roger Jennings

ISBN 978-85905-712-7, (New, 2020), 160 x 240mm, 360pp, French flap cover, 840 grams, $72.00* + POST $12.45.

A detailed history of York in its first 50 years. An important book of the first inland settlement.

Overlanders – Crossing the Nullarbor, 1870s – 1970s, The by Peter J Bridge with Ian Murray

ISBN 978-0-85905-496-6, 2011, illust., indexed, A4, 313pp, 850grams, $55.00*

This collection contains all the pre WWII material on Nullarbor crossings that could be found. The emphasis is on those who travelled by boot, bicycle, camel, horse, wheelbarrow, covered wagon, and early cars and motorbikes. It covers a century in time, but is not a history of the Nullarbor, which is yet to come.

Over the Plates edited by Peter J. Bridge and Graeme Blake

Each 45-53 pages, A4, ~170 grams each. Total weight 6 vols = 1kg, $25.00 each volume.

Panning Off. ISBN 978-0-85905-700-4., Weight Chasing. ISBN 978-0-85905-699-1., The Ore Bin. ISBN 978-0-85905-696-0., Retorted Gold. ISBN 978-0-85905-695-3., In the Sands. ISBN 978-0-85905-698-4., The Old State Battery. ISBN 978-0-85905-697-7.

Six volumes of the best true stories and reminiscences of the early goldfields from the 1890s to the 1930s.

P

Packhorse and Waterhole by Gordon Buchanan

ISBN 0 85905 237 0, (1984 reprint of 1933 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 130pp, 180grams, $22.00

The classic of Northern Territory pastoral exploration. Bluey Buchanan, old "Paraway", was one of Australia's greatest bushmen. His life story is told by his son who went with him on his later expeditions.

Paddy Baker – Picture Show Man by Max D. Bell

ISBN 978-0-85905-093-7, (2011 new), 53pp, A4, illustrated, 180grams, $22.00*

Paddy Baker (1898-1988) was born in Yundamindra on the north-eastern goldfields of W.A. As a boy he became an assistant projectionist to a travelling picture man in Sandstone, and his love of films and their showing never left him.

Paddy the Flat: The life of Patrick Leahey Australian hero, prospector, publican, and fighter for Digger rights.

Collected and edited by Peter J Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-065-4, 2010 new, A4, 29pp, illust., 120g, $22.00*

Paddy was one of the great Australian characters of the late 19C. Born in Ireland in 1819, British Army in the Kaffir Wars, then to Victoria, Bendigo, Eureka Stockade, Lambing Flat, north Queensland, Kimberley, and then to the Murchison.

Padre Plod by Barry May

ISBN 0 85905 424 1 (New 2007), Soft Cover, 265 pages, 355 grams, $30.00

During his many years as Western Australia's first full-time Police Chaplain, Father Barry May often attended scenes of great trauma and witnessed heart-breaking tragedy, he encountered things that would test anyone's faith. Yet it was his own unflinching faith in God the Creator that sustained him in his grim responsibilities

Pansy's Shanty, by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-793-6, (New, 2020), A4, illustrated, 48 pages, 160 grams, $25.00*

On a vibrant sly grog seller and demi monde of Laverton. She cut a swathe through the underworld of the early goldfields and her customers sometimes died violently. Pansy died destitute, after seeing the light internally, from a box of wax match heads.

Pastoral Pioneers of W.A. 1884-1889 by E.T. Hooley

ISBN 0 85905 331 8, (2004 New), Soft Cover, A4, 72pp, 210grams, $22.00*

Hooley, writing under the name of 'Bucolic' described many pastoral properties from the Kimberley to the Southwest.

Patrick C. Hughes. Pioneer prospector and political philosopher by Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-870-4, (N, 2021), A4, illustrated, 38 pages, 170 grams, $30.00*

Pat Hughes was a great beacon to prospectors in the 1890s, having near perished in the scrub, and though he did not make a great strike, his selflessness in the Alluvial Rights Riots of 1898 made him a true exemplar of Kipling's If.

Paynes Find by Alex Palmer.

ISBN 978-0-85905-467-6, (2010), 115pp, illust., 170g, $22.00

New edition updated to 2001, with 11 more pages.

Paynes Find, 400 kilometres north of Perth, is one of Western Australia's most isolated towns and to most people represents nothing more than a fleeting change in the scenery when travelling the Great Northern Highway.

Pearling Days The pearling voyage of the Sarah to the North West and Kimberley in 1889 and 1881, with an appendix on the death of WH Lowe during an expedition NE of the Gascoyne in late 1881 by John Brockman

ISBN 978-0-85905-488-1, (2010, New), A4, 270g, 89pp, $30.00*

From John Brockman's 1912 manuscript. With a Foreword by Mike McCarthy of the Maritime Museum, and edited by Peter J Bridge.

Pearls and Pearling Life by EW Streeter

ISBN 0 85905 255 9, (1886 reprint 2007), Hard Cover, 340 pp, illust., 835 grams, $116.00*

The pearling classic, impossible to obtain. With tipped in colour plates and map. A study of pearls and pearling regions of the world. Early WA pearling

Peculiar Habits and Customs of the Aborigines of Western Australia by Alexander Milne Robertson and Peter J Bridge.

*[ISBN 978-0-85905-881-0], (1879, 2021), A4, 42 pages, illustrated, 160 grams, $30.00

A.M. Robertson, the Prison doctor for Fremantle and Rottneest wrote of the sub-incision (whistlecocking) of the natives at Rottneest. A unique mutilation, it has been the subject of interest to many over the years. This is his original published report and thesis on the subject. An appendix queries the origin of the rite and posits the introduction by Arab sailors at an unknown time. Also the story of the stolen or destroyed illustrated copy from the State Library of WA.

Perched on the Rails by Bruce Paterson

ISBN 0 85905 187 0, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 166pp, illustrated, 225grams, $22.00

An essentially-Australian autobiography of a pastoralist and his station life in three States. Set mainly in the North West of Australia. A great read in laconic style.

Perils of Pearling, its pleasures and profits. Broome in 1910, The. Charles "Vagrant" Collins

*ISBN 978-0-85905-736-3, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, indexed, 32pp, 100 grams, $22.00

An incisive examination of Broome in its heyday.

Peterwangy. Western Australia's First Goldrush. by P J Bridge and Gail Dreezens.

*ISBN 978 0 85905 457 7, (2008), A4, 106pp, Soft Cover, 300 grams, $30.00

The 1870 rush to the Irwin River near Geraldton and the details of its discoverer George Brelford, with notes on barisal guns, diamonds and gold at Mingenew.

Pharmacy Apprenticeship Education in Western Australia by Bruce Sutherland

*ISBN 978-0-85905-828-5, (New, 2020), 160 x 240, illustrated, 80 pages, 230 grams, $30.00

This book describes the background to the commencement of pharmacy and its statutory recognition in Western Australia. It particularly focusses on the history of pharmacy education. This was a special arrangement which commenced in 1903 between the pharmacy profession and Perth Technical College. Pharmacy education was embodied within the Department of Chemistry at Perth Technical College. It traces the factors that influenced the nature of the education and responsibility for the practitioners that qualified from the only course available to the public in Western Australia. The role of apprenticeship education is debated and how it affected pharmacy education in Western Australia, until the course closure in 1968.

It is essential reading for all involved in both higher education in Australia, and specifically those who have trained in Pharmacy.

Photographs from the Frontier. Kimberley 1910-1911. by the Swedish Scientific Expedition, edited Kim Akerman.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-661-8, (2017, New), 240 x 165, French flaps, 163pp, 450 grams, $55.00

153 B&W photos taken on the expedition, of Aborigines, landscapes, settlers, expedition members.

Never before released photos of the Mjoberg expedition and an important collection that will create interest in camps on both sides of the creek.

Pigeon by WC Charnley

*ISBN 978-0-85905- 006-7, (2010, R), 31pp, illust, SC, B5, 60g, $10.00

This narrative describes the hectic career of an Australian aboriginal who first learned all that the whites could teach him, and then turned against them. Placing himself at the head of a gang of "cattle-killers," he waged pitiless war on man and beast alike, and for over three years defied all efforts to capture him. Nemesis overtook him at last, but the cattlemen breathed a sigh of relief when the scourge of ranges was laid low.

Pilbara Bushman – The Life Experience of W. Dunn by Graham J. Wilson

ISBN 0 85905 310 5, (2002 update of 1989 edition), Soft Cover, 95pp, illustrated, 300grams, $22.00

An intriguing story of part-Aboriginal pastoralist Billy Dunn. While working with Pilbara pioneers Dunn was encouraged to learn and to achieve. He graduated to managing stock stations and achieved ownership of his own station.

Pilchowski's Crossing. The triple murder of Richard Pilchowski. by Peter J. Bridge

*ISBN 978-0-85905-770-7 (2020 New), A4, 41pp, 150 grams, $30.00

The savage shovel nosed spearing of a sleeping man at Wyndham in 1913 has led to the murder being justified by vested interests. The true story is now revealed together with the stupidity and cupidity of the detractors.

Pioneer Father - Pioneer Son - York to the Gascoyne with the Collins family by Bonnie Milne

*ISBN 978-0-85905-071-5, (2010, new), A4, illust., 136pp, 380g, $30.00

Charles Collins was born at Worth in Sussex, England on the 4th December 1825. He came to the colony of Western Australia on the Simon Taylor in 1842, as an indentured labourer. Four days after landing in Fremantle, he walked up the rugged Green Mount into the Avon district to work as a shepherd and there he lived the rest of his life.

Pioneering in the Kimberleys by Hamlet Cornish

*ISBN 978-0-85905-027-2, (2011 new), 29pp, A4, illustrated, 120grams, 16.50

Hamlet and Anthony Cornish of Pinjarra were part of the Murray Squatting Company, a syndicate formed to take up land in the Kimberley after the explorations of Alexander Forrest.

Pioneering Ningaloo Fishing and the Early History of Coral Bay by Don Heather

*ISBN 978-0-85905-860-5, (New, 2021), A4, Illustrated colour, 48pp, 160 grams, $30.00

The interesting background to the origins of several of the favourite holiday destinations of WA. Don Heather pioneered the sport and commercial fishing at Ningaloo, Coral Bay and Exmouth.

The history hidden behind the glitz of tourism operators is an entertaining read.

Pioneers of NorWest - Pastoral and Pearling by Lockier Clere Burger

*ISBN 978-0-85905-438-6, (2008 reprint 1911), Soft Cover, A$, saddle stitched, 28pp, 120grams, $16.50

The author was an early pioneer of the NW and wrote thee reminiscences in 1911. The original copies are extremely rare

Pioneers of the Forensic Division of the Western Australian Police Force by John Horton

*ISBN 978-0-85905-839-1, (2020), A4, 53 pages, heavily illustrated, 190 grams, $35.00

Covers the development of all aspects of forensic work and the men who pioneered the techniques.

Pirates of the Ethel, The by George Stacy, William Charnley, Peter J. Bridge
*ISBN 978-0-85905-627-4, (2016, New), A4, illustrated, 31pp, 130grams, $16.50

In 1898 a pearler of Broome hired cheap foreign labour in Singapore. They promptly gutted him and his crew. Later the WA Police tracked them to Macassar and they were extradited and hung at Fremantle Prison. This is to be part of a series on piracy and the joys of multiculturalism

Police and other People by Mick Liddelow
*ISBN 978-0-85905-157-6, (2011), A4, 146pp, illust., 420grams, $30.00

With a Foreword by Police Historian, Peter Conole. Vincent Wallace Liddelow, 1903-1982, joined the Police in 1925 as No. 1512. He was first attached to Central Police, then Fremantle and the Water Police.

Pompey's Story. A Man for His Time by Nerina Coopes
*ISBN 978-0-85905-611-3, (New, 2015), A4, 126 pages, illustrated, 380 grams, $35.00

'Pompey' Gull was a master pearler from his youth. His independent life led to the 10th Light Horse and the Imperial Camel Corps in WWI, fighting with such as Lawrence and at Damascus in the Great Ride where he earned the Military Cross for clearing machine gun nests. Postwar he helped quell Egyptian rioting and in 1920 was instrumental in controlling the hordes of Japanese and Koepanger race riots at Broome. A great story of a type of Australian now rarely seen.

Poona W.A. and the seekers of its emeralds by Alex Palmer
ISBN 978-0-85905-465-2, (2010 RN), 146pp, illust, Soft Cover, 200g, $26.00

Ever since the discovery of emeralds in 1912 by Harry Ryan, Poona and its emeralds has exercised the imagination of prospectors, miners, and collectors. The brilliant green emeralds in the black green biotite schist have fascinated everyone from princes to prospectors.

Potjostler. The life of William Carr Boyd. Explorer, Prospector, and Raconteur by Peter J Bridge, Ian Elliot, Ian Murray, and Gail Dreezens
*ISBN 978-0-85905-854-4, (2021), A4, french flaps, illustrated, 453 pages, 1.3kg, $80.00

A documentary biography and history of one of Australia's most interesting and amusing explorers and bushmen (1852-1925).

Published jointly with the Laverton Shire and under the aegis of the Western Australian Explorers' Diaries Project as an ancillary volume. Laverton Great Beyond shop. HP for mail order.

Price of a Pearl, The by Rod Dickson
ISBN 0 85905 297 4, Soft Cover 204pp, 270grams, $30.00.

The hardships of men in the pearling industry in the northwest of Western Australia. Many of these men were never to see their homelands again and were buried in lonely, mostly unmarked graves, scattered along the vast distances of the northwest coast or consigned to the depths of the sea. Divers, tenders, crew members, shellopeners, skippers and owners all paid the ultimate price through carelessness, wild nature, storms and cyclones. More than a thousand deaths with hundreds of luggers, schooners and ketches wrecked, all for the price of a pearl."

Prisoners of the Past. Compiled by Calliope Bridge, Celene Bridge, Angela Teague, Mark Chambers & Tom Hogarth.
*ISBN978-0-85905-657-1, (New, 2017), A4, fully illustrated and indexed, 329 pages, 900 grams, $60.00

All the mugshots of prisoners released from Fremantle Gaol from 1899 to 1919, over 3850, and fully indexed. A unique picture of the past showing the features of those who had transgressed. Interestingly, non-Europeans, apart from the obligatory Aboriginals, form a far larger proportion of the prisoners than their kind would represent as a percentage of the whole population. That certain elements do not obviously appear to be represented should not be taken as any indication of their lack of criminality. It may be that they were imprisoned for longer terms for more serious crimes and so do not appear in among the more general riff-raff with the frequency that might expected by their general behaviour. Early feminists are there in their glory, proclaiming their equal rights to criminality. (The publisher's great aunt among them).

Producer Gas Plants. Hoskins Foundry.
*ISBN 978-0-85905-664-9, (New, 2017), 55 pages, illustrated, A4, 150 grams, $25.00

Reprint of ultra-rare catalogue of industrial downdraft gas producers from over a century ago.

Prospecting Memories of Alan Payne and Mates. by Alan Payne
*ISBN 978-0-85905-784-4, (New, 2020), A4, illustrated, 87 pages, 410 grams, $35.00

The results and adventures of 40 years of detector prospecting statewide.

Available direct from the author: alan.payne@optusnet.com.au

Prospecting Poultry. Land of Forests, Fleas and Flies. Jack Sorenson and his Lost Verse by Peter J. Bridge with Gail Dreezens

*ISBN 0 85905 411 X, (2007 New, e-published 2006, in the Dollypot, Greenhide and Spindrift column Vol.1, Nos. 1-3.), 34 pp, saddle, Soft Cover, A4, 135 gram $20.00

The habit of chooks to eat bright gold grains led to some interesting incidents on the fields. The development and effect of a catchy doggerel verse that has had wide echoes. A collection to add to our Ghosts of Bayley Street

Pump, The by Marshall Walker
*ISBN 0 85905 323 7, (2003 New), Soft Cover, A4, 40pp, illustrated, 130g, $16.50

Life on No 7 Pumping Station on the goldfields' pipeline in the early 1950s.

Q

Queensland Aborigines, The by W. E. Roth
*ISBN 0 85905 045 9, (1984 reprint of 1897-1910 edition with new material), Hard Cover, Three Volumes, 873pp, illustrated, 2.8kg, $200

Some of the most significant ethnographic material ever published on the Australian Aborigines. Over 1,500 photographs, line drawings and maps in three magnificent volumes. This is essential for all interested in Aboriginal culture.

R

Ramblings of a Ratbag by Colin Doig

ISBN 978-0-85905-705-0, (New 2018), A4, 142 pages, 410 grams, $40.00*

The autobiography of the author of History of the 2nd Independent Company & 2/2 Commando Squadron (available from Hesperian Press). Initially privately circulated, this autobiog is a great story of unconventional life and is of course politically incorrect, as any book worth reading must be. From childhood through the Great Depression, to a boxing troupe, con merchants, farming, the army and the only units undefeated by the Jap hurricane.

Ramillies. Tales of Western Australia's Convicts. Volume 1. The story of 277 convicts who arrived at the Swan Colony in 1854. Researched and compiled by Glennis Sewell.

ISBN 978-0-86905-914-5, (New, 2021), A4, 228 pages, 650 grams, $50.00*

This is certainly one of the most important books on WA convicts published. Covering some 132 convict biographies in detail it is a great advance in genealogical research.

The second volume will follow in early March. My Foreword is included in this blurb (see Website) as it shows the background to such a work.

Ramilles II Convict Transport Ship 1854.

ISBN 978-0-85905-916-9, (New, 2022), A4, 195 pages, 550 grams $50.00*

The second of two vols on this important contribution to convict studies and genealogy in WA. Biographical details of all the convicts.

Rebel of Glenmalure, The by George Cargeeg

ISBN 0 85905 126 9, (1988 New), Soft Cover, 118pp, illustrated, 350grams, $22.00

Michael Dwyer, patriot, his life in Ireland and Australia, his trial and exile. Charged with Rebellion he was sent to Norfolk Island until his release to his farm in New South Wales where he died in 1825.

Recollections From The Coast – Remember old North Beach, Trigg, Watermans Bay and Marmion by Chris Holyday

ISBN 978-0-85905-956-5, (New, 2022), A4, 148 pages, heavily illustrated, 620 grams, $40.00*

Chris Holyday has completed a follow up book to Between Beach and Bush. Contains all new content and never seen before photos and stories supplied by pioneer families of the north coast. The Hamersleys, the Watermans, the Mettams, the Newlands, the Riley family and others have opened up their family albums to tell their stories.

The many changes we have seen, in over 300 priceless photos over 23 chapters and 140 pages, are in this new book, along with early houses and shops histories, fishing shacks history and early Scarborough/Trigg surfing history from the 1950s. $10.00 postage.

Red Dust in the Blood by Antony Spring

ISBN 978-0-85905-706-6, (New 2018), A4, 291 pages, illustrated, colour, 800 grams, $60.00*

Available direct from the author A.L. Spring, antonyspring@yahoo.com.au

The story of the Spring family of Metters fame and the history of Roy Hill Station. Covers all the people, incidents and development up to the sale of the station to the Kennedys in 1972. An important record of the Pilbara.

Reminiscences of by-gone Menzies by the Old Fossicker & On the Northern Fields by Henry Harris.

ISBN 978 0 85905 455 3, (1907-8, 1935-6, R2009), Soft Cover, A4, 66pp, illust., 210 grams, $25.00*

The early history of Menzies and other centres of the North Coolgardie Goldfield.

Return to Majaddin – A Kimberley Homecoming. by Eddie Bear & Robert Hoskin.

ISBN 978-0-85905-674-8, (New, 2017), 181 pages, A4, Illustrated, 500 grams, $40.00*

Ngarinyin Elder and community leader, Eddie Bear shares his family story with Dr Robert Hoskin, researcher and retired minister of the Uniting Church. The story begins with life in the remote land of Majaddin in the West Kimberley and continues through colonialist incursions as Eddie's family took refuge at the Munja Aboriginal feeding station on the Kimberley Coast. Following Munja's demise, the family joined with other Ngarinyin families working on pastoral stations (Kimberley Downs and Napier). Eddie and his siblings grew up on these stations and would later seek work in this developing industry.

Rivers of the Kimberley by Kim Epton

ISBN 0 85905 277 X, (2000 New), Soft Cover, spiral bound, A4, 90pp, 260grams, $30.00*

A meticulously researched work on the discovery and naming of rivers in the Kimberley by Europeans.

R.M. Williams Hat and other stories, The by Joy Smith

ISBN 978-0-85905-576-5, (1980, R 2015), A5, 24pages, 50 grams, $10.00*

Some short stories about the characters of old Wiluna.

Royal Commission, The ... An Alleged Prevalence of Gold Stealing, 1906-7.

ISBN 978-0-85905-560-4, (1907, R2013), A4, 236pp, 655g, $60.00*.

This ground-shaking report of a century ago changed goldfields life forever. While referred to multiple times in the daily rags there are no copies in the government library system, including the Battye. It may be that, like the Belgian governments investigation of Herbert Hoover's crooked rorts, all copies were purchased and destroyed. Luckily a single copy surfaced from which this copy is produced in a small run. 5707 questions asked but few real answers were given. Many leading GF men decided it was wise to have a holiday for the duration of the investigation. This is the precursor the a book on gold stealing due out shortly.

Ruby Yen

ISBN 978-0-85905-659-5, (New, 2017), A5, 16pp, illust, 40 grams, $10.00*

The controversial murder of a Chinese girl in Perth in 1925. Another of our series on the joys of multiculturalism.

Rugged Outback Poetry. by Ted Opitz

ISBN 978-0-85905-963-3, (1983 R 2023), A5, 20 pages, 48 grams, $15.00*

Ted Opitz was a NT treasure in his later years (d.1989) and was probably the last practitioner of bush balladry in the far north. Both he and his verse are fondly remembered by the old hands.

Russian Jack by P.J. Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 283 4, (2001 New), Soft Cover, $22.00

Biography of the most famous "barrowman" of the Kimberley, Northern Territory and the Murchison.

S

Saddle in the Kitchen by Enga Smith

ISBN 0 85905 191 9, (1993 reprint of 1979 edition), Soft Cover, 87pp, illustrated, 150grams, $22.00

The popular story of the author's childhood in country Western Australia.

Sailor and Commando by A.E. (Ted) Jones

ISBN 0 85905 253 2, (1998 New), Soft Cover, 128pp, illustrated, 245grams, $22.00

A.R.A.N. Special Service Commando's WWII experiences in training and on service in the East Indies and Borneo.

Sailors in Slouch Hats edited by W.W. Rice

ISBN 0 85905 299 0, (2001 New), Soft Cover, 168pp, illustrated, 230grams, $22.00

Wartime reminiscences of the men of 42 Australian Landing Craft Company, RAE.

Sailor, Soldier, Surgeon - The life of George W. Barber by Simon Doyle and Jenny Mills

ISBN 978-0-85905-823-0, (2020 New), Soft Cover, French flaps, 240pp, illustrated, 590grams, $40.00*

An exceptional medical officer during World War I, George Walter Barber had a wayfaring early life. As a teenager he worked as a merchant marine on a clipper serving the England – Australia route. He went on to study medicine and after graduating became a P&O ship doctor sailing the England-India-China route. He met his wife Jess on his final voyage, and they moved to the Kalgoorlie goldfields at the commencement of the goldrush. At the outbreak of the war he was mobilised to assess the fitness of Western Australian recruits. In 1916 he became Assistant Director Medical Services of the 4th Australian Division and in 1918 was appointed Deputy Director Medical Services, Australian Corps. He ran a venereal disease hospital in Egypt and served on a number of gruesome hospital ships during the Gallipoli campaign. As DDMS he was in charge of medical administration for the Australian troops in France and through his Standing Orders enacted a number of significant innovations which reflected the shift towards mobile warfare. He then went on to become Director General Medical Services in Australia after the war (1925-1934).

Available direct from the author (MOB: 0405 956 679, simondoyle123@yahoo.com)

Samuel Grau Hubbe and the South Australia to Western Australia Stock Route Expedition 1895-1896. SG Hubbe. edited by Andrew Guy Peake. (WAEDP series.)

ISBN 978-0-85905-680-9, (New, 2018), casebound, section sewn, illustrated, maps, indexed, 296 pages, .855 kg, $95.00*

Contains the official and private journals of Hubbe and John Mahar. Biographical notes on the men of the expedition.

This is a very small run which will ensure future scarcity.

Sand and Stone. Pt1. Colonists and Convicts. Pt 2. Pastoralists and Prospectors by Kevin Moran

ISBN 978-0-85905-572-7, ISBN 978-0-85905-573-4, (2000, 2013), A4, 730 pp, Soft cover, illustrated, indexed, 2kg, $140.00*.

Sold only as a set.

A magnificent overview of the colony from a police perspective. Contains a great deal not available elsewhere.

Sand and Stone - Cattle and Conflict by Kevin Moran

ISBN 978-0-85905-449-2, (New, 2010), illust., A4, 436pp, 2Vols, 1.2kg, $80.00*

NB. This book is in two parts, of 232 and 204 pages respectively. The parts will not be sold separately.

Sand and Stone continues to chronicle the story of the violent hidden history of Western Australia's Kimberley Region in this two part volume 'Cattle and Conflict'.

Sand and Stone – Foreign footprints. Police in the Kimberley 1880 – 1890s by Kevin Moran

ISBN 978-0-85905-447-8, (2009), fully indexed, A4, Soft Cover, 271pp, 735 grams, $40.00*

It is a chronicle of verifiable and uncontested truth of the violent hidden history of Western Australia's Kimberley Region. It provides an account of colonial police officers and settlers of Western Australia; their tribulations, bravery and sacrifice in this furthest frontier of Western Australia.

Sand and Stone - Pigeon by Kevin Moran - with a Foreword by Peter Conole

ISBN 978-0-85905-448-5, (2011, New), 126pp, illust, 360 grams, $30.00*

This is Pigeon's story and of those who suffered his reign of terror and the men who hunted him.

Save the Union ed. by John C. Rice

ISBN 978-0-85905-853-7, (c1920 R 2020), 160x240, illustrated, 80 pages, 150 grams, $30.00*

A very small reprint of a Franklin G. Rice's memoir of life, and death, in the Michigan Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War of 1862-65.

Savagery on the Swan River Settlement: The aboriginal murder cycle and the 1839 killing of Sarah Cook.

Collected and edited by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-246-7, (New 2010), A4, 36pp, 135 grams, $22.00*

Savagery on the Swan River Settlement has two primary threads.

That the government and media of 1839 suppressed the publication of the true facts of several vicious murders of Europeans to protect the native tribes from the retaliation of concerned settlers.

Scales of the Serpent. Kimberley Pearlshell in Aboriginal Australia, The by Kim Akerman

ISBN 978-0-85905-987-9, (New, 2023), A4, Fully colour illustrated, french flap soft cover, section sewn, 190 pages, 750 grams, $110.00* Postage Australia wide is $14.50 for a single copy.

A magnificent volume presenting a detailed study of the Aboriginal use of pearl shell in both the traditional and contemporary worlds. This is already a classic. The jaded and faux art of the desert dots is already rolling over with the freshness and strictly limited availability of pearl shell art.

To obtain the trade price, and hence for resale, there is a minimum order of 3 books. If a single copy is purchased then there is no trade discount. This does not apply to our regular trade customers. Postage will be advised on ordering. Do not pay until you receive our invoice

Scarlet Pillows – an Australian nurse's tale of long ago by Mrs Arthur H. Garnsey

ISBN 978-0-85905-039-5, (2009 reprint), 151pp, illustrated, 220grams, $22.00

Mrs Garnsey was a nurse at Coolgardie amidst the rush and typhoid. A bush classic.

Scarlet Stain, The - Harlots, Harridans and Hellholes of Old Kalgoorlie edited by Sheryl Milentis and Peter J Bridge

ISBN 0 85905 350 4, (2004 New), 188pp, illustrated, 255grams, $30.00

By the late 1890s the Kalgoorlie brothels had become a byword for degradation and the most flagrant in the English-speaking world. The Sun newspaper campaigned against the outrageous displays by the prostitutes, the activities of their bludgers and the vested interests of the landlords and sly grog traders. This book details that campaign and shows a vastly different old Kalgoorlie to that usually depicted.

Secret of the Dead Heart, The by W.C. Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-879-7, (1935 R. 2021), A4, illustrated, 39 pages, 170 grams, $30.00*

The many expeditions into the desert in search of rumoured gold reefs have been overshadowed by the largely mythical account of Lasseter. Here Charnley details the men, machines and disasters that are real adventure in the Western Desert.

Shark Repellant by George Herbert Payne.

ISBN 978-0-85905-815-5, (1947 R 2020), A4, 13 pages, 80 grams, $15.00*

RAAF research at Shark Bay in WWII with descriptions of the area and a biography of GH Payne.

She's No Milkmaid by Rica Erickson & Rona Hayward

ISBN 0 85905 152 8, (1991 new), Soft Cover, 96pp, illustrated, 178grams, $10.00

The biography of Dame Raigh Roe, President of the Country Womans Association, and the story of her fight for the rural women of Australia and the World.

Shearer's War, The by Stuart Svensen.

ISBN 0 85805 434 9, (1989, 2008), 325pp, illustrated, 550 grams, $45.00.

Second only to the rebellion of Eureka Stockade, the great Queensland shearer's strike of 1891 was suppressed with the threat of troops with artillery and machine guns. The leaders were marched in chains for hundreds of miles and gaoled in loaded courts. This was the birth of the ALP. Many of the leaders became Members of Parliament. This is the first time the real story has been told of the machinations of the pastoralists, politicians, banksters, and like parasites in their antagonism against Australian workers.

Shrew and the Horsethief, The by Peter J Bridge & Sheryl Milentis

ISBN 978-0-85905-538-3, (new, 2012), A4, 88pp, illustd., 270 grams, $30.00*

James Cody was a charismatic young WA bushranger in the 1880s. He was shot by the police at Esperance. Research showed a strange colonial background with his mother hung for murder in the old Perth gaol. A long forgotten but interesting story.

Signaller at the Front by Arthur G. Howell, MM. edited by John Coe

ISBN 0 85905 305 9, (2001 New), A4 Spiral Bound, 82 pages, 250grams, $22.00*

The war diary of Gunner Howell, 1st Australian Field Artillery Brigade and his impressions of the Great War 1915-1918.

Six Black Murderers by WC Charnley

[ISBN 978-0-85905-884-1], (1935, 2021), A4, 17 pages, illustrated, 105 grams. $22.00*

Tribal natives murdered Japanese fishermen on the NT coast in 1932. A great manhunt followed to capture the murderers.

Six-Mile Murder, The. Rifles and Rotgut, Mary Jane Wain and James Conley. Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-669-4, (New, 2017), 41 pages, illustrated, A4, 115 grams, $22.00*

The murder and trial that created a sensation in WA in 1897.

Sketches from the South West : Louis Cox in Peace and War. edited by Peter J Bridge & Gail Dreezens

ISBN 978-0-85905-439-3, (2015, New), A4, 74pp, illustrated, 230 g, $22.00*

Louis Cox (1878-1975) was a returned soldier of the 16th Bn, who had, after working as a survey hand, started clearing a block near Kojonup. His reminiscences about the land and its people together with his own drawings make this a delightful read. More sombre is the second part where as a soldier, he was captured and imprisoned in Germany in 1917.

Slash and Burn - Flint or firestick: Subincision and kindred rites of the Australian Aboriginal. by Herbert Basedow

ISBN 978-0-85905-850-6, (1927 R 2020), A4, 39 pages, illustrated, 150 grams, $30.00*

Those who survived the initiations could survive anything.

Small Scale Underground Mining For Prospectors, Tributors and Mine Owners by F.W. Bojesen

ISBN 0 85905 292 3, (2003 New), A4, wire spiral bound, 170pp, illustrated, 440+grams, $ 40.00*

It describes step by step how to develop and run a small underground mine cheaply, safely and profitably in today's world. Starting with leases and permits, it takes you through every stage from road building and camp construction to the final shutdown. It explains each operation in detail in plain language, with many drawings, diagrams and photos: First shaft sinking and other forms of access, then development of levels and orebodies, ventilation, transport and haulage, pumping and other services, safety and all else needful for efficient mining. It tells you how to find cheaper machinery and gear, as well as what you can make yourself and shows how to make it. The photos give real life situations from current mining of this sort. To further increase its usefulness, the volume ends with a large glossary of underground mining terms and a practical index to ease searching and crosschecking.

Some account of the New Colony of Western Australia etc. by William Milligan

ISBN 978-0-85905-844-5, (1837 R 2020), A4, 38 pages, illustrated, 150 grams, $30.00*

An important colonial description of the colony and the natives.

Some Ghosts Some Not by Eloise I Sharp

ISBN 978-0-85905-503-1, (1979, R2011), 225pp, illustrated, 420 grams, $35.00

This book was first published privately in 1979 and has never been easy to obtain. Now a new edition with minor updates and with the colour photos on a gloss paper is available. Eloise and her husband were post war English migrants who took to the Australian bush as the proverbial duck to water. They lived in many places - Dirk Hartog Island and Deepdale Station being just two, and Eloise's passion was bush history. She would stop anywhere to talk to bush people and enjoy a cup of tea, a characteristic passed on to her daughter, Mary Taylor of Northampton, who has produced several local histories and Volume 1 of The Bushman's Directory.

Some notes on scientific travel amongst the black population of tropical Australia, 1904-1906. by Hermaan Klaatsch

ISBN 978-0-85905-861-2. (1907 R 2020), A4, 43 pages, heavily illustrated, 160 grams, $35.00*

A valuable, interesting and entertaining work.

Spanish Settlers of Yoongarilup by Alejandro Torrent

ISBN 0 646 16939 4, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 74pp, illustrated, 105grams, $10.00

A little-known migrant group near Busselton in the south west of Western Australia who arrived between 1906 and 1909.

Spear and Club, Rifle and Revolver. The Noltenius murders in the NT and the native killers. Wild Toby and Burketown Peter of North Queensland by Ewan K. Patterson

ISBN 978-0-85905-858-2, (New 2021), A4, 19 pages, 90 grams, $16.00*

Historical essays on native murderers in the North of Australia. Ewan Patterson was a Queensland journalist and publisher whose work, like that of many writers, is almost forgotten. This collection of articles and biographical notes on the author seeks to change that, and to bring to light the savage depredations which are now being hidden.

Spinifex and Hessian. Women in North-West Australia, 1860-1900. Susan Hunt.

ISBN 978-0-85905-714-1, (R1986, 2018), 160x240mm, 178 pp, illustrated, indexed, 310 grams, $35.00.

Pioneers, prostitutes, pub keepers, Aborigines, all the women who are part of the history of the North. An important, and until now, rare book that is essential for all interested in WA history.

Spinifex and Sand by David W. Carnegie

ISBN 0 85905 139 0, (1989 reprint of 1898 edition), Soft Cover, 275pp, illustrated, 500grams, $30.00

A first hand account of the Coolgardie gold rush, the suffering of the prospectors, great gold discoveries, his own long march with typhoid fever, desert tribes, the constant search for water, the death of one of his men, and the vastness of the surrounding desert. All are woven together in one of the most readable accounts of exploration in Australia.

Spinifex and Sand - Maps

(1989 re-print of 1898 edition), 280grams, $22.00

Set of four large maps illustrating Carnegie's journey.

Stand Fast! The history of the 13th Battalion Volunteer Defence Corps. 1939-1945 by Bob Sheppard.

ISBN 978-0-86905-895-7, (New, 2021), A5, 53 pages, illustrated, nominal roll, 90 grams, $15.00*

Published for the Moora Historical Society. Kayelewis1@bigpond.com www.facebook.com/clinchstmoora

State and position of Western Australia commonly called The Swan River Settlement, The by Captain Frederick Chidley Irwin. With an extensive biographical introduction by Peter Conole.

ISBN 978-0-85905-780-6, (New, 2019), 240 x 160, French flaps, 168 pages, 300 grams, $40.00*

Hesperian Press takes particular pride in resurrecting this remarkable work from undeserved and disgraceful obscurity. Frederick Irwin's book, the first large scale study of Western Australia, was published in London in 1835. Our facsimile of that now very rare book is greatly enhanced by inclusion of a 19-page biographical sketch of its author by Peter Conole. This study of an important colonial figure includes material which has eluded the attention of historians and will both dispel various inaccuracies and clarify his career and importance to WA. Irwin's 'State and Position' is very well written and both frank and forthright in tackling controversial issues. In the course of nine chapters and an appendix Irwin provided brilliant word paintings of living and working conditions for settlers. He was always forthright in offering opinions, such as his hatred of convict systems. He also had a fine eye for detail in discussing a range of civic affairs and the future prospects of the colony.

Steadfast Endeavour by Graham Wilson

ISBN 0 85905 208 7, (1995 New), Hard and Soft Cover, 216pp, illustrated, HC 320grams, SC 220grams, HC $25.00, SC $22.00

A chronicle of church interaction with Pilbara Aboriginal society, 1945-1995.

Stealing by the Mile by W. C. Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-644-1, (1920s, R, 2016), A4, facsimile, illustrated, 100 pages, 290 grams, $25.00*

The real life adventures of gold stealing on the Golden Mile told via his mate, 'Slippery Wiley.' Close escapes, Mafia Black Hand gangs, telluride, illicit gold buying, underground mazes, gold smugglers, and the real old Boulder-Kalgoorlie.

Steam in the Forests by MRH Southcombe

ISBN 0 85905 387 3, (2006 reprint of 1986 edition), soft cover, 144pp, illustrated, 210 grams, $22.00.

The South West timber industry relied upon steam engines of many types. Mills, whims, trains, haulers, traction engines, all were part of the bush scene, now looked upon in a romantic light. This is the story of steam in the forests, the men, the animals, and the forests by an old timberman. Maurice Southcombe died in 2000.

Stitching the Stock Route Eileen Lanagan first woman down the Canning. edited by Phil Bianchi, Peter Bridge, Ethel Bianchi, Angela Teague, Maria Bloomfield.

ISBN 978-0-85905-484-3, (2010), A4, 66pp, illust. 210g $22.00 *

Contains her diary and a biography by Miriam Howard-Wright with details of their life on Wongawol Station, Eileen's bush cookery book, obituaries and details of the graves at CSR Well 40.

String of the Last Wreath, transcribed, The by Ray Scott.

ISBN 978-0-85905-553-6, (New, 2013), A4, 74pp, illustrated, 230 grams, $22.00*

The Hall's Creek goldfields diary of Henry Berand.

Henry Berand emigrated from Prussia to Australia, via New Zealand, around 1852, apparently following the Gold Rushes in the Eastern States. About 1887 Henry with his young wife and daughter migrated to the Kimberley Gold Fields at Halls Creek in search of their fortune.

Stout-Hearted – the story of Stephen Montague Stout by Irma Walter
*ISBN 978-0-85905-565-9, (2014, New), A4, illustrated, SC, 162pp, 455g, $35.00

Stephen Montague Stout was one of the 10,000 convicts sent to WA in the 1850s. His education, personal charm and intelligence both charmed and antagonised the colonials. Starting as a teacher he became a renowned photographer, journalist, and publisher.

This is one of the most interesting colonial biographies to have been written and will create a wider audience for our almost forgotten past.

Suicides and Settlers - Their place in 19th Century West Australian social history by Claire McIntyre
ISBN 978-0-85905-446-1, (2008 New), 223pp, Soft Cover, illustrated, 295 grams, $30.00

This book is a social history of 19th Century Western Australia told through the 315 suicides recorded here from the towns of the Swan settlement, Fremantle, Perth and Guildford. They also reach from the Kimberley to Esperance and the distant deserts.

Sunrise – the Fred and Elsie Colson story by Alb Colson.
ISBN 0 85905 426 8, (wrongly published 428 8), (2007 New), A4, Soft Cover, 87pp, 275 grams, $25.00.*

The story of the NT pioneer family who arrived in 1927 to work on the Oodnadatta to Alice railway. Carting, mining, the Lasseter expedition, searching for lost airmen, purchase of Aileron Station in 1934, WWII contracting. Fred and Elsie became some of the best known of the Centralian personalities.

Swan River Aborigines, The by George Fletcher Moore
*ISBN 978-0-85905-840-7. (1841 R 2020), A4, 34 pages, 130 grams, $30.00

These lost writings of Moore are important documentation on the natives of the Perth area. Essential reading for all interested. This is another example of the SLWA non-system that lost both the original documents and has failed to index the information in its Clayton's catalogue.

T

10,000 Hours by Harry Moss
ISBN 0 85905 122 6, (1988 New), Hard and Soft Cover, 131pp, illustrated, HC 330grams, SC 185grams, HC $30.00, SC $22.00

The autobiography of a flying doctor pilot and his adventures in aircraft from the 1930s to the present in New South Wales, Northern Territory, Victoria, Queensland, New Guinea and the Solomon Islands.

28th Battalion, Australian Imperial Force, The. A record of war service by Harry K Kahan.
*ISBN 0 85905 391 1, (1969 reprint 2007), Soft Cover, A4, 140 pp, illust, 410 grams, $30.00

The story of the 28th in France in WWI. Collett's volume covers the unit until they arrived in France and Kahan continues the story.

Tales of the Overland - Queensland to Kimberley in 1885 by G.H. Lamond
ISBN 0-85905-083-1, (1986, 2013), 142 pp, illustrated, 280 grams, $25.00

A Kimberley classic reprinted

In Queensland in 1885 Barney Lamond and his mate Jack Horrigan heard of gold in the Kimberley. Looking for land and adventure they rode their horses thousands of miles through the wild outback, surviving attacks by natives, thirst and accidents to become some of the first men on the goldfield which changed the history of WA.

Barney Lamond died in 1940 but he had dictated his story, now published for the first time. It is one of the best and most interesting of pioneer accounts of the north.

Tales of the Track. The rude awakening of Cockroach by Wanderer
*ISBN 978-0-85905-872-8, (1901 R 2021), $10.00

The failure of Cockroach's marital ambitions.

Tall Trees and Tall Tales by J. Morris and R. Underwood
ISBN 0 85905 168 4, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 94pp, illustrated, 150grams, $22.00

Stories of old Pemberton. A marvellous reminiscence of the characters and places of the big timber country, in the South West of Western Australia.

Teams and Teamsters edited by Peter J Bridge, Gail Dreezens & Angela Teague
*ISBN 978-0-85905-433-1, (New 2010), A4, illustrated, 147pp, soft cover, 430 grams, $35.00

This collection of articles from the files of Hesperian Press compares the usefulness of bullocks, donkeys, mules, horses, and camels. It then details the working of these teams.

Temora. John Kernick, poet & prospector-miner of the Bohemian Gold Mine by Peter J. Bridge
*ISBN 978-0-85905-955-8, (New, 2022), A4, 50 pages, illustrated, 170 grams, $30.00

Kernick was a staunch fighter for the working man but left a legacy of poetry and service to his fellow man on the goldfields.

Terrys Story - A Good Life by Terry McKrill
*ISBN 978-0-85905-023-4, (2010, New), A4, 75pp, 253 grams, $22.00

The autobiography of Terry McKrill born in 1935. Brought up in the suburbs, Boranup, army life, Muralgarra sheep station, Marble Bar, Yarrie, Wittenoom, trucking, Bell Brothers, roo shooting, Ashburton, fencing, metal detector prospecting with Dick Poland, East Murchison.

There's Gold There – Look For It by John Drayton, with a biographical introduction by Peter J Bridge.
*ISBN 978-0-85905-544-4, (R New 2013), A4, 128pp, 380g, $30.00

60 true tales of real finds and lost mines from Queensland to the Kimberley. Treasures from the files of John Drayton, prospector and journalist of the 1890s to 1940s. This could be the jackpot for a modern prospector.

Then They Called Me Norma by Norma King

ISBN 0 85905 124 2, (2003 New), Soft Cover, 278pp, illustrated, 385grams, $30.00

The autobiography of Goldfields author/historian and artist, Norma King.

Thermo-Electrical Cooking Made Easy by Helen Nora Curle Smith, with an introductory essay, "The Kalgoorlie Stove", by H.A. Willis

ISBN 978-0-85905-492-8, (2011 R+N), illust., 116pp., 230g, $22.00

In 1906-07, the Western Australian gold mining city of Kalgoorlie became the first place in the world to see an electric stove manufactured with the intention of bringing "cooking by electricity ... within the reach of anyone". The ambitious enterprise brought about another world first - the publication of a recipe book for electric cooking.

They Called Me Tjampu-Tjilpi by Bob Verburgt

ISBN 0 85905 248 6, (1999 New), Soft Cover, 144pp, illustrated, 225grams, $22.00

The bush experience of the author as a patrol officer in the Western Desert in the 1950s and 1960s.

They Kept This State Afloat by Rod Dickson

ISBN 0 85905 214 1, (1998 New), Hard Cover, 344pp, illustrated, 640grams, $50.00*

Details the life and work of all Western Australian boat builders from 1829 to 1929.

They're Racing at Landor by P.R. Heydon

ISBN 0 85905 169 2, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 272pp, illustrated, 350grams, $30.00

The history of the people, horses and place of the fabled Landor bush races of the North West of Western Australia. A racing classic.

They Simply Fade Away – with the 48th in France by J A Williamson

ISBN 978-0-85905-236-8, (1939, 2009), Soft Cover, A4, 108 pp, illust., 310 grams, $30.00*

John Alexander Williamson, 1886 – 1971, was born at Bonnyrigg, Scotland and emigrated to Australia in 1911. His life as a migrant, struggling to get a start, is detailed in an appendix to this book. Williamson enlisted in the AIF in 1916, on his second attempt, and served in the 48th Battalion in France. As many other Westralians did in the tween wars years, Williamson tested his writing skills in The Western Mail columns. Under the non-de-plume of "Don Zed (48th), Perth" he published anecdotes and reminiscences of his war experiences. One of these has been included as an appendix.

Thomas Edwards of Beverley: Emigrant, Policeman, Settler by Mollie Bentley

ISBN 0 85905 076 9, (1985 New), Hard and Soft Cover, 115pp, illustrated, HC 290grams, SC 180grams, HC $28.00, SC $22.00

The biography of an early colonial policeman, with much detail of the Police Force from 1850 to 1868. Details of explorations with E.H. Hargraves for gold and C.C. Hunt for land, Aboriginal contacts, and the development of the areas to the east of the Colony's capital.

Those Were The Days by Arthur Reid

ISBN 0 85905 101 3, (1986 reprint of 1933 edition with new material), Hard Cover, 418pp, illustrated, quarto, 1.5kg, $95.00*

An important reminiscing history of Coolgardie and Kalgoorlie. Biographical details of more than 400 early goldfielders. Fully indexed.

Treasure in the Tropics. by H.V. Howe. (Edited by Peter J Bridge and Anna Howe with Gail Dreezens.)

ISBN 978-0-85905-980-1, (2023, New), A4, illustrated, 86 pages, - grams, $35.00*

True stories from the archives of pearler H.V. Howe, covering the NW coast and the surrounding seas. Tales of the liberation of treasure from the grasp of governments and the sea, suppressed for nearly a century.

Three Families Outback in Australia's Tropic North by Florence Martin

ISBN 0 85905 364 4, (1980 reprint 2007), Soft Cover, 107 pp, illust, 165 grams, $22.00.

The story of the families on Carlton Hill, Ningbing, and Legune Stations in the early 1900s.

Through Aurumalia by A J Vogan.

ISBN 978-0-85905-106 4, (1896, R2009), Soft Cover, A4, 72pp, illust, 250grams, $25.00*

Arthur Vogan was a journalist, explorer, photographer, artist. These are his reports on the mines of Kalgoorlie and the surrounding areas in the mid 1890s.

Through Bush and Scrub - Travels in the North among the Stations by Norman Malcolm (Canmore)

ISBN 978-0-85905-587-1, (2015, New), A4, 92pp, indexed, 275 grams, $25.00*.

Journalist and returned soldier, Norman Malcolm (d1926), once well known, and whose biography is outlined, wrote of developing pastoral stations of the North. This collection describes the people, districts, travel, and stations, 1923-1926.

Through Spinifex and Sand to the Last Desert Family by William J. Peasley

ISBN 978-0-85905-590-1, (2015, New), A4, 100pp, well illustrated, indexed, 300 grams, $30.00*

Bill Peasley and his associates travelled to the Great Sandy Desert in 1976. They brought into civilisation the last of the 'wild' aboriginals who had, because of tribal laws, chosen to live a free life in the desert. This is the story of the expedition, the family, and earlier travels in that area.

Through the Murchisons. The Peak Hill, Murchison, and Yalgoo Fields in 1904. Daisy Bates.

ISBN 978-0-85905-720-2, (New, 2018), A4, 19pp, illustrated, 70 grams, $15.00*

Daisy Bates was an intrepid reporter who was well used to tough travelling. She examined many of the Murchison mines in their fledgling days.

Time of the Brolga by Jean Bull

ISBN 978-0-85905-502-4, (2012, New), 150pp, Soft Cover, illust., 365grams, $35.00

Jean Bull, a prominent Queensland rural journalist, weaves a picture of station life in southwest Queensland in the early 20th century from the perspective of a child growing up in the outback. This is a narrative composed of poignant literary sketches of life on Tiranna station interspersed with interesting anecdotes and socio-historical details. This book records an important epoch of post-World War I station history.

To Call Our Own by M.R.H. Southcombe

ISBN 0 85905 119 6, (1998 New), Soft Cover, 87pp, illustrated, 140grams, $22.00

The pioneering of the Group Settlements, Kalgoorlie in the depression, riots on the goldfields, and timber milling.

To King George the Third Sound for Whales by Rod Dickson

ISBN 0 85905 372 5, (2006 New) Hard cover, dj, 174 pp, 25 x 17cm, illustrated, maps, 480grams. $55.00*, A limited edition of 500 copies

To King George the Third Sound for Whales. A voyage aboard the British Whaling Vessel Kingston of London, Captain Thomas Dennis. 1800-1802. Transcribed from the original ship's logbook by Rod Dickson.

To King George the Third Sound for Whales is one of the seminal documents of Western Australia and describes the voyage of the first whaling ship to WA, just nine years after the voyage of Vancouver, and a year before Matthew Flinders 'rediscovered' King George the Third Sound. And of even more importance, 26 years before the 1826 settlement of Albany.

To the Bar Bonded by Kath Mallet

ISBN 0 85905 178 1, (1992 New), Hard Cover, 330pp, illustrated, 550grams, $40.00

A history of Marble Bar by Mrs Mallet, ex Limestone Station. A fascinating look at this quintessential Western Australian outback town from its beginnings.

To the Golden Land. Exploration to the Eastwards 1869-1896 by Peter J. Bridge and associates. With an Introduction by J.M.R Cameron.

ISBN 978-0-85905-704-2, (New, 2019), 160 x 240mm, 712 pp, colour and black and white illustrations, maps, indexed, hard cover, 2kg+, $140.00*

An important contribution to the history of WA covering all that periods 65 expeditions, including many that were previously unknown. Includes for the first time all the colour plates of Forrest in the 1870s. Over 150 illustrations and maps.

To the Savage Land - the life of John Costello by M.J. Costello

ISBN 0 85905 287 7, (2002 reprint of 1930 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 162pp, illustrated, $26.00

In the 1880s John Costello, a pastoralist from Yass who had settled on Coopers Creek, purchased Lake Nash Station. He then opened up the wild country on the Limmen River of the Northern Territory, fighting disease, drought, malaria, hostile natives and cattle thieves. He eventually lost the battle but never forgot the promise of his savage land.

To Wallal ... and Back. The story of a Mullewa Drover. by Joan Ridley.

ISBN 978-0-85905-772-1, (1999, R 2019), A4, illustrated, indexed, 42 pages, 130 grams, $22.00*

Ned Ridley was well known WA drover. This trip during WWII was blighted by disaster for the sheep, but is a good record of a traditional droving trip.

Tom's Story - An Autobiography by Thomas Fisher

ISBN 978-0-85905-519-2, (2012, New), A4, 113pp. illustrated, indexed, 450 grams, $30.00*

When Tom Fisher was growing up on a farm in Western Australia in the 1920's, and during the Depression of the 1930's, he could never have imagined that he would take part in some of the toughest naval battles of World War II. Able Seaman Tom Fisher commenced his war service on 3 September 1939 and, except for a brief period in late 1945, served at sea throughout the war.

Tommy Ningepong by Phil Bianchi

ISBN 978-0-85905-599-4, (2015, New), A4, 71 pp, illustrated, 190 g, $25.00*

Bushman, tracker, drover, stockman, pastoralist, Aboriginal Ningepong was an extraordinary individual. C1904-1978 he spent most of his life in the wider Wiluna area. He was a favourite of the local people and many are the stories of his solidity and of course his little quirks. This biography places on record his life and peoples appreciation of him. He was the principal witness in the trial of the murderers of trapper Joe Wilkins in 1937 and in a rustling trial in the 1970s. He was one of the first Aboriginals to have his own pastoral Lease.

Too Far Out. An administrative history of the Ngaanyatjarra homelands. by Max Angus.

ISBN 978-0-85905-992-3, (new, 2023), 160 x 240, 295 pages, well illustrated, indexed, 700 grams, $52.00*

The Explorers' Diaries Project has now commenced work on the Central Desert. This book is a good introduction to the history of that area.

For a century following the gruelling expeditions of the first European explorers through the remote homelands of the Ngaanyatjarra people in Western Australia, successive governments concluded that the arid region was 'beyond the limits of civilisation'. They adopted a policy of 'non-interference' — a euphemism for official neglect. Allocated puny budgets, administrators were without the means of providing basic human services to the Ngaanyatjarra people.

In 1934, to fill the gap, a handful of evangelical Christian missionaries arrived to build a depot near the Warburton Ranges. Conditions were primitive and support was limited. Their main goal was to lay the foundations for a Ngaanyatjarra Christian church.

The situation changed radically in the 1970s after the mission station closed and the Commonwealth government launched its policy of Aboriginal self-determination. It tried to make up for lost time but imposed an unrealistic timetable to right past wrongs, misjudging the willingness and capacity of the desert people to manage their own communities according to unfathomable administrative precepts.

This original work, based on the history of one place over many decades, looks closely at how officials of state and Commonwealth governments engaged with the people living on the Ngaanyatjarra homelands. The account avoids simplistic, narrow explanations and valuations of what was a complex struggle every step of the way.

It is deeply ironic that in the 1990s, when there were grounds for optimism in the Ngaanyatjarra communities, governments began to dismantle the administrative apparatus on which the progress was at last being built.

Max Angus is an Emeritus Professor of Education at Edith Cowan University and a former state public servant.

Toodyay - the good old days by Wally Chitty edited by Chris Martin

ISBN 0 85905 342 3, (2004), Soft Cover, 248pp, 240x160mm, 150+ photos, maps, 415grams, $35.00

A magnificent new book on Toodyay - an anecdotal snapshot of life in times gone by.

Toodyay Gold compiled by Peter J Bridge and Angela Teague

ISBN 978-0-85905-443-0, (2008 New), A4, Soft Cover, 62pp, illus., 200 grams, $22.00*

Toodyay, one of the earliest settlements in Western Australia, dating from the 1830s, and the scene of many interesting incidents, showed that after a century of occupation it had more secrets to reveal, when in 1931, early in the first Great Depression, Brown and party discovered payable gold in Yinniding Creek, eight miles south-west of the town. This is an example of resources expanding to fill the needs.

Toodyay Homesteads by Rica Erickson & Robyn Taylor

ISBN 0 85905 362 8, (2006 New), Soft Cover, 196 pages, 260grams, $30.00.

An invaluable book for anyone interested in Western Australia's rural heritage. It describes the evolution of the Toodyay District and the farming properties that have operated since the 1830s and 1840s. The book takes the reader on a journey from Morby Cottage in Northam to the Berkshire Valley homestead in Moora. Individual chapters reveal the social, administrative, and economic forces that shaped the early development of the Swan River colony, while the homesteads provide insights into the use of local materials, and construction and farming methods up to the present day.

Top Camp, Soldiers Secret and the Ashburton Gold Rush by Peter J Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-601-4, (New, 2015), A4, 222 pages, Illustrated, Indexed, 590 grams, $50.00*

The history of the Ashburton Gold Rush of 1890 with details of the pastoral stations, aboriginal conflict, lonely deaths, and all the adventures of the distant bush. This is a companion volume to the earlier, BANGEMALL.

Top of the Hill, The. ed by PJ Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-608-3, (2015, R 1930s), A4, 110 pages, 315 grams, $30.00*

The letters to The Western Mail in the late 1930s cover reminiscences and observations of bush life by men and women, farmers, drovers, sailors, fishermen and represent the land as it once was before the influx of aliens changed our life. Essential reading to grasp how the nation has changed and why so many are unhappy with the current trends.

Top of the River: A history of sailing at Maylands and the Maylands Yacht Club by Chris Holyday & Terry Gaunt Snr

ISBN 978-0-85905-907-7, (New, 2021), A4, 104 pp, heavily illustrated, 330 grams, $30.00*

Available from the Maylands Yacht Club.

Touch Me Not by Pat Studdy-Clift

ISBN 978-0-85905-654-0, (New, 2017), A4, 86 pages, well illustrated, 255 grams, $30.00*

This is an historical novel, based on fact and brimful of the adventures, trials and triumphs of one pioneering family – the Gadens. In 1923 with two small babies, aboard the lugger "Chantress", their adventurous father and his brave-hearted wife headed into the uncivilised part of Australia now known as Kakadu National Park, only to find themselves living in "bough sheds" at the mercy of tropical cyclones, buffalo bulls, fierce snakes and primeval crocodiles, to mention a few of their hazards. Add to this a daughter Madge, who was not only a gifted pianist, but also a "darling". She touched the hearts of many, world-wide, when leprosy struck both her and her father. Top this with the inferno of World War Two as Madge, the mixed-race patients and their carers on Channel Island in Darwin Harbour faced the bombing of Darwin. History leads us through a record of man's inhumanity, but also man's humanity to man.

Trackmaster, The - Sig Schlam by Bill Elkes

ISBN 0 85905 112 9, (1987 New), Soft Cover, 29pp, illustrated, 100grams, $10.00*

The biography of one of the World's greatest speedway motorcycle riders.

Tragedy of an Overlander, The by Henry Mazzini

ISBN 978-0-85905-789-9, (1886, R), A5, illustrated, 17 pages, $10.00*

From Port Lincoln SA to Perth WA in search of work. Overland journey of a shepherd, his wife and family, their difficulties & sufferings.

Tragedy Track by F.E. Baume, 1994

ISBN 0 85905 199 4, (1994 reprint of 1933 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 143pp, illustrated, 200grams, $22.00

The story of the Northern Territory Granites' gold rush of the 1930s. A bush classic. The area now has major gold mines.

Tragic Pearl, The by WC Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-019-7, (2010, R), 28pp, illust, SC, B5, 50g, $10.00*

Some people regard pearls as unlucky. However that may be, an uncanny fatality certainly seemed to attend the big 'stone' that figures in this remarkable narrative. First found off the coast of North-West Australia, it was stolen within a few hours of its discovery and almost immediately stolen again. Thenceforth it passed rapidly from hand to hand until it was lost to view, but during its travels it brought death to at least four men who had never even set eyes on it!

Trap at Lošinj, The by Miloš Saičić

ISBN 978-0-85905-786-8, (New, 2020), illustrated, A4, 76 pages, 250 grams, $40.00*

The autobiography of a Yugoslav soldier in WWII. Miloš Saičić was a young Serbian lawyer who joined the Royal Yugoslav Army under General Mihalovich. The Chetniks fought both the Germans and the Ustashi. The betrayals by Churchill and his twisted coterie meant their defeat by the communist partisans. The communist and Ustashi death camps and mass executions put into the pale the much propagandised, but very suspect, claims of German crimes.

He fled to Italy and after service in the Mediterranean he and his wife were in the Transit camp at El Shatt in Egypt before he migrated to Australia in 1948. He worked in Perth for the Hospital Collections Service, raised his family and died, aged 97, in 2008.

This is a rare story. Most Yugoslav materials available to the West being part of the Cold War stable with promotion of the 'independent' Yugoslavia, which was as brutal as anything both the Soviets and the 'free' West could devise.

This is a very small print run to record the title in Australian libraries and archives. It will be of interest to the children of those who fled Yugoslavia post war.

Travels among Gold and Cannibals in Western Australia 1870 – 1874 by Thomas Scott

ISBN 978-0-85905-025-8, (2010 New), A4, 42pp, 150 gram, $22.00*

This idiosyncratic travelogue written for the author's friends describes a journey from Albany, overland to Perth and eventually to Northampton.

Travels and Adventures of Ben Bridge Throughout Western Australia and Northern Territory by Ben Bridge
*ISBN 978-0-85905-540-6, (2012, 1915?), A4, 94pp, illustrated, 285 grams, $30.00

An intriguing story of one of the great and almost forgotten characters of the Australian bush.

Ben Bridge was one of Australia's greatest horsemen at a time when nearly all Australians were familiar with the finer points of horses and their riders.

Travels in Western Australia by May Vivienne

ISBN 0 85905 192 7, (1993 reprint of 1901 edition), Soft Cover, 212pp, illustrated, 275grams, $30.00

The writer sparkled through Western Australia and the goldfields by train, coach and bicycle, charming all. Always popular, this is a goldfields' gem.

Travels with a Lawbook - Memoirs of a Magistrate by Ken 'Lazarus' Moore

*ISBN 978-085-905-442-3, (2008 New), Soft cover, notch bound, A4, 384 pages, 1.1 kg, $50.00

In this autobiography the author takes us on a roller-coaster journey from his birthplace in the Glens of Antrim to far distant places around the globe.

Trenches In The Sky, The by Dan Conway

ISBN 0 85905 205. 2, (1995 New), Soft Cover, 264pp, illustrated, 350grams, $30.00

The best Australian book of the Air War in Europe and one of the best on Bomber Command.

Triangle. W.C. Charnley.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-729-5, A4, 100 grams, $16.00

A murder triangle at Day Dawn in 1908 with a wanton Delilah at the point.

Triumphs and Tragedies : Oombulgurri. An Australian Aboriginal Community by Neville Green

ISBN 978-0-85905-092-0, (New, 2011), 228pp, 160 x 240, illust., 530g, $35.00

Oombulgurri emerged from the remnants of Forrest River Mission to become one of the first independent Indigenous communities in Australia.

Troops, Tents, and Training. The history of Chidlow WWII Army Camp 4, 1942-1946 by Bob Sheppard.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-935-1, (New, 2022), A5, 35 pages, illustrated, 115 grams, $15.00

Troy Weight. The 1889 report of Sub Inspector Troy on David Forrest's allegations of mis-treatment of natives in the north by Peter J Bridge, Peter Conole, Gail Dreezens

*ISBN 978-9-85905-632-8, (New, 2016), A4, 93pp, 280 grams, $30.00

David Forrest of Minderoo complained of mistreatment of natives by pearlers. Governor Broome and his administration acted promptly and reports from local NW police were requested and a special police expedition set out covering an immense area.

Turning Men Into Stone - A social and medical history of silicosis in Western Australia 1890-1970 by Crien Fitzgerald

ISBN 978-0-85905-635-9, (New, 2016), 170 x 240, section sewn, 252pp, illustrated, indexed, 710 grams, $50.00

1960, WA physician Dr Bob Elphick remarked to his colleagues that the mining industry was turning men into stone. This evocative image aptly described the end-stage pathophysiological changes that occurred in the lungs of the state's goldminers after exposure to silica dust. Until 1926 in WA, when X-ray technology became readily available and financially viable, diagnosis of dust disease in miners was fraught, flawed and at best an educated medical guess.

Twentieth Century Impressions P.W.H. Thiel & Co.

*ISBN 0 85905 269 9, (2000 reprint of 1901 edition), Hard Cover, 808pp, illustrated, A4+, $250.00

Another Western Australian classic. Richly illustrated. Copious information on early Western Australia.

Twenty three Days Adrift by WC Charnley

*[ISBN 978-0-85905-886-5], (1935, 2021), A4, 18 pages, illustrated, 105 grams. $22.00

The loss of the Carnarvon Castle in 1907 off the WA coast is an epic of the Ocean.

UV

Ularring: The Off Chance, first gold mine on the Coolgardie Goldfield. James Speakman and his turns of Luck by Peter J. Bridge.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-918-3, (New, 2021), A4, 24 pages, illustrated, 95 grams, $22.00

Two years before Bayley and Ford had discovered Coolgardie, Speakman and Ryan prospected far to the NE, discovering rich gold at Ularring. This is the story of their roller-coaster of discoveries, losses and gains, which shows the necessity of sticking to one's star.

Unbroken Spirit by Brian Peachey

ISBN 0 85905 275 3, (2000 New), Soft Cover, 155pp, illustrated, 230grams, $22.00

The biography of William Boxhal a convict transported in 1855. Covers the English prison system, transportation, the Western Australia penal system, and his life as an expirée, building his farm, marriage, life as a farmer and parishioner of New Norcia. Contains a detailed list of his descendants in Western Australia.

Under the Wings of an Albatross by Rod Dickson

*ISBN 978-085905-499-7, 2011 New, A4, 128pp, illust, 360 grams, $30.00

A maritime history of the French Sub-Antarctic Islands. The Crozets, The Kerguelins, St Paul and Amsterdam Islands. Covers the voyages from 1522 to 1928 with details of the ships and masters with extracts from their log books.

Untold Miles. Three gold-hunting expeditions amongst the picturesque borderland ranges of Central Australia. by Michael Terry.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-995-4, (2023R, 1932), 316 pages, 240 x 160, french flap soft cover, illustrated, maps, indexed, 720 grams, $75.00

Long out of print. The great 1930s expeditions into the Central Australian wilds. Terry led many expeditions with camels and early desert vehicles and recorded the land and the lives, black and white, of the inhabitants. His works are classics of the bush.

Veterans, The: A History of the Enrolled Pensioner Force in Western Australia, 1850-1880, The by F.H. Broomhall
ISBN 0 85905 103 X, (1985,1989 New), Hard Cover, 472pp, illustrated, 720grams, $50.00

Contains a narrative history and extensive biographical data on its members with approximately 1,000 entries. The Guard garrisoned Western Australia for 30 years. An essential source volume for all involved in Western Australian history and genealogy.

Voice of the North, The by Jim Kelly

ISBN 0 85905 154 4, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 138pp, 190grams, $22.00

The collected bush poems of Jim Kelly are the result of his love of the bush and time in cattle camps of 60 years ago. A Kimberley classic.

Vosalevu. Memories of Life in Fiji During Four Decades. 1924-1953 by Reginald Caten

ISBN 978-85905-570-3, (2014, new), 217pp, soft cover, 355grams. $45.00.

With a preface by Phillip Snow. A lyrical and entertaining observation of life in the tropics. The stories of the people of various races, their life and foibles are described by a quintessential Englishman whose love of all the islands and their people shines through in a thoroughly readable book for all who either lived in, visited, or merely dreamed of a South Seas paradise. This is Hawaii or Tahiti without the Jmurchans.

W

W.A. Digger Book, The

*ISBN 978-0-85905-595-6, (1929, 2015), A4, 163 pages, illustrated, 430 grams, $40.00

The W.A. Digger Book was published by the West Australian branch of the RSL in 1929, and expressed with picture and story the thoughts and experiences of the A.I.F. Over 160 A4 pages of reminiscence, story, verse, drawings and photographs, with a few contemporary supporting adverts from leading companies, make this a very interesting book. It contains forewords and articles by Monash, Chauvel, Hobbs, and Collett with contributions by Dryblower Murphy, Cyril Longmore, James Pollard, 'Jean Dell', and others writing under pen names familiar to readers of the Diggers Diary of the old Western Mail, which are a delight to read.

Wadjelas – The memoirs of a 1950s Patrol Officer by Adrian Day

*ISBN 978-0-85905-475-1, (2010), A4, illustrated, soft cover, 276pp, 765g, $50.00

This story is about a very young man with noble intent, a lack of maturity and no training whatsoever who is sent out by government to deal with what it sees as a disintegrating and dying race.

Waiting For Rain by Janet Wells

*ISBN 0 85905 155 2, (1991 New), Soft Cover, 36pp, 70grams, $10.00

Prize-winning poetry of the North.

Waldeck Story, The by Norma King

ISBN 0 85905 141 2, (1990 reprint of 1980 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 120pp, illustrated, 180grams, $22.00

The story of the Waldeck family of Greenough.

Walker in the Wilderness by J. Anketell

ISBN 0 85905 243 5, (1998 New), Soft Cover, 196pp, illustrated, HC 485grams, SC 340grams, HC $40.00, SC $30.00

Surveying of the Trans-Australian railway line, the Rabbit Proof Fence and the North. A biography of R.J. Anketell.

Wallabong. The life of James Harvie Greig, on The Road to Nullagine.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-874-2, (1949 R 2021), $10.00

A brief biography of Grieg and his popular poem, On the Road to Nullagine.

Wanderings of a Simple Child, The. A record of Australian life. by AG 'Smiler' Hales.

*ISBN 978-0-85905-783-7, (NR, 2020), A4, 69 pages, 270 grams, $30.00

The early days of Broken Hill were the teething ground for many at Coolgardie. This autobiog details many later famous characters in training.

Wanderings of Dido, The – E A Church edited by Peter J Bridge with Gail Dreezens.

*ISBN 0 85905 365 2, (2007 New), Soft Cover, A4, 40 pp, saddle, 160 grams, $20

Ted Church was a prospector and raconteur of the Kalgoorlie area who recorded many of the incidents of goldfields life.

WANJINA - Notes on Some Iconic Ancestral Beings of the Northern Kimberley by Kim Akerman

ISBN 978-0-85905-628-1, (2016, New), A4, French flap stiffened soft cover, 193pp, full colour illust. 885grams, $85.00

Wanjina Beings – among the most distinctive of all the Aboriginal Ancestral Beings depicted in Australian rock art – have been a topic of conjecture among Western scholars since their discovery by the explorer George Grey in the northwest Kimberley Region of Australia, in 1838. Their origins have at various times been ascribed to travellers from other continents and even extraterrestrial sources.

This essay presents a brief history of past research into the Wanjina cult of the Kimberley: and examines some of the core mythology that embraces the country of the Wanjina and which links people, from the coasts lapping the Timor Sea, to the fastness of the Kimberley Plateau.

Way We Were, The. edited by PJ Bridge

*ISBN 978-0-85905-609-0, (2015, R 1930s), A4, 107 pages, 310 grams, $30.00

The letters to The Western Mail in the early 1940s cover reminiscences and observations of bush life by men and women, farmers, drovers, sailors, fishermen and represent the land as it once was before the influx of aliens changed our life. Essential reading to grasp how the nation has changed and why so many are unhappy with the current trends.

We Came Home or Return From the Land of Milk and Honey by Richard J. Armstrong

*ISBN 085905 352 0 (2005 New) 211pp, A4, Perfect bound, illust., 585grams, $30.00

The author was in Changi and on the Burma railway and this is his reminiscences of men and murderers, good men and bad, with neither fear nor favour. The author is now 85 and in failing health, but all his old comrades will remember this as vintage Richard.

Wealth and Wildcats by Raymond Radcliffe

ISBN 0 85905 309 1, (2004, reprint of 1898), Soft Cover, 129pp, illustrated, 190grams, $22.00.

Raymond Radcliffe, journalist for the London Financial Times traveled through the goldfields of Western Australia and New Zealand in the late 1890s

Well Drilling Plants and Gasoline Engines by the Goldfields Diamond Drilling Coy. Pty. Ltd.

ISBN 978-0-85905-454-6, (?1920s, 2008), Soft Cover, 78 pages, A4, 235 grams, $25.00*

This heavily illustrated catalogue and descriptive booklet of ?1920s diamond drilling equipment for water and oil is invaluable for machinery collectors and historians of the pastoral and oil drilling industry in Australia.

West Pilbara, Sail and Teams to Bulk Carriers and Bitumen, The by D.L. Gordon

ISBN 978-0-85905-444-7, (2008 Reprint), 162pp, softcover, A4, illustrated, 410 grams $35.00*

A new edition of this popular book, now indexed. The Gordon family were pioneers of the Pilbara. Covers the early history and the development of Millstream Station, together with Doug's life at Wittenoom and many of the NW personalities.

Western Australia's Tempestuous History by John Nairn

ISBN 0 85905 088 2, (1986 reprint of 1976 edition with new material), Soft Cover, illustrated by Frank Pash, Three Volumes, 158pp, Large Format, 380grams each, $60.00 for the 3 volumes or $22.00 per volume

Incidents of W.A. history brought to life.

Western Australian Coastal History Series, The by Rod Dickson

All are (2012, New), Soft Cover, A4. Sold only as the 7 vol set., $477.00* see ISBN list on website.

With the Maritime Heritage Association of Western Australia as a set of 50 copies only. This series encompasses the Maritime History of the coastal regions of Western Australia from 1800 to 1900. It includes all known incidents and accidents along the coast and all the ships and boats that entered and left the various ports. The cargo carried by these vessels east and west and also north and south and the passengers carried in and out.

Maritime Matters of the South Coast of W.A. (Leeuwin to Eucla.) 268pp. 720grams.

Maritime Matters of the South West Coast of W.A. (Port Augusta to Bunbury.) 66pp. 400grams.

Maritime Matters about the Mid-West Coast. 1800 to 1900. (Champion Bay, Abrolhos Islands, Port Irwin & Port Gregory.) 424pp. 1090grams.

Maritime Matters of Carnarvon and the Gascoyne District. (The Northern portion of Sharks Bay.) 215pp. 590 grams.

Maritime Matters about Sharks Bay — Part A. (Southern area of Sharks Bay and the Pearling Industry) 282pp. 740grams.

Maritime Matters about Sharks Bay — Part B. (Southern area of Sharks Bay and the Pearling Industry) 210pp. 570grams.

Maritime Matters about Cossack and the Northwest Pearling Areas. (From Exmouth Gulf to Roebuck Bay) 233pp, 625grams.

Western Australian Exploration 1826-1835 Volume 1 edited by Joanne Shoobert et. al.

ISBN 0 85905 351 2, (2005 New), Hard Cover, 638pp, illustrated, maps, 1.3Kg., $96.00*

This is one of the most significant volumes ever published in W.A. and the first of its type in Australia. Few have before attempted such a project.

The result of many years and tens of thousands of hours collecting, collating, typing and proofing. An essential reference for all interested in W.A. history. Other volumes are in preparation.

Western Australian Exploration 1836 – 1845 edited by Marion Hercock and Sheryl Milentis with Phil Bianchi.

ISBN 978-0-85905-495-9, (2011 New), 460 pages, illust, 1.4 kg, RRP $95*

Reproduces the original reports, letters and diaries that record expeditions of discovery in Western Australia for the period from 1836 to 1845. Many of these records from the state archives have never been presented in such an accessible form, with summaries and explanatory notes.

Western Australian Explorations of John Septimus Roe 1829-1849, The edited by Marion Hercock.

ISBN 978-0-85905-527-7, (2014, New), Casebound, dj, 160x240, Illustrated, 726 pp, 1.9kg, $100.00*

The long awaited complete collection of Surveyor General Roe's expeditions from the Western Australian Explorers' Diaries Project. Contains appendices on the plants, animals, and navigation. Fully indexed.

Roe has been called the 'father of modern explorers' in Australia and this volume and the introduction fully supports that title.

Western Australian Ghost Mining towns, Business & Residence Areas, and Mining Camps. by Ian Murray OAM.

ISBN 978-0-85905-827-8, (New, 2023), A4, french flaps, 427 pages, 270+ maps, 1.2kg, $110.00*

This volume is recommended to be used in conjunction with the two volume West Australian Gold Towns and Settlements, published in 2011, as many of the maps are applicable to both titles.

Western Australian Lonely Graves. Yvonne and Kevin Coate.

ISBN 978-0-85905-682-3, A4, 1284 pages, 4 volumes, soft cover, 3.5 kg, $325.00*

These magnificent volumes are the result of nearly 40 years research by Yvonne and Kevin Coate and their associates, and contain details of thousands of lonely or lost graves throughout Western Australia.

The information is from local and state histories and newspapers, police reports, correspondents, coroner's files, and government papers.

Books of this calibre are rare, as is the capacity for researchers to produce such volumes of useful data.

The volumes are also an important bibliography of bush history from the earliest colonial times to the near present.

Westralia Gift Book.

ISBN 978-0-85905-596-3, (1916, 2015), A4, 234 pp, well illustrated, 750grms, $40.00*

Produced to aid YMCA military work and the returned nurses' fund in 1916, it contains the writings, drawings and 7 colour plates from Westralian authors and artists. Originally funded by interesting advertising from the leading manufacturers and retailers of the day, this brilliant collection shows the intellectual and philosophical attitudes of a century ago. Such a true expression of the nation would not be possible today from our termite ridden 'nation

Westralian Goldfields, The by Burton S. James

ISBN 978-085905-536-9, (1897, 2012 reset), 27pp, 65 gms, $16.50*

An 1890s overview of the goldfields which concisely lays out the most advanced views of the time on the occurrence of gold for prospectors. Many apply today.

Westward, the Course of Empire. Western Australia. by Gilbert Parker

ISBN 978-0-85905-921-3, [1890 R 2022], A4, 44 pages, 150 grams, $22.00*

A sometimes scathing but honest overview of the West before its fortunes changed with the discovery of gold. How we were in our bucolic isolation. A century later we are the economic powerhouse of the nation.

West Australian Gold Towns and Settlements by Ian Murray with Phil Bianchi, Maria Bloomfield and Celene Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-094-4, (2012, New), A4, 520pp, 1.72kg, $110.00*

Two huge volumes with 199 pages of text on the establishment history and 403 pages of original surveys and town maps. Fully indexed with the names of the first inhabitants. Published with the help of the Leonora Shire.

Only sold as the two volume set. Don't lend and lose as we printed small matching numbers and will not supply individual volumes.

Western Pioneers by J.E. Hammond

ISBN 0 85905 181 1, (1993 reprint of 1936 edition), Soft Cover, 134pp, illustrated, 180grams, $22.00

The reminiscences of a pioneer settler in Western Australia. Descriptions of early Perth and Geraldton, natives, the South West, people, businesses and more. A favourite.

Westminster Tradition and Australia by Professor L.R. Marchant

ISBN 0 85905 273 7, (1999 New), Soft Cover, 175pp, 235grams, $22.00

Essays on Australia's political system and its history. Essential reading for an understanding of the Constitution and Australia's past and future.

Whaleback Tales by Peter Eckhart

ISBN 0 85905 230 3, (1996 New), Soft Cover, 119pp, illustrated, 160grams, $22.00

The story of the town of Newman in its early days by the first doctor in the town.

What Happened at Braeside by WC Charnley

ISBN 978-0-85905-034-0, (2010, R), 25 pp, illust, SC, B5, 50g, $10.00*

In 1899 Braeside Station was the 'furthest out' in the Eastern Pilbara. A vicious native night attack resulted in the death of Doctor Edward Vines and the spearing of Herbert Hodgson. A heavily pregnant Isabella Hodgson single handedly fought off the murderers. Her now little known action, was an inspiration for generations of pioneers.

What the hell was that? A conservation biologist's journey in Australia & Asia. by Darrell Kitchener

ISBN 978-0-85905-899-5, (2021), A4, French flaps, illustrated, 205 pages, 600 grams, $55.00*

Raised in a wild Tasmanian timber town, this book traces the authors experiences as a biologist in Tasmania, Western Australia, and Asia. It provides examples of the constant wrestle between conservationists and resource developers in these regions. He spent his last 30 years working on a variety of projects, including conservation of Sumatran Orangutan, Javanese Rhinoceros, national parks, forests and watersheds in a many Indonesian landscapes. He built a heritage hotel beneath a smoking volcano in Java and published on Javanese painters and ancient trade ceramics found beneath the Musi River in Sumatra.

The first part, highlights stories of modern exploration on those islands visited by Alfred Wallace in southern Indonesia at the interface of the Australian and Indomalayan Biogeographic realms, and in the Western Australian Wheatbelt and Kimberley Regions. The second part provides readers insights on the effectiveness of work done by international NGOs in Indonesia and the nature of the enabling environment for expatriate conservationists.

Whatever happened to Kangaroo Kate? David Carnegie at Halls Creek. Moondyne Joe, his early life by Peter Bridge with Gail Dreezens and Drew Deveraux

ISBN 0 85905 416 0, (2007 New, e-published 2006, in the Dollypot, Greenhide and Spindrift column Vol 1 No 5) Soft Cover A4, 15pp, saddle, 90 grams, $11.00*

Kangaroo Kate and her namesakes intrigued bush people for many years. She disappeared in 1930. A letter from Carnegie to Forrest from Halls Creek in 1897. The real facts on Moondyne Joe's origins and early life.

Wheel Tracks by W.W. Ammon

ISBN 0 85905 190 0, (1993 reprint of 1966 edition), Soft Cover, 144pp, illustrated, 190grams, $22.00

Ammon was there when camel trains gave way to trucks. His story of the early trucking days in the Gascoyne region of Western Australia is now an Australian classic.

When Nuns Wore Soldier's Trousers by Pat Studdy-Clift

ISBN 978-0-85905-469-0, 2009 New, Soft Cover, Saddle Stitched, 59 pages, illustrated, 90 grams, $16.50

During the murderous Japanese campaign in New Guinea missionaries of all denominations were killed and their flocks dispersed. This is the story of a small group of German Catholic Sisters of the Divine Word Mission at Marienberg on the north coast, near the lower Sepik

Where Fortunes Lay by A.J. Macgeorge

ISBN 0 85905 194 3, (1993 New), Soft Cover, 186pp, illustrated, 250grams, $22.00

A biography of the finders of the Golden Mile with the story of Sam Pearce and the verse of Dorrie Doolette. A real gem of the gold rush books.

When Fortune Smiled and Other Tales of the Goldfields by John Drayton prepared by Peter J Bridge, Angela Teague and Rina Ashcroft

ISBN 978-0-85905-563-5, (2014), Soft cover, A4, indexed, 136pp, 390g, $30.00*

Contains 65 WA true tales of the goldfields, such as, The rush to Cow Camel, When thieves fall out, Rifles and axes for two, The lost show at Gregory Hills, Skull Creeks bloody baptism, and The patch at Double Cross.

Where is Brown Hill? by Amy Moore

ISBN 0 85905 128 5, (1989 New), Soft Cover, 60pp, 115grams, $16.50

Brown Hill was a small mining community t'other side of Kalgoorlie. Now covered with mullock heaps of the new open cuts, this township and its people are recorded by Amy Moore, born and bred in this forgotten goldfield's village.

Where on the Coast is That? by Ian Murray with Marion Hercock.

ISBN 978-0-85905-452-2, (New, 2008), Soft Cover, 350 pp, 910 grams, $ 50.00*

Owing to the geographical location of Western Australia at the eastern edge of the Indian Ocean, its coastal features have more than the expected Aboriginal and English place names. This is because the first European names were bestowed by Dutch navigators in the 1600s, then by English and French navigators before settlement by the English in the 1820s.

Where There's Smoke There's Fry by Chris Hales

ISBN 0 85905 259 1, (1999 New), Soft Cover, 196pp, illustrated, 270grams, $22.00

The biography of Alf Fry - one of the great characters of the South West of Western Australia.

White Blacks and Black Whites edited by P.J. Bridge A. Teague & G. Dreezens

ISBN 0 85905 436 5, (2008 New), A4, Soft Cover, 34pp, illustrated, 130grams. $22.00*

From the 1830s to the 1890s many strange stories about whites amongst the blacks came in from the frontiers. Albinos, lost explorers or shipwreck survivors? This intriguing collection is from Western Australia.

White Feather by Margaret Bull

ISBN 0 85905 111 0, (1987 reprint of 1981 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 111pp, 180grams, $22.00

The story of the old goldfield's town of Kanowna.

White Sails & Charcoal. Stories of Coincidence, Bella Kelly and Carrolup by Tony Davis

ISBN 978-0-85905-984-8, (New, 2023), A4, French flap soft cover, illustrated, 428 pages. 1.7kg, $110.00*

A portrait of the social history of Southern Western Australia through the evolution of Noongar Art and the influences of European Settlement. Tony was a friend and mentor of Bella and her family. The detail of his research will stand this book tall above the politicised eruptions on the subject of Carrolup art.

Launching 1 July 2023. Available directly from the author tel 9841 7436. Regional sales Paperbark bookshop Albany. Perth sales via Hesperian.

Wilgie Mia. Cave of Red Ochre and Raddled Ranters by Peter J. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-702-8, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, indexed, 100+ pages,  grams, $30.00*

A history of the discovery of the cave, early mining, and the industry that grew around it. Also an examination of the Wadgela myths of the sacred cave, which are less believable than those of the Aboriginal dreamtime. Wishful thinking guides government policy resulting in closure and restriction as the home for a red elephant.

William Benstead. Pioneer of Alice Springs and Coolgardie by William Benstead with Peter J. Bridge and Ian Murray.

ISBN 978-0-85905-764-6, (New, 2019), A4, illustrated, indexed, 69 pages, 200 grams, $25.00*

Bill Benstead, Cattleman, hotelier, explorer, butcher. Anna's Reservoir & Coolgardie. His cattle interests were in Africa, Madagascar, Argentina, working for Vestys. His daughter Lulu was a very well known singer on the London stage.

William Campbell Charnley, 1882-1966, A bibliography. compiled by Peter J Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-227-6, (2011, New), 20pp, illust, 50g, $10.00*

Charnley was a prolific writer, from 1915 to 1966, primarily on Western Australian history, publishing "close to a million words" by 1951 in magazines and newspapers.

William Dugald Campbell. Western Australian Ethnographic Papers by W. D. Campbell

ISBN 978-0-85905-622-9, (R, 2015), A4, pp, illustrated, grams, $35.00*

W. D. Campbell, an English geologist working in New Zealand and Australia undertook pioneering ethnographic work in the Eastern Goldfields, North West and Murchison.

This collection is of rare and difficult to obtain papers that are little known to those interested in such material. The items on churingas and phallic objects are sure to 'raise' an interest in those so oriented.

William Ford and Coolgardie by Alice Kathleen Clemenson

ISBN 0 85905 118 8, (1988 New), Soft Cover, 151pp, illustrated, 340grams, $22.00

The biography of the discoverer of Coolgardie. Copiously illustrated.

William Ford & Coolgardie. Index by Michael Lance, Gail Dreezens, Peter J. Bridge

ISBN 978-0-85905-908-4, (2021), A5, 8 pages, 30 grams, $10.00*

William F. Rudall. Surveyor and Explorer by Peter Bridge, Phil Bianchi, Alan Zweck, Gail Dreezens.

ISBN 978-0-85905-672-4, (New, 2019), A4, 176 pages, illustrated, maps, indexed, 490 grams $45.00*

The biography and expeditions of Rudall and the details of the death of Aubrey Newman.

This long awaited biography contains much previously unknown information from Rudall's family papers, AZ being a distant relative. His surveys and explorations are treated in detail and are of especial interest due to his being the 2IC to Surveyor Newman who died on their expedition. Rudall named Mt Newman. His work in the desert searching for the lost Calvert explorers brought his name to the public. Unfortunately funding was not forthcoming from the expected Government and corporate sources and so both a two year delay and a shorter print run is the result.

William White, Convict 9348, Discoverer of the Eastern Goldfields by P J Bridge and Graham Gath.

ISBN 978-0-85905-461-4, (2008), Soft Cover), A4, 35 pp, illustrated, 130 grams, $22.00*.

William (Milky) White pegged the first gold claim in 1885 at Fraser Range.

Willshire of Alice Springs by A. Stapleton

ISBN 0 85905 177 3, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 68pp, illustrated, 150grams, $22.00

Mounted Constable Willshire of Alice Springs was tried for murder in 1891. He was acquitted but received undeserved notoriety. Details of his books and work among Aborigines.

Wiluna - edge of the desert by P.R. Heydon

ISBN 0 85905 216 8, (1996 New), Hard Cover, 624pp, illustrated, 1kg, $75.00

The history of the goldfield's town of Wiluna and its surrounds, its people and incidents in its roaring days.

Winds of Change: Memories of BMC Leyland Australia, The by Gary Mentiplay

ISBN 978-0-85905-931-2, (New, 2022), A4, 302 pages, illustrated colour, french flap cover, indexed, 1.2kg, $60.00

Records the stories of people that had experience with BMC Leyland Australia (including Austin and Morris) and their dealer network.

Available only direct from the author garymentiplay@bigpond.com ***

Winjan's People by J.E. Hammond

ISBN 0 85605 330 X, (Reprint of 1933 edition, 1980/2005), Soft Cover, 86pp, illustrated, 125grams, $22.00

First published in 1933, this book is still one of the best introductions to the life and customs of south west Australian aborigines.

Winning the Gascoyne by Rhonda McDonald.

ISBN 0 85905 158 7, (1991, 2008), 248pp, illustrated, Soft Cover, 320 grams, $35.00

The history of the Upper Gascoyne stations and area

Wittenoom by Ian Duggan and Katharina Zeelenberg.

ISBN 978-0-85905-688-5, (New, 2018), A4, illustrated, 147 pages, 425 grams, $40.00*

A critical examination of the previously unexamined files of government departments and corporations that inflicted the disasters of asbestosis and mesothelioma on the Australian population from the mines at Wittenoom. An essential read for all involved in Wittenoom.

Wongan Gold: The Wongan Hills Goldrush of 1888 by Peter j. Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-910-7, (New, 2021), A4, 32 pages, illustrated, grams, $22.00*

Edward Payne, who had helped to discover the Yilgarn found gold at Wongan. The short lived rush was stymied by the land alienation grants to the Midland Railway Company.

Now over 130 years on, the area has great potential for large base metal discoveries.

Wongi Wongi by Judith Drake-Brockman

ISBN 0 85905 286 9, (2001 New), Soft Cover, 162pp, illustrated, 225grams, $22.00

An account of the relationship between the Brockman family and Aborigines on Corunna Downs station and later in Perth.

Wooden Butterflies by Anna Wiciak-Suchnicka

ISBN 0 85905 131 5, (1989 New), Soft Cover, 137pp, 210grams, $22.00

This autobiography evokes a different world in Poland, since destroyed by the Bolsheviks and the Nazis. The story of the flight of the author and her family through Asia and Africa to Australia.

Woodlines of Western Australia - A comprehensive history of the Goldfields woodlines. by Phil Bianchi

ISBN 978-0-85905-725-7, (New, 2019), 170 x 240, french flaps, heavily illustrated, 449 pages, 1.2kg, $85.00*

Without a source of cheap energy to fuel steam boilers and for ore treatment, only the Western Australian mines with rich ore would have been productive. Firewood companies established privately owned train lines up to 120 miles out from major centres such as Kalgoorlie to bring in firewood. Although the Kurrawang and Lakewood woodlines are the main feature of this book; other woodlines included Lakeside south of Boulder, Kurramia/Kanowna, Cue, Laverton, Gwalia and Westonia.

"Work Completed, Canning" - A Comprehensive History of the Canning Stock Route, 1906 – 2010 by Phil Bianchi

ISBN 978-0-85905-549-9, (2013 New), 724pp, 274 photos, 38 maps, casebound, dust jacket, $120.00* Stiffened soft cover $85.00*. 1kg+

The story of Alfred W. Canning and the development and subsequent use of the 1800 kilometre long Canning Stock Route from Halls Creek to Wiluna is told in this new volume.

Working Lives of the 1967/69 Geology Graduates of the University of Queensland. Bill Koppe, Peter Hayden and Bill Turner.

ISBN 978-0-85905-731-8, (New, 2018), 160x240mm, illustrated, 119pp, 325 grams, $30.00*

An important and innovative examination of geological careers in Australia.

World's Rough Hand, The by H. Phelps Whitmarsh

ISBN 0 85905 336 9, (2005 Reprint 1898), Soft Cover, 108pp, 160grams, $22.00

Hubert Phelps Whitmarsh arrived in Adelaide in the mid 1880's. His crowded life as a "sailor, sundowner, miner, shepherd, fishmonger, barber, roustabout, officer, diver and pearler" in South Australia, New South Wales and the Western Australia coast. He returned to England in 1888 and was later a journalist in the United States.

Wreck of the Barque Stefano, The by Gustave Rathe

ISBN 0 85905 144 7, (1990 New), Soft Cover, 136pp, 190grams, $26.00

The Stefano was wrecked on the North West Cape in Western Australia in 1875. After clashes with the natives the last two survivors were rescued by Captain Tuckey of the Jessie. A classic of survival.

Wyndham - with a ton of salt by Ken Mellowship

ISBN 0 85905 345 8, (2004 New), Soft Cover, A4, 53pp illustrated, 170grams, $22.00*

The people of Wyndham on the wharf and at the meat works, the characters and their foibles. A series of sketches of life in a forgotten town with sidelights on the Territory and PNG during the late '50s and early '60s.

XYZ

Xantho and the Broadhursts. by M. McCarthy

ISBN 978-0-85905-676-2, (New, 2017), 129 pages, A4, Illustrated, 400 grams, $30.00*

From steamships to suffragettes: In attempting to understand the strange wreck of Western Australia's first colonial steamship SS Xantho, maritime archaeologist M. (Mac) McCarthy needed to get into the mind of its owner and operator Charles Broadhurst. Reviled and dismissed by his peers and most historians, Broadhurst was found to be Western Australia's first and foremost colonial entrepreneur, fore-runner to the famous, and in some cases equally controversial, Claude de Bernales, Laurie Connell, Alan Bond and Robert Holmes à Court. Though creative, extremely hard-working and far-sighted, he failed at almost every turn – as a pastoralist, pearler, steam-ship owner, fish canner, MLC and guano merchant. Attention then turned to his wife Eliza Broadhurst a talented musician, teacher, headmistress, actor and feminist, then to their fabulously rich son Florance Constantine Broadhurst, an enormous success in the mining industry. Then attention turned to others in the family and finally to their youngest daughter Katherine, one of Western Australia's two Suffragists, her beliefs so strongly held that she was imprisoned and required to be force fed with others of her kind in Britain's infamous Holloway Prison.

Yalgoo by Alex Palmer

ISBN 0 85905 261 3, (1990 reprint of 1985 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 200pp, illustrated, 265grams, $22.00
The history of mining and pastoral stations in the Yalgoo district, east of Geraldton.

Yammatji by Bryan Clark

ISBN 0 85905 159 5, (1992 New), Soft Cover, 208pp, illustrated, 260grams, $30.00
Biographies and history of Aborigines of the Gascoyne with many photographs and drawings.

Yampi Frontier. Constable Fletcher in the search for the murderers of Conde and Jones by Peter J Bridge.

ISBN 978-0-85905-878-0, (New 2021), A4, illustrated, 34 pages, Indexed, 155 grams, $22.00*

JP Jones was viciously murdered by the Yampi savages in 1909. Paul Conde, (Mad Jack) had been murdered in the same area 4 years previously. Suffering with recurrent fever PC Fletcher (Kuhlman) tracked and captured the murderou tribe in an expedition into exceptionally rough country. He was rewarded for his bravery. But several years later a degenerate Filipino slashed his jugular outside a Broome hotel.

Yeelirrie: Wendy's Place by Alan Jones

ISBN 978-0-85905-566-6, (2014 New), A4, 217pp, illustrated, indexed, 925grams, $35.00*

With three generations of her family, Wendy Folvig lived almost fifty years on Yeelirrie Station near Wiluna in Western Australia. They developed and worked Yeelirrie from 1923-1972 when a major uranium discovery was announced and the station was sold. Wendy was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) on Australia Day, 2013 for community service in a number of organisations. These included sixty years continuous membership of the Country Women's Association of Western Australia, and the National Trust of Australia (WA). Wendy is a life member of both bodies. This is a story of many parts: life on an outback station, family serving in the Great War, mining for gold, the discovery of uranium, and a life beyond Yeelirrie.

Yeeramukadoo – A saga of the North West by Nancy E. Withnell Taylor

ISBN 0 85905 307 5, (Reprint of 1987 edition with new material), Soft Cover, 254pp, illustrated, 340grams, $30.00

A history of the North West and Roebourne through the Hancock and Withnell families.

Yerilla by Alex Palmer

ISBN 0 85905 466 7, (2002, R 2009), 84pp, illust., 125g, $22.00

Yerilla covers the history of this eastern goldfields area (east of Menzies) from the gold rush of the 1890s to the present time.

Yelma Station diary of Arthur C. Ashwin for 1928, The . Arthur C. Ashwin.

ISBN 978-0-85905-663-2, (New, 2017), 40 pages, A4, 120 grams, $22.00*

Youanmi: A History of Murchison Gold by J. Hooper

ISBN 0 85905 104 8, (1987 New), Soft Cover, 188pp, illustrated, 250grams, $35.00

Youanmi, a goldfield's town that grew from nothing in the desert, flowered and died. The history of the town, its mines and people.

Young Soldier from the Goldfields, The by Roma Wood

ISBN 0 85905 210 9, (1995 New), Soft Cover, 138pp, illustrated, 200grams, $22.00

The story of a battler's life from Boulder to the Middle East and New Guinea, then working in the emerging North West of Australia, raising a family in the Pilbara, the Goldfields and the Northern Territory

Yundamindra by Alec Palmer

ISBN 0 85905 370 9, (2006 New), Soft Cover, 138pp, illustrated, 190 grams, $22.00

The old gold mining centres of Yundamindera, Linden, Pennyweight Point, Pykes Hollow, Eucalyptus and Yundamindra Pastoral Station. Their story, together with the lives of the folk, black and white, who forged a living here over the years are brought together in Yundamindera's pages.

Small essays and reports as A5 booklets have been recentley produced.

These are :-

3000 Miles on Side Saddle. Daisy Bates. ISBN 978-0-85905-718-9, A5, $10.00*

Alligators of Cambridge Gulf, The by W.C. Charnley. ISBN 978-0-85905-694-6, A5, $10.00*

An Aboriginal Monster. Daisy Bates. ISBN 978-0-85905-740-0, (RN, 2018), A5, 10 pp, $10.00*

A description of the habits and character of an Aboriginal monster who terrorised his tribe and cannibalised all he could.

A Shepherd of the Plains. The life of William Bashford by F W Gunning

ISBN 978-0-85905-787-5, (2020), A5, 11 pages, $10.00*

Bushman, pastoralist, of Moora, Dandaragan.

A tale of the Meekatharra Track by Jean Dell & Hal Warwick. ISBN 978-0-85905-709-7, A5, $10.00*

Billy's Passenger. A voyage to Port Walcott by Richmond Thatcher. ISBN 978-0-85905-708-0, A5, $10.00*

- Contributions towards an Aboriginal Dictionary of Biography by Peter Bridge. ISBN 978-0-85905-668-7, A5, $10.00*
- David Carnegie by W.C. Charnley
ISBN 978-0-85905-819-3, (1934 R 2020), A5, 12 pages, 30 grams, $10.00*
- Dr William John Peasley, a biography and bibliography
ISBN 978-0-85905-802-5, (2020), A5, 8 pages, $10.00*
- Edneys, A Family of the North, The by Peter J. Bridge
ISBN 978-0-85905-816-2, (2020 New), A5, 17pp, illustrated, 45 grams, $10.00*
For well over a century the Edney's of the NW were well-known as residents of Cossack and as horsemen and pastoralists in the Pilbarra. Interesting tales are all that survive of the first three generations. Time goes and blood flows. The NW Edneys are now represented by their aboriginal descendants.
- Goose's Puzzle, The. Peter J. Bridge. ISBN 978-0-85905-713-4, A5, $10.00*
The biography of prospector Charlie 'The Goose' Harris.
- Hannans Revisited by Watty. ISBN 978-0-85905-690-8, A5, $5.00*
- John Blockley, Obituary by Tony Cockbain
ISBN 978-0-85905-788-2, (2019), A5, 6 pages, $10.00*
- Madness in the Mulga - The murder of Bert Livingstone at Mt Seabrook. by Peter J. Bridge
ISBN 978-0-85905-755-4, (New, 2019), A5, 28pp, 45 grams, $15.00*
- Mary Lindsay and the Defence of Jurien Bay 1928-1941 by Bob Sheppard
ISBN 978-0-85905-824-7, (2020 New), A5 Soft Cover, 27pp, illustrated, 60 grams, $10.00
In Book 2 in the Mid-West at War Series, Bob Sheppard explores Mrs Mary Lindsay's call for the development of Jurien Bay as a naval port as Australia faces emerging aggression from Germany and Japan.
- Matrimony at Marble Bar. ISBN 978-0-85905- 693-9, A5, $10.00* A mesalliance in the mulga.
- Nullarbor Aboriginal Vocabularies and Ethnographic Notes. by Daisy Bates ISBN 978-0-85905-766-0, (1918 R 2019), A5, 18pp, 35 grams, $15.00*
- Oldest Perth. The days before the white men won. Daisy Bates. ISBN 978-0-85905-721-9, A5, $10.00*
- Outback Trip, The by Anon SBN 978-0-85905-775-2, (1902 R 2019), A5, 7pp, 20grams, $5.00* "The Curse of Bewick Moring dark upon the mulga hangs..."
- Pearl Station on the NW Coast, The by Richmond Thatcher. ISBN 978-0-85905-707-3, A5, $10.00*
- Port Hedland to Carnarvon by Buckboard. Daisy Bates. ISBN 978-0-85905-722-6, A5, $16.00*
- Real Stolen Generations, The. Lost in the bush and stolen by blacks by Peter Bridge.
ISBN 978-0-85905-665-6, A5, $10. The disappeared white children.
- Tin Memorials in Menzies Cemetery, The. Yvonne Coate. ISBN 978-0-85905-717-2, $15.00*
- Waterbag Joe Lyons by Peter J. Bridge.
ISBN 978-0-85905-741-7, (New, 2020), A5. 21 pages, $10.00*
Joe Lyons, a successful prospector made his name immortal on the goldfields by going in search, on foot, with 8 waterbags, for a lost prospector. Like Russian Jack, his humanity not his gold, marked him as real man.
- Wheat Thieves, The by James Downie.
ISBN 978-0-85905-817-9 (1934 R 2020), A5, 9 pages, $10.00*
A 1930s tale of the wheat gangs stealing bagged wheat during the depression.
- Wild Nor-West, The by Crosscut Wilson. ISBN 978-0-85905-692-2, A5, $5.00*

BANK DIRECT PAYMENT DETAILS

Business Name: Hesperian Press

Address: PO Box 317, Victoria Park, W.A., 6979 ABN

Number: 64 056 513 305

Title of Bank Account: Alexander James Bridge Cultural and Educational Foundation Ltd

Bank Name: National Bank, Victoria Park

SWIFT or Routing Number: NATAAU3306P BSB

Number: 086-479

Account Number: 284305358

GST Registered

P.J. Bridge

Manager

Telephone (08) 362 5955 Tues & Friday (1pm to 5pm W.A. time)

Please advise by email books@hesperianpress.com when funds have been deposited and for which invoices. It is essential that the invoice number or your name be included in the information to appear on the banking statement.

THANK YOU